GIROUX & SULLIVAN'S.

Ball's health-preserving Corset has been universally adopted by Ladies who appreciate health, comfort and a beautiful figure.

By means of spiral spring elastic sides this Corset is made self-adjusting to the form, rendering it yielding and therefore healthful. Physicians endorse and recommend it.

By reason of its elasticity it adjusts itself to the form whatever the peculiarity, and fits throughout as accurately as a Jersey Jacket, while in an ordinary Corset a fit about the waist line is all that is secured. It is the most perfect Corset in the market to-day.

FRIDAY, MARCH 7, 1884.

THE RACE COURSE.

Trotting on the Little Lake—The Green Horses and Colts.

The annual races under the auspices of the Peterborough Horse Breeder's Association commenced on the Little Lake on Thursday afternoon. The course was on the same part of the lake as it was last year, the judge's stand being in about the same position, but the track was a half mile one instead of a mile, and the horses were required to go around it twice to traverse a mile. The weather was very favorable, as the afternoon was milder than it had been on the previous days. The attendance of sporting men and spectators was large, the ice around the judges stand being covered with people, while the street along the shore was lined with vehicles.

The judges were Messrs. Henry Calvert, J. Clendenning and Christopher Leary, and Mr. John Simpson was the starter. The Committee of Management was Messrs. Wm. Kennedy, Wm. Cleary and J. Daly, and Mr. E. Brown was treasurer and Mr. R. McCallum secretary of the Committee.

GREEN RACE.

The first contest was the green race, which was open to horses owned in the county that had never started in a race. In this competition there were seven entries, E. Brown's "Fanny B.," M. Tierney's "Harry S.," R. B. Lundy's "Uncle Jim," E. Thompson's "Indian Billy," J. Barnhart's "Honest Billy," P. Gray's "Jack Hickey," and J. White's "St. Julian."

In the first heat "Honest Billy" came in first, "Fanny B." second and "Harry S." third. In the second heat "Indian Billy" was first, "Fanny B." second and "Honest Billy" third. ## THE JUDGES DIFFER.

In the local election cases for East Simcoe and East Middlesex again we have a repetition of what had already happened more than once before, a difference of opinion between the two judges, one of them holding that the members elect should be unseated and the other giving them the benefit of the absolving clause. These Reform members will, therefore, for a time at least, retain their seats, though corrupt means have been used to secure their return, and one of the judges of the land has formed the opinion that they do not rightly represent their constituencies.

These cases show the falsity of the Reform claim to electoral purity. In both of them corruption was proved, and a number of good Reformers have been reported as guilty of corrupt practices. In both of them, also, the judges find that a leading official of the local Reform Association was implicated. In East Simcoe, W. M. Harris, the Secretary of the Reform Association, was found guilty of several corrupt acts, and was reported by both judges. In East Middlesex, Jarvis, the manager of the election fund, ex-secretary of the Reform Association, and an official of the Mowat Administration, was proved to be keeping out of the way to avoid examination, besides other suspicious circumstances connected with his transactions. Thus it seems that there was not only corruption, but that of an official character, as if such practices were a recognized part of the operations of Reform Associations. The hypocrisy of Reform professions of purity was never more clearly exposed.

To show the nature of this Reform mode of conducting elections we cannot do better than to quote the words of Judge Cameron in the East Middlesex case:—"I cannot say the corrupt practices proved, taken in connection with the other illegal acts and practices shown to have existed, were of such trifling nature or of such trifling extent as not to have affected the result. The majority certainly could not be converted into a minority by striking off the votes tainted with corruption. But almost every corrupt practice named in the Act was resorted to, and it is quite impossible to say that the evidence by any means laid them all bare. There was direct bribery, personation, double voting, treating meetings of committees, and other practices to a very considerable extent, strong suspicion of bribery of voters and an absence of proper detailed accounts by the respondent of his own expenditures and of the fund raised for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the election."

And the men who electioneer in this manner have the effrontery to talk about Conservative corruption.

ENGLAND AND THE SOUDAN.

England and the Porte-Gordon said to be ~~disputed~~—Rebel Sheikh's Descent.

The Porte has been sounding the powers regarding the Soudan. Germany replied that she would not interfere, and suggested that Turkey should arrange the matter with England. The other powers made similar replies. In view of this the Turkish ambassador has requested Earl Granville to use the Sultan's influence in seeking to conciliate the Soudanese.

THE GOVERNORSHIP OF KHARTOUM.

Nubar Pasha, President of the Egyptian Council, has renewed to Zoubair Pasha the offer of the governorship of Khartoum and Darfour. Zoubair Pasha declines to accept unless Gordon is deposed.

AN ABYSSINIAN CONTINGENT.

Capt. Mason, the English agent at Massawa, is organising an Abyssinian contingent under English officers to operate upon Khartoum by way of Kassala if El Mahdi continues fighting.

GORDON DIPPED BY THE SHEIKHS.

Gordon's reports of the submission of the sheikhs are distrusted at Cairo. It is said he is the dupe of the sheikhs, who take bribes and delude him with false news. It is reported that Sheikh Ibrahim is on the White Nile with 9,000 Arabs, and that Sheikh Dusher is advancing on Khartoum by the Blue Nile with 8,000 men.

SHEIKHS OFFERING TO DESERT.

The sheikhs of several tribes have sent envoys to Suakin offering to desert Osman Digma, and assist the English if paid for their services. Twenty-seven hundred bowmen have been buried at Teh, including those of the Egyptians killed in the fight between Baker Pasha's troops and the rebels.

OSMAN DIGMA'S FORCES.

An Arab arrived at Suakin from Osman Digma's camp reports that the rebel leader is generally hostile to the English. He reports that Osman Digma has four thousand men at Tamasheh, and more twenty-three miles from Suakin. The slaves have determined to support Osman Digma.

REBELLION AGAINST TURKEY.

Reports have reached Suakin that the Bedouins of Jeddah are in revolt against Turkey.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

THE SECOND SESSION OF THE FIFTH PARLIAMENT OF CANADA.

A Motion in Favor of Prohibition—The C. P. R. Loan Receives Assent—Offences Against Women—Fraudulent Fertilizers.

CIVIL SERVICE ACT.
Mr. CHAPLEAU on Wednesday, March 5th stated in answer to Mr. Small, that it was possible that amendments to the Civil Service Act would be introduced.

PINE AND SPRUCE LOGS.
Mr. BOWELL in reply to Mr. Vail, said that it was not intended to repeal the duty on pine and spruce logs.

PROHIBITION.
Mr. FORSTER moved a resolution in favor of the prohibition of the importation, manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors. He spoke at length of the evils of the trade to individuals, and the cost to which it put the country. Public opinion was growing, he said, in favor of prohibition. The hour for recess cut him short.

THE C. P. R. LOAN ACT.
The SPEAKERS and Members were summoned to the Senate, where the C. P. R. Loan Act having passed, assent was given to it by Sir W. Ritchie, the Deputy-Governor.

REDUCTION BILL.
Mr. CHARLTON moved a clause to his bill to the effect that anyone seducing a chaste unmarried female, under age, should be guilty of a misdemeanor.

The clause was adopted by 79 to 70.
Mr. FORSTER moved the House into committee on a clause to punish reduction under a mock marriage, and several clauses as to the evidence required.

Mr. BROWN suggested that as the bill was so complicated and so long it should be reprinted.

Sir JOHN MACDONALD, after some discussion, moved the adjournment of the debate, which was carried by 96 to 63.

FERTILIZER FRAUDS.
Mr. MASSIE's Bill to prevent frauds in the manufacture of agricultural fertilizers was read a third time.

CRIMINAL CASES.
Mr. CAMERON's (Huron) Bill to amend the law of evidence in criminal cases, was considered in committee of the whole.

Mr. LANDRY said that when on the second reading he suggested that the bill would encourage perjury Mr. Blake accused him of an attack upon the public morality of Canada. He quoted some language of Mr. Blake on various occasions, and was glad he had not copied the leader of the Opposition, as he would really have attacked Canada's morality.

Mr. BROWN moved that the committee rise, which was carried by 64 to 57, and the committee rose without reporting.

MELVILLE AGAIN TO THE RESCUE.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—Pending the expected arrival of the a.s. Frigate at New York, with the remains of the ill-fated and deposed Commander DeLong and his perished companions, I have refrained from availing myself of your permission to invite your own and the community's attention to some facts and circumstances in my keeping bearing upon the considerations linked or associated with the career of Chief Engineer Melville, U. S. N., and the proceedings in which he so prominently acted throughout the voyage of the Jeannette, from her departure northward for the Arctic waters until her submergence, and again as the surviving officer empowered by DeLong's nomination to act as leader of his section of the ship's force in the whaleboat to shore, and thereby to escape from a similar fate from that of the hapless perished. Facts and incidents are by direct presentation within my keeping. This personal narration of Melville, together with very much of a specific stamp is so markedly irrelevant to the singularity of the devoted duties devolving on him that but for their novelty alone I had contemplated shaping for your notice and possible publication the recital of a lot of some matter by prominence, salience and singularity as topics far from unworthy of promulgation through your disseminative agency. By my intent I make free to say I contemplated bespeaking—if at all practicable—direct attention to the performance of a man singular in position, of quite as great propriety as capability, and while justifying the thoroughness of execution of duty demanding the utmost pitch of unflinching firmness and fortitude in the face of peril truly extreme, yet and notwithstanding as a most sorely distressed head of a family and thoroughly possessed of the knowledge that his offspring, i.e., his group of three girls of tender years were under every cast of exposure to the deplorable influence by violence or example of an odiously dissolute mother—notoriously such. The studied out obsequies consequent on the arrival of the honored dead, and the subsequent marking of the national and national appreciation of the deceased as a traitor in an incident should occasion, having but barely sufficed when the valued gift from England of the Alert, as an accession to the force now being pressed into service with urgency for the relief of the Greely's crew in perils cast away, as of very close affinity to the considerations set active by the association of Melville therewith, it may, as I imagine and trust, readily explain how and why I deliberately would best handle the intention I arrived at. Herewith I proposed giving force and effect to truth as the voluntary yet undepicted if exceedingly earnest exposition of facts, occurrences, and circumstances, relative to, and inseparable from, any truthful attempt at depiction; what are the realities of the desolation as sinister and adverse influences subjecting the hero, unblemished of act, and faithful to death George Wallace Melville, formerly of the "Jeannette," and now, as it would appear, of the "Alert" to not alone ungenerous but ludicrous detractors debaring him of dues brilliantly won by achieving, in face of every conceivable obstruction and dissemination, an unprecedented performance. You, Sir, in your brief but very pleasurable notice of January 19th of the lady approval sent through Siberia's governor from the Czar, patriotically repeat the biblical testimony that a prophet faces menagerly in his own country by honor. I recognize beyond this that Republics are ingrates—as pronounced. Designing, with your approval, advertisement to what I have ventured to advance as unfold.

I am, Sir,
Very truly yours,
SEMPER PARATUS.

Peterborough, March 7, 1884.

DANGER TRAPS.—Neglecting colds are the fatal traps that ensnare many a victim beyond possibility of rescue. Take a cold or cough in time and it is easily conquered by that safe and pleasant vegetable remedy, Hargrave's Pectoral Balsam. Asthma, Bronchitis and pulmonary complaints generally soon yield to its healing influence.

The Weather and the Timber Trade in England.

The Timber Trades Journal of a late issue says:—"Perhaps one of the most remarkable features which have characterized the present winter, and by which it will be long remembered, is the extraordinary succession of strong gales of wind. Hardly has one destructive storm swept across the country before another has been close behind to increase still further the devastation so painfully apparent in every direction. The effect of all these destructive winds upon the timber trade can hardly fail to make itself felt before long. We had occasion to refer to this matter in our last report, and its probable influence upon current prices of certain classes of wood. However, within the last three weeks the quantity of blown timber has been extensively augmented and consequently, under these circumstances, we certainly see but little prospect, if any, of improved quotations yet awhile; the tendency is rather in an opposite direction.

Larches in particular, but beeches as well, have suffered very much in these winds, and already there are signs of great quantities coming forward from various parts.

Second Growth Timber.
A man who buys wood for one of the principal railroads in Maine asserts that wood is growing faster in that state than it is being cut. As logging is still active in Maine, this is a surprising statement, but it is not so incredible as it seems at first thought. Most of the best forests in Maine have been cut down, but only a comparatively small part of the land it covered has been cleared. It may easily be true that the territory devastated by the lumberman during twenty years is now being covered with second growth timber. In other words it may be that while a heavy growth is being cut on one acre a lighter forest is springing up on twenty.—London Free Press.

No Disappointment.
Disappointments of one kind or another crop up all along the way for thirty-five years. It is the unexpected that always happens. There is at least one article of acknowledged merit that never disappoints. Putnam's Famous Corn Extractor is sure to remove the worst corn in a few days, and no claim is made that it will cure and restore the system. If you have hard or soft corns just try it. Beware of the article "just as good." N. C. Putnam & Co., proprietors, Kingston.

FOR ALL AGES.—The aged, debilitated and infirm will find renewed vigor and strength by taking Burdock Blood Bitters. The young hastening to early decay will also find in this revitalizing tonic a remedy worth trying.

FACT STRANGER THAN FICTION.—It is a fact that Alonzo Howe, of Toledo, had a fever sore that afflicted him for thirty-five years. He took bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters cured him, which he considers almost a miracle. It was out of the corner of his eye that he noticed the remedy restoring pure blood and perfect secretion.

Daily Evening Review

FRIDAY, MARCH 7, 1884.

Hot Tea and Coffee.

The above will be furnished in gay style at the Carnival Lunch and Refreshment Rooms to-night. Oysters a specialty.

The Cells.

There were six tramps in the cells last night. On Wednesday night there were seven and Tuesday night eight.

This is the Night!

The citizens will please bear in mind that the best and grandest Carnival of the season comes off to-night in the Skating Rink. The ice is good, weather fine, and prospects of a first-class Carnival are good.

Erratum.

In our notice of the Cobourg-Peterborough curling match we inadvertently got the figures of the Peterborough score wrongly placed. The score should have read, for Mr. Miller's rink 37, and for Mr. Atchill's 23. The mistake made no difference in the total score.

The Probabilities.

The weather probabilities for this district for the following twenty-four hours, counting from one o'clock this morning, as reported from the Toronto Observatory, are as follows:—Windy mostly north and north-east; fair to cloudy weather, preceded by snow in some localities; not much change in temperature.

A Musical Entertainment.

The Gordian Family will appear in Bradburn's Opera House on Tuesday evening next. The Rondeau says of them:—"This band is composed of seven brothers, all excellent musicians, and wherever they have appeared they have been spoken of in the highest terms by the press. Go and hear them, and satisfy yourselves that they are all that is represented."

History of Canada.

Mr. J. T. Cushman is now taking orders for a new edition of Withrow's Popular History of Canada. This new edition of this excellent history is brought down to the present date, both as to letter press and maps. It is also published in Toronto by Wm. Briggs, and not in Boston, as was the previous edition. It is as we know from our own personal and admirable history of our country.

New Spring Goods.

The choicest display of New Spring Prints, Hosiery and Dress Goods are to be seen at W. Fairweather & Co's. What surprises the every lady in their Colored Dress Cashmere at 30c., a marvel of cheapness. The stock contains the richest Silks, Velvets, Brocades, Evening Dress Silks and Satins from 25c. to $1.00. Dress Goods from 10c. up. Prices are lower than ever known in the trade here. W. Fairweather & Co. guarantee everything they advertise.

A Runaway.

A runaway occurred at the race course on Thursday afternoon. Mr. T. Darcy's horse became frightened while on the track, and made off at full speed, the course being rapidly cleared to give it free passage. Mr. Darcy and two ladies were thrown out, but were, happily, uninjured. As the frightened animal drew near to the winning post it turned as if to make a trial of its running powers on terra firma, but some person threw a pall at it with well directed aim, and struck it on the head. This checked the horse's speed and turned it into a snow bank, where it was caught. No damage was done.

Dean & Co., Burton-on-Trent, India Pale Ale now on draught, at Chamberlain's Restaurant—direct importation.

THE SAVED ARMY.

Their Second Meeting in Peterborough—A Large Attendance.

The Saved Army held their second meeting in Bradburn's Opera House, on Tuesday evening—six officers occupying the platform. The hall was filled to its utmost capacity, and the large assembly was addressed by all the members on the platform in turn, "Lieut." Hunt giving a very interesting oration. A great many songs were sung, and various persons amongst the audience were asked to pray.

"General" Lindsay adverted to the fact that the collection on the previous evening had not been sufficient to pay expenses and he hoped people would be more liberal that evening and in the future.

During the course of the proceedings the Rev. Thos. Manning, B.A., came on to the platform and read a few verses from the third chapter of St. John's Gospel, commenting as he read. After this the members of the Army came down from the platform and went among the audience. Shortly after ten o'clock the Doroxy was sung and the meeting was closed.

NOTES.

Miss Carrie Peverett, of Port Hope, a soldier of the Army, arrived here on Thursday afternoon and took part in the evening meeting.

The Fort Hope Times of March 6th says:—"Gen." Lindsay, accompanied by "Lieut." Annie White and Nellie Willis, went to Peterborough yesterday afternoon, with the object of opening up Saved Army meetings in that town. We commend them to the favorable consideration of the residents of our sister town."

Speaking of the Army in Port Hope the Times says the work which they are accomplishing is truly marvellous, and that infidels and scoffers stand amazed, and many of them have been compelled to yield under the simple presentation of the truth. The Guide says that a subscription list has been started towards the erection of barracks in that town for the Army. The Army will hold another meeting in the Opera House this evening.

POLICE COURT.

VAQUANCY.

FRIDAY, March 7.—James Cahill, who was charged by Constable Adams with being a vagrant, was sent to goal for a month.

FOR DISTURBING THE SAVED ARMY.

THOMAS PURCELL was charged by Chief Johnston with having willfully disturbed an assemblage of persons met for religious worship, and pleaded guilty. He was fined $10 or ten days in goal, and was committed to prison.

THE LIQUOR LAW.

WM. H. CHAMBERLAIN was charged with having sold liquor during the prohibited hours on Saturday evening.

Mr. GEO. EDMISON, who appeared for the defendant, said that Mr. Chamberlain was away from home at the time; and that before leaving he had given strict orders to the bartender not to sell liquor after 7 o'clock. The bartender, however, did so, and Mr. Edmison asked to have his name entered in the information instead of that of Mr. Chamberlain.

The MAGISTRATE refused to amend the information as desired, and fined Mr. Chamberlain $40 and costs.

"Hot West" Cream Ale.

The finest and best Ale made in Canada on tap at the Croft Hotel.

Signs of Spring.

One swallow does not make a summer, we are told, neither, we presume, does one crow, on this side of the Atlantic. Yet the few individuals—not enthusiastic curiers—who yesterday saw a single specimen of the last named flying northward were jubilant, despite the fact that this feathered precursor of spring must assuredly have been enfeebled from acute mania.

An Involuntary Slide.

While the flyers were trying their speed by sprints around the race course on Thursday afternoon, a boy named Joseph Mitchell tried to cross the track. "Lundy's Mare" came along at the moment and the racing cutter struck the boy. The shaft just missed catching him, and he was caught between the shaft and the end of the runner, and by leaning on the end of the runner, was carried several yards. He was not seriously injured, but he had a somewhat narrow escape.

New Maple Syrup.

First of the season just to hand. Also choice Mixed Pickles and Tomato Catsup. The above is sold by the quart or gallon. Also, by the pound, bright sun-dried Apples, evaporated Apples (light), evaporated Pumpkins, Raspberries, Plums, and Black Currant Jams. Fine Assorted Jellies, and other varieties too numerous to mention. Pure Apple Butter, try it. Evaporated Apples, cheap, three pounds for 25 cents. Lemons and large sweet Valencia Oranges in abundance, at CARTON BROS., opposite the Market Square.

Carltons.

A friendly curling match was played at Lakefield on Thursday afternoon between the club of that village and the Peterborough Club. After the conclusion of the match the visitors were entertained by the Lakefield curlers at a supper at the Blakely House. The score was as follows:—

PETERBOROUGH.

Worford's Acid Phosphate.

Dr. H. N. D. Parker, Chicago, says: "I have thoroughly tested it in nervous diseases, dyspepsia and general debility, and in every case could see great benefit from its use."

COBBOURG.

SCOTT ACT CONVENTION.—A public convention of the temperance workers in the united counties of Northumberland and Durham will be held in the Sons' Hall, Cobourg, on Tuesday, March 25th, at 10 a.m., to consider the propriety of submitting the Scott Act to a vote of the electors.

Southern Enterprise.

BALTIMORE, March 5.—The Manufacturers' Record will publish a statement showing the progress of manufactures in the South this year. It sets forth that the capital employed is $28,500,000. Kentucky having the largest aggregate, $6,851,000. Cotton mills building and inaugurated since the 1st of January will cost over $3,250,000 and add more than one hundred thousand spindles to the number in the South.

"Hub" Cough Cure, 25 Cents.

Prescription of a Boston physician, dispensed years by a Boston Druggist. One dose will cure any ordinary cough. It acts almost magically. Ask J. D. Tully for a 25 cent bottle of Hub Cough Cure.

Respect.—The Gray Hairs of old age demand respect—but the gray hairs of young people require attention.—In the way of using Cingalese Hair Renewer. Thousands of men and women use their beauty with their hair, and very large numbers restore it by using Cingalese Hair Renewer. Sold J. D. Tully.

From the Liver and Kidneys arise fully half the sickness. Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters stimulates both Liver and Kidneys, and insures one against disease; it is not an alcoholic stimulant. In large bottles 50 cents.

We HAVE a speedy and positive cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria, Canker mouth and Headache, in Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy. A nasal injector free with each bottle. Use it if you desire health and sweet breath. Price 50 cents. For sale by J. D. Tully.

CRUSHED BY THE CAR.—A little son of John Spinks, Toronto, had his foot crushed by a G. T.R. Express train some time ago. Two doctors attended him without benefit, and amputation was proposed, but Hagar's Yellow Oil was tried, which gave prompt relief and effected a speedy cure, even removing all stiffness of the joint.

A DOUBLE BENEFIT.—James Moore, a prominent resident of Leamington, writes that he cured himself of Dyspepsia of a year's duration by one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and two bottles cured his wife who had been for years a sufferer from this disease. He scientifically recommends it to all suffering from similar troubles.

MRS. ELIZABETH MASON.—Dr. M. Souville & Co., Gentlemen.—Yours of last week to hand, and reply to your inquiry I have pleasure in stating that from the first time of using the aspirator and the medicine I have improved very much. The bronchitis has entirely left me. I sleep well and have a good appetite. I must also add, that coming to you as I did as a last resort, the cure effected has been wonderful. Gratefully yours, Mrs. E. Mason.

Nov. 18, 1883. Jarvis, Ont. Call personally at the Institute, and be examined, if possible, if not write for list of questions and copy of International News published monthly to International Tutors and Lung Institute, 178 Church Street, Toronto, or 13 Philip Square, Montreal, P. Q.

SATURDAY, MARCH 8, 1884.

GRATITUDE TO MR. C. TUPPER.
At the recent annual meeting of the Liberal-Conservative Association of West Northumberland, at which many of the leading farmers of the Riding were present, the following resolution was unanimously carried:—
"Moved by A. R. Eagleson, Esq., Mayor of Hamilton, seconded by Wm. Noble, Esq., ex-Mayor of Haldimand.—That this meeting fully appreciate the great importance of the live cattle trade with Great Britain to the farmers of Canada, and hereby tender to Sir Charles Tupper a vote of thanks for his prompt action in inquiring into the alleged disease amongst Canadian cattle landed at Liverpool. The Sirs police have arrested the German anarchist Max Kennell. They have sent information to Vienna which will lead to the seizure of Kasmmer and other anarchists."

ENGLAND AND THE SOUDAN.
LONDON, March 6.—Admiral Hewitt and General Graham have issued a joint despatch summoning the sheikhs of tribes to Suakin, saying if they refuse they will be protected, but if they refuse the fate of Teb will await them.

ANOTHER REBEL DEFEAT.
The Sultan of Morocco has declared El Mahdi an impostor. Gen. Gordon telegraphs that the Sultan Bey, an Austrian officer in the Egyptian service, has defeated an expedition sent by El Mahdi from Darfour, and that the Kababish tribe have defeated the rebels north of El Obidi.

An Exciting Runaway.
KINGSTON, March 7.—Most exciting runaway occurred on the ice in front of the city. Capt. Rutherford, of "B" Battery, with three young ladies named E. McPherson, L. Henderson, and Miss Armour, daughters of Judge Armour of Toronto, went out for a drive. The animals were high spirited, and after going quietly for about a mile they bolted and ran away, heading down the river. They ran round Cedar Island, and then up the lake to Garden Island, when they turned short, throwing the captain, who was driving and Miss Henderson into a snow bank, the former carrying one of the lines upon the ice. Miss McPherson and Miss Armour consulted for a second or two what to do, and finally the former, while the latter held her, stopped over the dashboard and plucked the reins of the white steers at the horses' heels, and winding them round her hands thrust and pulled at the brutes, but could not stop them. She then drove them round and round in a circle of about a mile till they were exhausted and became docile. They kept up their career for half an hour. As the horses pulled up, Mr. Walsh, butcher, drove out and helped her with the cold, the latter being badly frost-bitten.

A Job Frustrated.
Before leaving office in 1879 Mr. Mills decided to make two of his friends, Messrs. H. H. Cook and Hugh Sutherland, happy at the expense of their country. The former is a great lumberman, the latter is interested in the North-West. While an office or a contract might suit some of Mr. Mills' friends, the gift which would be valued most highly by Messrs. Cook and Sutherland was a North-western timber limit. So Mr. Mills in the month of October—weeks after the people had told him that they had no confidence in him—coolly secured the passage of an order-in-council handing over to the tender mercies of his two friends 200 square miles of timber territory upon the Saskatchewan. The timber on the Saskatchewan is the best in the North-West. It grows in blocks, and extends from the mouth of the river to the Rockies. In order to secure to Messrs. Cook and Sutherland the very best of the timber Mr. Mills had his order-in-council so worded that it gave the two gentlemen the monopoly of the timber all along the river, and the right to select the most valuable blocks. With such a magnificent grant Messrs. Cook and Sutherland would have earned millions of money. But just then Sir John came to office, and he was frustrated. Job—London Free Press.

THE HALIFAX SCARE.

Information Difficult to Obtain—A Warning Undoubtedly Given—Protective Measures Undertaken.

RETICENCE OF THE AUTHORITIES.
The recipient of the warning letter was visited on Friday by a reporter, but was very reticent in speaking of the matter and little of importance could be elicited from him. He denied that the letter came from the Governor-General, as was reported, and positively refused to state whence it emanated. His Honour thought there was no real reason for fear, but caution having been given it was necessary to take proper protective measures in case anything should result. It is believed the letter received by the Governor is from the same source whence came the warnings last year. A member of the Local Government was afterwards called on, but he also refused to say anything on several questions being put to him, refusing to either deny or acknowledge their correctness. The fact that the Legislature of Nova Scotia is now in session here no doubt adds to the desire for an increased guard against danger from Fenian or dynamite agents. It is apparent from the positions taken by the gentlemen interviewed by the press, that the contents of the letter of caution are of a character that requires immediate action in the carrying out of the suggestions made. At her Majesty's naval yard the sentinels on duty have been instructed to use extraordinary scrutiny and examination of those whom they admit, but the guard has not been increased in number. For the past three or four nights a stranger has applied at the gates to be allowed to inspect the dismantled warship Charybdis, which is offered for sale, but owing to the unusual hour, eight o'clock, he has not been permitted to enter. The fact that he has not called in the day time has attracted suspicion towards him, but no good grounds for their justification have been discovered. There are no British or other warships as present in port, consequently the outlook for danger in that direction which was kept last summer is now unnecessary. The military duty having received any intimation of the receipt of the letter, and state that no extra precautions have been taken by them.

THE DYNAMITE OUTRAGES.
Police on Scout—Vigilance on the Continent—A Woman Implicated.

The police authorities in London, Eng., are searching for dynamite in all directions, as it is believed bags of explosive material have been deposited in various quarters of the city. Suspicious persons known to be Americans have been noticed lingering in the neighbourhood of Windsor castle.

ARRESTS IN SWITZERLAND.
The Swiss Government has ordered the arrest of a number of anarchists at Bern and a search of the domiciles of suspected persons and the office of the Workingmen's Society at Bern. The Swiss police have arrested the German anarchist Max Kennell. They have sent information to Vienna which will lead to the seizure of Kasmmer and other anarchists.

A SUSPECTED GERMAN SPI.
Refugees at Geneva suspected a man named Penkert, a ruffian, anarchist, and spy, to be a German spy. Penkert received warning and suddenly disappeared.

SURVEILLANCE ON THE CONTINENT.
The police surveillance has been extended to Hamburg, Antwerp, Brest, and Bordeaux. The registers of hotels at Brussels, Paris, and other centres have been scanned. An inspection has been authorized of the dynamite works in France. There are thirty Irish-American Fenians at Havre. A dynamite factory between Amiens and Boulogne is strictly watched. It is stated that information McDermott, who is in Paris, has offered to give valuable information to the English police. He will do so at the risk of his life, as the Clan Na Gael declare they will assassinate him.

CLAN-NA-GAEL PREPARING FRESH CRIMES.
A Paris despatch says the police are aware that the chief agent of the dynamite party is in France. They believe a woman who is supposed to have conveyed dynamite to London is in Paris. The Clan-na-Gael, it is reported, are preparing to commit fresh crimes, not with dynamite but with the knife. A clue has been suggested to make an assault on one or more prominent officials in London on St. Patrick's day.

THE SOCIALISTIC CONSPIRACY.
It is believed the police at Geneva hold clues to an extensive conspiracy which would have sacrificed hundreds of lives.

PILOT AGAINST ROTHSCHILD'S MARION.

The Italian ambassadors have been instructed to confer with the powers in regard to the proposed European demand upon the United States Government to legislate against dynamite.

THE CLAN-NA-GAEL AT WORK.
The Clan-na-Gael has begun operations in Paris. A man who says he is an Irish American, and who closely resembles the informer McDermott, was brutally assaulted by four men in the Place Da Trone last morning. The voice of the victim showed the assailants that they had mistaken their man, but they would nevertheless have killed him if he had refused to promise not to inform the police.

THE TRIPARTITE ALLIANCE.
Advices from Vienna and Berlin concur in corroborating the report that Germany, Austria, and Russia have entered into a formal alliance. It is reported that Bismarck has informed the Italian ambassador at Berlin that a friendly agreement has been arranged with Russia, but that the recent interviews were limited to the restoration of cordial relations between the Emperor and the Czar.

CAIRO, March 7.—Osman Digma refused to negotiate and ignore flags of truce. Gen. Graham is already beginning to advance. Natives reported that the rebels lost 4,000 killed or wounded in the Feb. fight. Osman Digma's troops are determined to fight to the last. Rebel sentries have been posted upon all the hills signal the British advance.

Toronto Free Library.
The Free Library at Toronto was formally opened on Thursday by his Honour, the Lieut.-Governor. The platform was occupied by many of the notables of the city, and the Lieut.-Governor in a short speech declared the library open and asserted that it was one of the best evidences of the progress of the city. Dr. Daniel Wilson then addressed the large assembly, followed by Hon. Mr. Ross, Minister of Education, the recital of an Ode, and speeches by Dr. Withrow and Professor Goldwin Smith. The Chairman then announced that the reading room would be opened on the 17th of March—(laughter and applause)—and the circulating library on April 2.

In the evening the doors were thrown open to the public. Thousands of citizens took advantage of the opportunity to visit the institution. Upon all sides were heard praise and approval of the excellent internal arrangements for the convenience of visitors and of the handsome and substantial manner in which the building had been fitted up. The band of the Tenth Royal Grenadiers were present and during the evening rendered a number of choice selections in excellent style.

Princess Frederick Charles in Berlin.
Princess Frederick Charles was received by the Emperor very affectionately last week. He expressed his joy in seeing her in Berlin again. The conditions under which she came back were prepared by General Blumenthal for the Princess and by Count Marschall Count Kautz for the Prince, and were signed by both parties. The most important features of the contract are the following:—
1. The new palace which the prince inherited from his father, and which is being partly rebuilt, must have two staircases, one for the princess' exclusive use. 2. The princess will take her meals separately, except on official occasions, when she appears by the side of her husband. 3. Her horses, carriages, and servants cannot be controlled by the prince or the marshal. The princess is quite broken down in health.

The Scotts Act in Nova Scotia.

LIBERAL LAND LAWS.

Mr. PARDEE cannot be supposed to be prejudiced in favour of the Dominion Government, but he has just given evidence of his appreciation of the liberality of their land laws. In explaining his bill to permit free grant settlers to take up second locations, he said that the United States laws do not concede this privilege, but that the Dominion land regulations do. Yet the Reformers will probably continue to repeat their old falsehood that the land regulations of the States are more liberal than those of Canada.

SHUNNING THE LIGHT.

As usual under the Mowat Administration the supposed investigation of our expenditure in the Public Accounts Committee is a mere farce. No work is to be done, for the simple reason that Reform members of the Committee by absenting themselves prevent the presence of a quorum, and thus obstruct the scrutiny of the public accounts. Of course one cannot assume that this obstruction is prearranged, for it may be the result without any special agreement, of a community of sentiment which makes the Reformers dislike any letting in of the light upon their accounts. And this is not extraordinary, for they know well how the public funds were used last year for electioneering purposes in their own localities and about an enquiry. The Reformers take care to have a majority on this committee, and abuse the power thus given them by preventing a thorough investigation. It would never do for the friends of Messrs. Mowat, Pardee and Hardy to give any chance for a scrutiny of the money spent in Algoma, for instance.

NO APOLOGY YET.

UNDER the above heading the Globe ventures to complain that the charge against Mr. Blake of intriguing with the French Conservative members has not been withdrawn. In order to show why it should be retracted, the Globe refers to its disingenuous article, offering in Mr. Blake's name to bribe the Province of Quebec wholesale, and denies his complicity in this outrage. To use its own language it says:—"As a matter of fact Mr. Blake had no more to do with the authorship of the article in question than he had with the many columns of advertisements in the same issue."

Now this leaves the leader of the Opposition and the chief Reform journal in the following position. The Globe having made a disingenuous and corrupt offer in Mr. Blake's name to the Conservative members of the Province of Quebec if they would assist to overturn the Macdonald Administration, is also guilty according to its own confession of fraudulently using Mr. Blake's name without his consent in furtherance of its dishonest tactics. This evidence certainly goes to exonerate Mr. Blake from having been an accomplice in planning and carrying out this plot to corrupt a whole Province. But this does not in the slightest degree free him from the charge of having knowingly allowed this offer to stand open in his name as long as there was the slightest hope that it could work to his advantage, for he did not disown the intrigue till the vote which it was intended to effect had been taken, nor has he to this day publicly repudiated the Globe's assertion of his complicity in this corrupt scheme, and denounced the blow thus struck by the leading organ of his party at its reputation. If he did not plan the outrage nor even consent to it beforehand, he at all events allowed it the sanction of his name, and thereby tacitly supported it till he found it useless.

There is another aspect of the affair. The Globe and its imitators are pretending great indignation at asserted insults to Mr. Blake and to the Quebec Conservative members. Now as to Mr. Blake, we would ask who can be most truly said to have insulted him, those who took his own organ at its word, or the Globe which cast the stigma upon him by its unauthorized and dishonest use of his name. Mr. Blake, we must say, took this insult from a friendly journal very kindly, not having yet denounced it.

Then as to the Quebec Conservative members, who is it that has really insulted them, the party that believed in their probity, and was confident that the corrupt offer would fail, or the party that dared to make such a dishonest offer, and that since then has been accusing them of having only refused it because corruptly induced to do so by the Conservative Administration?

Any attempt to deny that the Globe article bears the disingenuous interpretation that we have put upon it, is perfectly useless. It is not the Conservative press alone that has held it to be the only possible meaning, but the independent press and even to their credit some Reform journals have expressed the same opinion as to the article, and have denounced it in appropriate terms.

FANCY DRESS CARNIVAL.

THE THIRD OF THE SEASON FOR THE PETERBOROUGH SKATING RINK.

A Large Number of Masked Skaters in Fancy Costume—Attendance of Spectators Good—The Prize Winners.

The third and last fancy dress skating carnival of the season was held in the rink on Friday evening. There were a large number of persons on the ice in fancy costume, and the attendance of spectators was very large.

The Fire Brigade Band was present and discoursed some excellent music, not the least pleasing portion of which was the vocal music with which they favoured those present. The band includes several good vocalists as well as good musicians.

A new departure was the refreshment stand, where Mr. T. H. Gemmell, of the S'm restaurant, furnished refreshments, including oysters, and the table appeared to be well patronized.

The judges must have a difficult duty to perform in selecting the costumes that were entitled to the prizes, especially the lady judges as there were so many really fine costumes. However, their awards appeared to give satisfaction, and were approved of by the spectators. Where there were so many fine costumes if one attempted to particularize the whole list would have to be gone over and mentioned. One thing, however, was noticeable, and that was the absence of many comic—or ridiculous—costumes, as nearly every one had endeavoured to excel in good taste.

The following is as complete a list of those who appeared in costume as could be obtained—

This list does not include all who wore fancy costumes, as several of them neglected to leave their cards, and we were unable to procure their names.

THE PRIZE WINNERS.

The judges of the costumes and skating were Mrs. Dr. Geo. Burnham, and Mrs. Geo. Clouston, and Messrs. Robert Hill, Andrew McNeil and J. E. Stratton. The judges, after viewing the brilliant spectacle on the ice for some time, awarded the prizes as follows:—
BEST DRESSED LADY IN FANCY COSTUME.—Miss Mayhew, "Art," a gold set of jewellery.
BEST DRESSED LADY IN FANCY COSTUME.—Miss O. Carnegie, "Lady in Reg of Henry VIII," a silver card stand, note.—This prize was offered for comic costumes, but as there was none on the ice, it was given as a second prize for fancy dress.
MOST GRACEFUL LADY SKATER.—Miss Wrighton, a case of electroplate scissors.
BEST DRESSED GENTLEMAN IN FANCY COSTUME.—Mr. Harry Nell, "Knight Red Cross," a napkin ring.
BEST DRESSED GENTLEMAN IN COMIC COSTUME.—Mr. S. B. Down, "B.B.B." fifty Plover cigar.
BEST DRESSED BOY (under 15 years).—Master H. Schofield, "Rag Picker," a silver cup.
BEST FANCY SKATER.—Mr. R. T. Hartley, 1st prize, silver medal; Mr. Cottingham, 2nd prize, silver cup.
Messrs. Hartley and Cottingham gave a fine exhibition of fancy skating in the competition for the prize.

The carnival was altogether a splendid success, and the managers are to be congratulated on the result. The two last carnivals have been such brilliant affairs that it would be almost a pity to carry out the announcement that this one would be the last.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

THE SECOND SESSION OF THE FIFTH PARLIAMENT OF CANADA.

A Reform Outing on the National Policy—Incorrect Ontario Statistics of Barley—Crockery Cheapened by Protection.

WATS AND MEANS.
SIR L. TILLET on Thursday moved the House into Committee of Ways and Means.

Mr. CANNY censured the Finance Minister for his tariff and immigration policy. He ridiculed the remission of two and a quarter million dollars of taxes as a small matter.

Mr. BERNON spoke in favour of our trade policy. In England though called Free Trade a large revenue was raised from customs. By their free trade they had driven many factories to foreign countries, and there was not a growing feeling in the old country in favour of "Fair Trade."

Mr. VAIL attacked the National Policy, and said that it had been injurious to the Maritime Provinces. It had even, he said, done no good to their coal trade, to show which he read a letter from a Halifax merchant, but upon being questioned was compelled to admit that it was written in 1879.

Mr. STAIRS said the Nova Scotia miners would not agree with Mr. Vail. He applauded the remission of the duties on tea and sugar. He pointed out that the repeal of the corn laws in England was really a protective measure for the manufacturers.

Mr. ALSTON opposed the National Policy. He held that it had injured the manufacturers, and he actually instanced a lessened export of agricultural produce, because consumed at home, as an injury to the farmers.

Mr. TAYLOR said the farmers did not think the National Policy had injured them, as they had shown by their own evidence. As to the barley difficulties he attributed it to the incorrect statistics of the Ontario Government, which had greatly exaggerated the crop and the probable export.

Mr. BOWELL promised to give information on concurrence in respect to certain cotton goods.

Mr. BLAKE objected to the duty on crates as leaning too heavily on the cheaper kinds of cottonware.

Mr. BOWELL said that under these duties our own manufacturers had increased and crockery had been cheapened.

Mr. OROZCO advocated a duty on flour barrels in justice to both millers and farmers.

Mr. MITCHELL opposed this as the farmers were already sufficiently protected while the fishermen were not. He would also do away with the duties on crockery crates.

Mr. BLAKE said that such packages in England could be sold, but in Canada they could not and their cost was added to the price of the goods. This added to freight, breakage, &c. was equal to 40 or 50 per cent. on the value.

Mr. MCLELLAN said this was an admirable argument for protection as now cheap crockery was made here and this 40 or 50 per cent. was saved.

Several resolutions were adopted and the Committee rose.

Ladies in need of a nice Spring Utensil, will find a large variety of wicker and Tinned Utensils to choose from at Turnbull's.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

THE SECOND SESSION OF THE FIFTH PARLIAMENT OF CANADA.

Reviving the Hostility to the Tariff Policy Adopted by Canada—Poor Week for Richard Dilliken a Small Spec of His Own Medicine—Mr. Mills Again Serving the United States.

CRIMINAL EVIDENCE.
Mr. CAMERON (Huron) moved on Friday to restore his bill regarding evidence in criminal cases to the order paper, but was defeated by 87 to 63.

THE NATIONAL POLICY.
Mr. CHARLTON, on the motion to go into Committee of Ways and Means, spoke on the subject of the National Policy, this time in opposition to it, but his speech may be found by the curious in former Hansards.

Mr. DUNDAS supported the tariff, and showed Mr. Charlton's fallacies in regard to the grain duties, proving by statistics that wheat was 7 cents higher in Toronto as compared with Chicago since they were imposed.

Mr. MILLS also attacked the National Policy and advertised the United States, alleging that our high tariff was causing an exodus across the line to enjoy a far higher tariff.

Mr. McLELLAN and Sir Richard Cartwright had a little passage of arms as to strong language reported to have been used by them respectively. Much amusement was caused by the vituperative Knight of the Two-faced Shield complaining of certain epithets, which he said had been applied to him.

The House then went into Committee of Ways and Means, a number of the resolutions being considered and passed.

TARIFF CHARGES.
The explanations of the Finance Minister on the tariff changes showed that they were in the direction of encouraging native industries while cheapening goods.

ENGLAND AND THE SUDAN.

LONDON, March 7.—General Gordon has requested the despatch of the first instalment of 600 Indian troops to form a nucleus for the army at Khartoum.

EL MAHDI'S ADVANCE STOPPED.

A letter has been received from O'Kelly, the correspondent of the London News, announcing his safe arrival in the Sudan. The Kababish tribe has arrested El Mahdi's march to Khartoum. He is being joined by other tribes.

STRAITS OF KAMALIA GARRISON.

Kamalia is surrounded by the enemy, and the garrison will soon be in a position similar to that in which the ill-fated Sinking garrison was placed.

OPENING OF A LONG-CLOSED ROAD.

A caravan has arrived at Khartoum direct from Dongola, by a road which has been closed for years, but which is now open owing to Gordon's decree.

EFFECT OF THE BRITISH VICTORY.
A deputation of the tribes which fought the British at Teh have arrived at Suakin, and report that the tribes under Osman are wavering in their allegiance as the news of the British victory spreads.

THE GERMAN EMPEROR'S SYMPATHY.

Emperor William takes great interest in Gen. Graham's operations, and follows every movement of troops with sincere sympathy.

United States Coinage.

The House Committee on Coinage will report favorably the bill to stop the coinage of three-dollar and one-dollar gold pieces, trade dollars and three-cent copper and nickel pieces, and limit the amount of gold coined into double eagles to twenty per cent of the bullion purchased.

The Murray Canal.

BELLEVILLE, March 8.—Messrs. Wm. Southland and S. H. Phippen have secured the contract for carrying stone from Port Ann quarry to the Murray Canal, and have secured the necessary barges.

Newspaper Copyright.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—The Joint Committee of the two Houses on the Library to-day discussed the newspaper copyright bill. It was determined to call upon leading journalists and newspaper proprietors to give their views.

More Hay-Forks.

George H. Fox and A. H. Huff, farmers, of Ameliasburg, have been victimized by alleged hay-fork agents. Each signed an agreement as agent, and had to give their notes for $200 and $100 respectively to escape suit for machines ordered to be sent to them.

A Second Ferry.

BELLEVILLE, March 8.—The merchants of Belleville will ask the City Council to grant $500 for the establishment of a second ferry between the city and Ameliasburg. Capt. Selkirk has agreed that if he be granted that sum he will build docks, procure the right of way, and charge one-third less than present rates.

Importation of Servants.

OTTAWA, March 8.—Since the first of the year Mr. W. J. Wille, immigration agent here, has forwarded to the Old Country $2,053, which was given him by various parties who are in need of farm and domestic servants for the purpose of bringing out emigrants in the spring.

Search for a Murderer.

COLUMBUS, S.C., March 9.—Last night a posse of twelve armed men under the command of the chief State constable, under orders from the governor, went to Chertow to arrest W. C. Cash, who shot Town Marshal Richards. This morning the posse surrounded Cash's residence. Colonel Cash, the father, discovering the picket in the daylight armed himself and attempted to escape, but was arrested. Young Cash, who was sleeping in an outhouse, escaped to the surrounding swamps, which are now being searched.

Widow's Italian Sailors.

BALTIMORE, March 7.—Nine sailors of the Italian bark Tonia, sent to gaol a week ago for disobedience, were taken back to the ship this morning as she was about to sail. When the handcuffs were removed the sailors made a rush at the captain, crying, "Death to the captain! we'll never go to sea." After a struggle the sailors were overcome, and sent back to gaol. Their grievance is that when they signed articles in Genoa an agreement was made not to take them to any infected port. They claim the vessel is bound for a South American port where fever is raging.

Mr. Blake and Coalitions.

It is a fact, one perhaps of no great importance in the history of the world, that Mr. Blake is not adverse to coalitions. In 1871 he destroyed the Sandfield Macdonald Administration by coalescing with Mr. R. W. Booth, a life-long Tory, although he had opposed the Ministry because of its being a coalition. In 1873 he joined the Mackenzie Administration, although, as Mr. Rymer put it in the House, "it was so chock full of old Tories that the stench was almost too much for Clear Grits." Principle, if there is such a thing in Canadian politics, did not stand in Mr. Blake's way on those occasions; why should he respect it now?—Windsor Times.

A Poetical View.

Writing to the Cincinnati tree planter Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes has said:—"I have written many verses, but the best poems I have produced are the trees I have planted on the hillside which overlooked the broad meadows, scolloped and rounded at their edges by loops of the sinuous Housatonic. Nature find rhymes for them in the recurring measures of the seasons. Winter strips them of their ornaments and gives them, as it were, in prose translation, and summer reclothes them in all the splendid phrases of their leafy language. What are these pines and firs and spruces but holy hymns, too solemn for the many-hued raiment of their gay deciduous neighbors."

Rebels on Canadian Chess Players.

"You have played in Canada recently," said a Boston reporter to Dr. Zukertort last week. "How do you find the devotees of chess in the Dominion compared with American players?"

"Well," said the champion smiling, "I found more enthusiasm than I found in the United States—far more; but it is a rather singular fact that the players in Canada, at least the leading players, are inferior to those in the United States. I said as much to the gentlemen chess players of Montreal when I was entertained by them a short time ago, but (laughing) the Montreal newspapers did not publish all I said on that occasion. Yes, there are at least eight or ten chess players in New York who are superior to the best Canadian players."

Mistreatment of a Girl.

NEW YORK, March 9.—Miss Maggie Harvey, aged 18, sister of Mrs. George Sloane, lives with her in an apartment house here. On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Sloane went out to make a call, leaving Miss Harvey at home in charge of her niece, aged two and a half years. At 10.30 Miss Harvey retired with the little child. In her bed-room is a little closet, in which she thought she heard a strange noise. The closet door opened and James Williams, a negro coachman, sprang out and seized her by the throat, and threatened to kill her if she made an outcry. The child was aroused and began to cry, when the negro threatened to kill it if Miss Harvey didn't quiet it. He demanded to know where the money was, and ordered her to give up all the keys of the room. She said she did not know where the money was. He dragged her from the bed, threw her violently on the floor, stuffed a handkerchief in her mouth and tied her hands and feet. He then ransacked the house, and went out by the window leading to the fire escape.

Mrs. Sloane arrived home at 11.30 and found Miss Harvey in an unconscious condition. She would have died from suffocation had not assistance been rendered. She lies now in a critical condition. The ladder of the fire escape leads up to the window of Gertrude Ash, the colored servant of Mrs. Sloane. Williams was found under her bed. She also was arrested. About $800 worth of jewellery was found her room. Williams is 21 years of age, Gertrude 19.

Howard's Acid Phosphate.

FOR NERVOUSNESS.
Dr. H. N. D. Parker, Chicago, says: "I have thoroughly tested it in nervous diseases, dyspepsia and general debility, and in every case could see great benefit from its use."

RUSSIAN ANNEXATION OF MERV.

LONDON, March 8.—It has been announced that the Persians last November appealed for Russian protection against the Turkoman. Capt. Abkhlanoff with an escort of 35 Cossacks went to Merv with a letter to the Khans, and induced him and other chiefs to petition Russia for annexation. Gen. Komaroff answered that Russia would grant this honor if slavery be renounced and the booty taken from the Persians be restored. The Khans accepted these terms and deliberated the prisoners. Russia intends to establish a permanent legation at Cabul, a step rendered necessary by the occupation of Merv.

A EUROPEAN DISARMAMENT.

LONDON, March 8.—The Brussels Nord (Russian organ), referring to the speech from the throne in the German Reichstag, says:—"The present moment is most opportune for a general or partial disarmament. The quiet of Europe is a practical basis for peace. The same article denies that there is an alliance between Russia, Austria and Germany."

HENRY GEORGE.

LONDON, March 8.—The Scottish Reformation League, which Henry George formed at Glasgow, has issued a manifesto declaring that the land is the rightful heritage of the people. AN IRISH ANABAPTIST SENTENCED.

PARIS, March 8.—The Franco-Irish anarchist Murphy has been sentenced to six months' imprisonment and fined 1,000 francs for advocating assassination in a Socialist newspaper.

DYNAMITERS IN FRANCE.

PARIS, March 8.—The police are closely watching the movements of 83 persons now in France suspected of belonging to the dynamite party. O'Donovan Rossa's son is in Paris, but there is no evidence that he is connected with the dynamiters. A brother of Joseph Brady, one of the Phoenix park assassins, is living in the Quartier Latin.

PLOT DISCOVERED IN PESTH.

VIENNA, March 8.—A dynamite plot has been discovered at Pesth. The police have seized several packages of explosives forwarded by anarchists through the parcel post.

GENERAL GRAHAM.

LONDON, March 8.—General Graham has been ordered not to advance from Suakin unless he is sure of finding the enemy. A force of cavalry will reconnoitre to-night. Osman is at Tamasieb wadi. He is urging his followers to fight, and assures them that success is certain. He will watch them from afar as they do battle, invoking the blessings of Allah upon them.

ADVANCE OF THE BLACK WATCH.

CAIRO, March 9.—The Black Watch regiment made an advance of eight miles from Suakin today, and encamped in the front of the enemy's lines. It is estimated that Osman Digma's army numbered 6,000 men at Suakin.

BURIAL OF JEROME COLLINS.

DUBLIN, March 9.—A procession formed of the Amalgamated Trades Guilds, the town commissioners, and about five thousand citizens, followed the remains of Jerome J. Collins, an Irishman, to-day from Queenstown cathedral to the pier, where the bodies were placed on the steamer Erin. The river procession was led by the Erin. All displayed colours at half-mast, as did all the shipping in the harbour. An immense concourse of people met the remains at Cork and followed to the Curragh Cupplans, where the interment took place.

REBEL FORCES BREAKING UP.

LONDON, March 8.—General Graham telegraphs that he will begin his march against Osman Digma on Tuesday. Many Arab deserters from Tamasieb are arriving at Suakin. They report that Osman's forces are breaking up, the tribes being unwilling to fight the English. Scouts report that Osman Digma is making all the remaining faithful to him at Suakin, where he will make a final stand. Gen. Graham's orders are to make Tamasieb the limit of his advance.

PROPOSED ANARCHIST MEETING.

PARIS, March 8.—At an anarchist meeting in Paris to-day it was decided to maintain strict secrecy concerning the preparations being made for a monster gathering of adherents of anarchist views. It is believed the eighteenth is fixed upon for the proposed meeting.

THE TACTICS OF THE GUILTY.

The Reformers of Ontario, their Cabinet Ministers, members of the Legislature, officials, journalists and private individuals, in fact the party as a body, challenged the Conservative members and party generally to formulate and maintain the charges they had made against the Mowat administration, more especially Mr. Farde, and their officials, of using corruption and undue influence to secure the return of a Reform member in Algoma. They loudly protested innocence and dared investigation either in the House or in the courts of law. Having thus invited and defied enquiry, the public might have expected that they would, if their professed purity were genuine, have courted the most searching examination of all their transactions, that they would have placed no obstacles in the way of a strict scrutiny, and that they would have shunned themselves behind no technical objections, being only rejoiced to have an opportunity of showing their readiness to let in the most trying light upon all their actions. Those who believed their pretensions to immaculate innocence certainly would not have expected them to adopt tactics at all similar to those of the pettifogging legal member of a firm of bill brokers of doubtful reputation, anxious to frustrate the efforts of their victim to obtain justice.

But instead of any such fearless line of conduct from these self-assured innocents, what do we see. In answer to their defiant challenge one of the conspirators has been tried and convicted of manipulating the Algoma vote in the interest of the Mowat administration; others have been summoned to undergo the same ordeal; the Ministry and their officials have had some of their misdeeds openly exposed in the Legislature; and the government has been called upon to bring down returns of their Algoma transactions. And now we have a complete change of base on the part of these conscious culprits; in the place of protestations of innocence we have taunts that the Opposition will not be able to prove anything; instead of invitations to investigate, we have every possible trick to thwart enquiry; and instead of denials of guilt, unfounded complaints that the proofs of it were not fairly obtained. They defend an action in the courts by pleading that the country they went up to seize and hold, and which they were corrupting for a Provincial election, is not within the jurisdiction, being no part of Ontario. They withhold returns asked for day after day in regard to the Algoma election, and boast that nothing will be found in them when they are brought down, as may well be the case if sufficient time is allowed for manipulation. They prevent investigation of the public accounts by availing themselves of their majority to absent themselves and thus prevent the formation of a quorum. When public attention is called to this subterfuge their colleagues ensure a continuance of the same obstruction by "forgetting" to instruct the Clerk to call together the committee. They refuse the committee vouchers for expenditures for fear they should throw light on the fraudulent proceedings. They plead that their correspondence with their officials, sent to the contested constituency to carry out their friends, are "confidential." They claim that their instructions to these deputies are privileged. They assert falsely that the proofs of their guilt, of which they cannot impugn the genuineness, are stolen, without having one little of evidence of the truth of their charge. They defend as venial the official negotiations for purchasing newspaper support, and for distributing an enormous electioneering fund through their officers deputized for that purpose at the expense of the Province, and who officially style the majority of the Algoma electorate "the enemy." Every obstacle, every tricky means of delay, every dishonest and quibbling device, is being used to defeat an investigation, or in case of the worst to postpone enquiry till the present session is at an end.

Are these pettifogging devices the conduct of men confident of their innocence, or the crafty tactics of wrong doers who would conceal their guilt?

Manufacturing Public Sentiment.

The independent Reform Newmarket Era says:—
"Previous to the late Algoma election George Burden sent a despatch to Hon. Mr. Farde that it was absolutely necessary that he should be placed in possession of funds in some shape to meet pressing emergency. The election is now over, and in the Ontario Public Accounts we find the following sums paid that gentleman:—
"G. Burden, services as Commissioner, $2,615.00," together with a further item of $112.22 for "sundry disbursements." Now, if we can only get at the expenditure made by Manitoba and the Dominion, in the Ret Postage and postage, the public will have some idea of what it cost to manufacture political sentiment on the borders of civilization."

COMMISSIONS OF THE PEACE.

Mr. MOWAT on Friday in reply to Mr. French said that since he had been Premier no new commission of the peace except supplementary ones had been issued. There had been 51 of these some with only one name.

Mr. MEREDITH supposed they were all supporters of the Government.

Mr. MOWAT said they ought to be.

Mr. DRYDEN moved,—"That a Select Committee be appointed to consider the desirability of amending the Municipal Act that the number of members in county councils may be reduced. The committee to have power to send for persons and papers." He said that in many cases the councils had become too large, till they were a heavy burden. He instanced many Councils with 25 to 50 members. The cost had consequently increased 40 per cent. The increase was continual from the growth of population and the incorporation of villages, and there was no limit to this. He moved for the Committee because he thought it time to consider the matter, not with a view to immediate action. Such large councils were not necessary, and they really controlled very little expenditure. Some suggested the United States plan of a small number of County Commissioners, but he did not favour it. Others would raise the number to entitle deputy reeves, but this might not be fair to the wealthier townships. Another proposal was to give the reeves several votes according to population, but there were objections to this also. The County Councils were training schools for wider fields of usefulness. The Committee might obtain valuable suggestions, and consult public opinion.

Mr. DRYDEN agreed that County Councils were growing too large. He thought County valuations might do much of the work.

Mr. MCKAY said the Simcoe County Council was opposed to a reduction. He thought the expenditure should be cut down.

Mr. O'CONNOR was also favourable. The House had admitted the principle by not allowing farmers' sons to count in the requisite number of deputy reeves.

Mr. WOOD thought there was a feeling in the country in favour of reducing the Councils. On the other hand municipalities would be unwilling to give up their representatives, and other than municipal matters were often discussed. Still he would support a good plan.

Mr. GIBSON (Huron) was against a change, and thought the advantages counterbalanced the cost.

Mr. BAXTER took the same view, and said the Councils were doing good work. It might be made optional for the large counties to reduce the number.

Mr. SILLIS opposed a change.

Mr. FRASER said the cost was growing too great. The large counties might be divided into districts larger than townships. An enquiry was advisable.

Mr. CAMERON spoke in support of the motion, and thought the proposed Committee was desirable. In some counties the opening up of new municipalities was the cause of the enlarged Councils. Some body, like the County Council, responsible to the ratepayers, should be retained. The legal authorities were doubtful as to whether or not farmers' sons should be counted in the number qualifying for additional representation, and this point the House should determine.

Mr. LEE thought a reduction to from 10 to 20 members was advisable, but they should act with caution.

Mr. MACKENZIE thought that the feeling in favour of a reduction of numbers and of cost was growing.

Mr. MEREDITH thought it would have been better for the Government to have taken up this matter than some others that had engaged their attention, as it was a practical question. He would not interfere with our municipal institutions, but they should not be allowed to become too costly, if efficiency could be preserved. The Premier's predecessor had promised to deal with the subject. He would support the motion.

Mr. MOWAT said that our municipal institutions were costly, and that they were of great value. The powers of the county councils were constantly being enlarged. There was a growing feeling that the councils were too large, but no agreement as to the remedy. The committee might suggest an improved system.

Mr. CREIGHTON advocated a reduction of the county councils, but did not favor enlarged districts, preferring election in some manner by the township councils. He also thought it would be well to reduce the number of members in the Provincial Legislature.

Mr. MORRIS spoke in favour of the motion, and of the qualifications of Mr. Drury to deal with the matter.

Mr. BROWN suggested caution, especially as our school system is dependent greatly upon our municipal system, and might suffer from a change.

Mr. FRASER thought the enquiry would be beneficial and a step in the right direction.

Mr. ROE was opposed to the change which would work an injustice to the larger and wealthier municipalities. The people were contented with things as they were.

The motion was carried.

GOVERNMENT PRINTING.

Mr. CREIGHTON moved for papers as to the disbursements of the Government with the former contractors for their printing. Hunter, Rose & Co., and the result. He said that the firm had claimed that a temporary increase should be conceded, and when this was refused had retained Government funds coming to the Ontario Gazette to the amount of $14,480. The Dominion Queen's printer's award, made more than a year ago, had not yet been brought down.

Mr. ROE (Huron) said Mr. Chamberlain's award was that $13,838 was due to the printers and that $14,783 was due by them, or they had paid to the Province the balance of $954.

Mr. MEREDITH asked the authority for paying the printers over $13,800.

Mr. FRASER said they had a right to pay it out of the appropriation. If used the printers would have put in their counterclaim.

Mr. MEREDITH said there had been no consent by the Legislature, and the printers had no claim that they could establish.

Mr. CREIGHTON mentioned this very irregular transaction. The printers had no legal claims, the Government had paid them without the consent of the House, and then had withheld the matter from the Public Accounts.

Mr. A. M. ROSE said the payment was made in 1882, and as an item of $6,190 appears as receipts of the Gazette he supposed the amount paid by the printers ($14,804) was included in that sum.

The motion was carried.

DRAINAGE.

Mr. CLANCY moved for return as to the

INSURANCE STATISTICS.

Mr. MORRIS moved for the dates of the presentation of the reports of the Provincial Inspector of Insurance Companies, and of the similar Dominion officer. When published so late these reports were worthless, and they should be made public before the session. The report for 1882 had only been brought down a few days.

FRAUDULENT JUDGMENTS.

Mr. FRENCH moved a resolution as to preventing judgments of judgment by collusion between debtors and creditors to the prejudice of other creditors and that a Committee be appointed to bring in a bill.

Mr. MOWAT asked for delay, as he was about to introduce a bill in a day or two covering the same ground.

Mr. MEREDITH said Mr. Mowat had stated that he did not intend to legislate on the subject, so Mr. French was entitled to the credit of having caused this very necessary legislation, which should have been introduced years ago.

Mr. FRASER asked why Mr. Meredith had not introduced it himself.

POLICE MAGISTRATE DISMISSED.

Mr. MEREDITH moved for papers as to the removal from office of Mr. John Nott, Police Magistrate of Port Perry.

Mr. MOWAT said Mr. Nott was a good Reformer, and had been removed. Mr. Justice Oiler had informed him that irregularities in a warrant of commitment by Mr. Nott, had led to the discharge of prisoners. Enquiries convinced him that Mr. Nott was not qualified for the position, and as he would not resign he was removed.

Mr. MEREDITH said that the appointment of this good Reformer was, according to Mr. Mowat, a bad one.

THE CENTRAL PRISON.

Mr. GRAY moved for return as to the punishment or the removal to lunatic asylums of prisoners in the Central Prison.

Mr. BAKERVILLE moved for the general rules and orders made by the judges under the Judicature Act.

Mr. MOWAT said they were already printed and could be found in the Law Journal.

Mr. MEREDITH said as these orders had the force of statutes they should be bound with them.

SCHOOL GRANTS.

Mr. BAXTER moved for papers as to the withholding of grants from School Sections, with the reasons.

SCHOOL BOOKS.

Mr. CREIGHTON moved for papers as to the use of text books in the schools, the changes and the authority for them.

WAGON TIRERS.

Mr. SMITH moved the second reading of his bill as to wagon tires, providing that after June 1, 1889, they should not be less than four inches wide on wagons carrying 2,000 pounds. After a long discussion the bill was read a second time and referred to the Municipal Committee.

HIDING THE PUBLIC ACCOUNTS.

Mr. MEREDITH again complained that the Public Accounts Committee had not been called together that day. The accounts for 1883 were ready to be examined, but it could not be done.

Mr. FRASER said the Treasurer had forgotten to tell the Clerk.

WITHHELD ALGOMA RETURNS.

Mr. MEREDITH complained of the Algoma returns being still withheld though asked for a dozen times. In an election trial against the Minister of the Crown the defence was set up that he was acting under the Great Seal in order to stifle investigation into a grave offence against the election laws. It was evident there was something they were very anxious to conceal.

Mr. FRASER said the Opposition were trying to fish for evidence. They would not get it, however. He repeated the falsehood as to the official telegrams about the plot to corrupt the Algoma election being stolen.

Mr. MEREDITH said that after challenging the Opposition to bring charges, the Government by every possible means in the House, in the Public Accounts Committee and in the courts was placing obstacles in the way of their getting information. They dare not bring down the Algoma returns, or produce vouchers in the committee.

Mr. MOWAT began by boasting that the Government had nothing to conceal, and then urged that confidential papers should not be produced. He said he had nothing to do with the suit.

Mr. CREIGHTON said that in the Public Accounts Committee the Government had refused to produce vouchers for telegrams when asked for. Though the Committee was charged with the duty of investigating the accounts the Government would not allow them to have the statements of the expenditures.

No Disappointments.

Disappointments of one kind or another crop up all along life's pathway, for unfortunately it is the unexpected that always happens. There is at least one article of acknowledged merit that never disappoints. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is sure to remove the worst corn in a few days, and no claim is made that it will cure anything else, it cannot disappoint. If you have hard or soft corns just try it. Beware of the article "just as good." N. O. Folson & Co., proprietors, Kingston.

CRUSHED BY THE CAR.

A little son of John Spinks, Toronto, had his foot crushed by a C. T. R. Express train some time ago. Two doctors attended him without benefit, and amputation was proposed, but Hayward's Yellow Oil was tried, which was prompt relief and effected a speedy cure, even removing all stiffness of the joint.

A DOUBLE BENEFIT.

James Moore, a prominent resident of Leamington, writes that he cured himself of Dyspepsia of a year's duration by one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and two bottles cured his wife who had been for years a sufferer from the disease. He conscientiously recommends it to all suffering from similar troubles.

The chair was occupied by Mr. McDuff, who in a happy speech made the presentation. Mr. T. E. Bradburn, president of the club, acknowledged the honor in suitable terms. Speeches were made by a number of gentlemen present in praise of cricketers and in commendation of the Lindsay club. The successful players and ships acknowledged the compliment paid them.

THE COUNTY RAILWAY COMMITTEE.—A meeting of the railway committee appointed at the last session of the county council was held at the court house on Wednesday. There were present Messrs. Adam, Norris, Dawson, Walker, Cameron and McArthur. Mr. Walker read of the Op. brought before the committee a matter which he charged as a breach of the provisions of the bonus by-law by the Midland railway, in that the passenger trains were not now stopped at the station in Op. to take on and off passengers. The chairman was directed by the committee to notify Mr. Reid, secretary of the Midland Railway Company, that unless proper facilities were granted by either Mr. Cox of the Midland or Mr. Hickson of the Grand Trunk, the county solicitor would be instructed to take action against Messrs. Austen and Fulton under the terms of their bond to the county given at the time the bonus was granted. Mr. Adam stated to the committee that the Midland Railway Company had abandoned the station and premises erected near Manilla on the Whitby line and had built a station at the junction, a point outside of the limits for such station as fixed by the by-law and bond under which the bonus was granted, and at a place where there is no access to a station by means of highways. Attention was also called to defective and dangerous crossings at several places in the county which have not been attended to by the authorities of the amalgamated lines, though frequently called upon to do so. The chairman was directed to communicate with the authorities of the municipalities in which the dangerous crossings referred to exist, calling attention to acts of the Dominion Parliament under which they may apply for relief to the railway committee of the provincial council at Ottawa. Mr. Cameron, deputy clerk of the county, brought down a bond given by the old Nipissing Railway, providing for certain stations being kept open on the line. Unfortunately this bond was not produced at the time the act of amalgamation was passed, and its provisions were not referred to in the Act. It is believed that the municipality of Eldon have their remedy against the old Nipissing company, and the committee recommended that the county council afford Eldon all necessary assistance in getting their rights.—Post.

Hot Water for Dyspepsia.

A gentleman who is in business in this city, has cured himself of a chronic and ugly form of dyspepsia in a very simple way. He was given up to die; but he finally abandoned all the doctors and the drugs, and resorted to the method of treatment which most persons would laugh at as "an old woman's remedy." It was simply the swallowing of a teaspoonful of hot water before breakfast every morning. He took the water so hot that he could only take it by the spoonful. For about three weeks this dose was repeated; the dyspepsia decreasing all the while. At the end of that time he could eat, he says, any breakfast or dinner that any well person could eat—had gained in weight, and had been since then hearty and well. His weight is now between thirty and forty pounds greater than it was during the dyspepsia sufferings; and for several years he has had no real trouble with his stomach—unless it was some temporary inconvenience due to a late supper or dinner out, and in such a case a single trial of his anti-breakfast remedy was sure to set all things right. He obtained this idea from a German—and in every case, according to this gentleman's account, a cure was effected.—American Paper.

MONDAY, MARCH 10, 1894.

The Cells.

On Saturday night six tramps occupied the police cells and on Sunday night five more found lodging there.

A Small Row.

There was a pommelling match at the raco course last week, and it was understood that, as is often the case, a fair damsel was the cause of the row.

Corporation Water Works.

The Monetary Times has the following paragraph:—"It is stated that the corporation of Cooks is trying to buy the water works from the private company owning them."

License Commissioners.

Saturday's Ontario Gazette contains another list of License Commissioners appointed for different localities, but none are appointed yet for West Peterborough. What causes the difficulty in making the appointment in this Riding?

The Probabilities.

The weather probabilities for this district for the following twenty-four hours, counting from one o'clock this morning, as reported from the Toronto Observatory, are as follows:—Moderate to fresh winds, fair weather, slightly higher temperature, milder on Tuesday.

Stuck in the Snow.

The Toronto train while coming up from Port Hope this morning, stuck in a snow bank about three miles from town. After about an hour and a half had been spent in shovelling snow, the locomotive forced itself through and arrived here at about ten o'clock.

Vennor's Predictions.

The probabilities in Mr. Vennor's almanac for this week are as follows:—"Mild and open weather; mild and pleasant weather continuing through the fore portion of the week; latter half cloudy and unsettled, terminating in scattered rain and snow falls; the 15th probably storm generally."

What Next, Jim?

There is nothing like having a dash at all business in creation. I have come to the conclusion that the present business is too slow for my speculative propensity, so I have decided to quit and get into some other business that there is some life in. For twenty days I am going to sell Ready-made Clothing, Tweeds, Shirts and Drawers, Blankets and Flannels, Ducks and Danims, at prices never heard of before. This is all O. K., as I must be out of the present store on the 1st of April, as it is rented to another firm for five years. If the people of Peterborough want bargains they can come immediately. Respectfully yours,
JAMES DOLAN.

Theatrical.

Tavernier's Comedy Company appeared in Bradburn's Opera House on Saturday evening in "Coro, the Slave's Daughter." The attendance was not very large. Miss Ida van Cortland appeared in the title role, and she sustained her part with ability. The character is a difficult one to portray, but Miss van Cortland was equal to the task. In the second and third scenes, where she was alternately swayed by love and a desire for revenge, her acting was good, though at times she was a little too vehement, but in the last scene, when a man, she brought the pardon to the man she had denounced, her acting was really fine. Little Annie Bird was as great a favorite as ever, as her song was loudly cheered. The other members of the company require no special mention. The farce at the conclusion of the play was very amusing.

STRAY SHOTS

Notes of the Saved Army and their Meetings and Sayings.

The Saved Army was reinforced on Saturday afternoon by the arrival of three soldiers, two female and one male. One soldier returned to Port Hope that day, leaving a company of eight to fight the battle on Sunday. Two battles were fought on Sunday.

At the meeting in the Opera House in the afternoon there was a very large attendance. All the seats were occupied and many were standing.

The order of battle—or the form of conducting the meetings—is the same at each. The singing of hymns and several prayers constitute the opening exercises. Then a portion of Scripture is read and commented on, followed by the "experience" meeting, when the soldiers, and any others who will, relate their experience. The experience meeting is followed by a prayer meeting, and it is during the prayer meeting that the fight begins in earnest. The soldiers leave the platform and move among the audience, urging the people one by one to give up sin.

At the afternoon meeting, while Lieut. Munt was speaking he said that the hotel-keepers in one town stated that they would have to give up business if the Army did not leave. This statement was received with applause, but the Lieutenant asked the audience not to applaud him again.

General LINDSAY expressed regret at seeing so many young persons present, as he feared that many of them had remained away from their Sunday Schools to attend the meeting, and he did not want them to do that. He also said that he wished the invitation to ministers to come on the platform and to all Christians to assist them, to be understood as a standing invitation.

Lieut. WILLIS urged Christians to pray for the conversion of their friends. She had been praying for years for her father's conversion, and on Saturday she had received the welcome tidings that he had given himself to God. All the members of their family were now saved.

At the evening meeting of the Army there was an immense attendance. All the seats were occupied and all the standing room, while large numbers went away, unable to find even room to stand where they would have a view of the platform. Mr. Bradburn had offered the Army the use of the piano in the hall for the evening, but they had no one to play it. Gen. Lindsay said that he hoped the offer would be made again, when they would try to secure a player.

Mr. Edward Webb occupied a seat on the platform. He is, we believe, the first resident of the town who has done so, except the Rev. Mr. Manning, who took part in one meeting. Mr. Webb sang "Where is my Wandering Boy To-Night," the audience joining in the chorus.

Gen. LINDSAY said that he did not expect to be at the meetings in Peterborough for some time again. He had been pleased with the good order kept by the audience. The order was better than at other towns where they had been, and he thanked them for it. He also said that they did not wish children under 14 years of age to attend the meetings, unless they were accompanied by their parents, and a children's meeting would be held on Saturday afternoon, of which Lieut. Willis would have charge.

Several more persons went forward to the "penitent bench" on Sunday.

A meeting will be held in the Opera House at 7.30 o'clock to-night, at which it is expected that Capt. Willis will be present.

Best Value in System.

We are still receiving these large delicious oysters from Baltimore regularly by express, which we can sell on the best terms. Close prices given to the trade. Call and get our quotations before buying. CARTON BROS.

The Horse Race.

At nine o'clock on Saturday night only three entries had been made for the named race to take place this afternoon. The committee then met and declared the race off, and substituted in its place an open race, the entries for it to close at 10 o'clock to-day. Four horses were entered, namely, "Harry B.," "Billy B.," "Alice S.," and "Clive." The contest was to take place this afternoon on the Little Lake.

Arrested for Forgery.

On Saturday afternoon Theo. Goodfellow was arrested by Constable Pidgeon on a charge of forgery. The authority for the arrest was a telegram and a letter received from James Fawling, Chief of Police of St. Thomas, stating that Goodfellow was wanted there on the charge mentioned. Word was sent to St. Thomas that Goodfellow had been apprehended, and he was remanded to gaol until Tuesday.

New Spring Goods.

The choicest display of New Spring Prints, Satens and Dress Goods are to be seen at W. Fairweather & Co's. What surprises every lady is their Colored Dress Cashmeres at 50c., a marvel of cheapness. The stock contains the richest Silks, Velvets, Brocades, Evening Dress Silks and Satins from 25c. to $1.00. Dress Goods from 10c. up. Prices are lower than ever known in the trade here. W. Fairweather & Co. guarantee everything they advertise.

A Splendid Chance.

It will be seen by an advertisement in another column that Mr. D. W. Dumble offers for sale a number of Building Lots in various parts of the town on ten years credit. No money down, interest only to be paid for first five years, and thereafter yearly instalments with the right to pay at any time as may suit the convenience of the purchaser. This offer enables a poor man to use his money in erecting a building, and so he gets rid of rent, and secures a home for himself. Building will be cheap this year and no doubt many will take advantage of this very liberal offer. Besides lots in town, Mr. Dumble offers a number of lots in Ashburnham, and several park lots on the same terms. Call at his office and see plans, &c.

THE LATE JOSEPH FORD.

A Funeral Sermon in the George Street Methodist Church.

In the George Street Methodist Church on Sunday morning the Rev. John Shaw preached a sermon with special reference to the death of the late Joseph Ford. The anthem "O Death! Where is thy Sting? O Grave! Where is thy Victory?" was sung by the choir in an excellent manner.

Mr. SHAW chose for his text, 2nd Corinthians, iv, 18:—"While we look not at the things that are seen, for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things that are not seen are eternal." It was said that there was a key to the life and character of every great man, and as Paul was a great man there must have been a key to his life and character. This text furnished the key. He looked only at the things unseen, and, giving up everything temporal, strove to do the will of God. The bible did not countenance the indolent; they should be "diligent in business," but the danger was that while they were giving so much time to worldly affairs they might neglect their spiritual welfare. The speaker then pointed out many things that were temporal. They were of short duration, and should be employed to advance their spiritual interests. He referred to things eternal. There was an omnipotent Being, whom the Christian loved and the sinner feared. There were many worlds. In one of them the Christian would live forever in happiness, and the other was hell. They would have to choose one of these places for their final abode. He pointed out many advantages of the Christian life. He had an excellent reputation and he (the speaker) had never heard any one utter a hard word against him. To say that he had his infirmities was simply to say that he was human. Some people imagined that a Christian should be perfect, just as if they had a perfect view of what a Christian should be. The church was simply a hospital where spiritual maladies were looked after and where the Great Physician was trying to remedy their defects. While they should avoid the appearance of evil, they should have more charity for one another, for they knew nothing of the temptations to which others were subjected. During the greater part of the time he had been acquainted with Mr. Ford he had been in poor health, but through the whole of his sickness he had a strong assurance of God's love. He had visited him in his last illness, and when he asked the sick man, who hardly knew him, whether he knew Jesus, the reply was, "Yes; I have known him for many years and he has always been my friend." A Christian dying was like a soldier who had fought the battles and was waiting for an honorable discharge, or a sailor going into the haven after a tempestuous voyage, or an exile returning home. For over sixty years Mr. Ford had been a member of the Methodist Church. His early conversion had had a blessed influence in his life and on his household. All the members of his family were members of the Christian Church. The early conversion of a man had much to do with his success and with the lives of those who followed him. There was not much need of giving comforting words to the mourners, as they did not mourn as those without hope. Christians were not stoics. They wept, as Jesus had wept, but they need not weep in a case like this, when their friend had gone to God. There was no brother or sister in the departed Christian was in the glorious company of the angels before the throne of God. They would meet again, and meet where there would be no more parting.

POLICE COURT.

FIGHTING.

SATURDAY, March 8.—At an afternoon session of the Court, T. Johnston and W. Laughlin were charged by Constable Pidgeon with a breach of the peace. They were each fined $2 and $1.00 costs.

ABUSIVE LANGUAGE.

MONDAY, March 10.—John A. Hartley was charged by Henry Hartley with having used abusive language towards him in a public place. The words made use of were "scoundrel," "rascal," and "robber." The defendant was fined $2 and costs.

A BATHING HOUSE.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—Last year a suggestion was made to erect in some convenient locality on the river or lake one or more bathing houses with suitable and safe tanks, baths, showers, &c., but the idea did not thrive—did not even command sufficient attention to call a meeting—and the scheme fell through. Let us begin in this time, ventilate our opinion on its utility and practicality, and get a few remarks from the knowing ones on this subject. What say you, Mr. Editor? Yours truly,
ROBT. SPROULE, M. D.,
Peterborough, March 10.

Nova Scotia Gold Specimens.

Mr. John A. Cameron, who has had great experience in gold mining in California and British Columbia, where he has made a great fortune, has arrived in Peterborough with specimens of gold quartz from Mount Unlocks, Nova Scotia. The result of two analyses in the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and the Galhar Gold Mining Company of Nova Scotia show from one hundred and fifty-five to one hundred and sixty-eight dollars to the ton. The samples were taken out at thirty feet from the surface. Mr. Cameron considers the prospects of the new mines most encouraging.

Mr. Blake's Description of Principle.

The following is the opinion of the Independent Montreal Star:

"The debate on the loan gave Mr. Blake a grand opportunity of showing the difference between a patriotic study of the country's interests and an eager desire to damage political opponents. So far as his own speeches were concerned, Mr. Blake, it must be confessed, expressed himself with moderation. But an hour of greater trial came when a large body of French members showed a disposition to stand out against the proposed concession to the railway. Here was a signal opportunity for Mr. Blake to show that he was first of all a man of political principle. He should have let the French members understand in the clearest and most unequivocal manner that if they proposed to take ground against the resolutions, they must do it on the basis of their own convictions, and that neither he nor the party he led could owe them one atom of obligation for so doing; that if, on the other hand, their opposition to the resolutions was a matter of calculation, not of conviction at all, a put-up job for the purpose of forcing the hand of the Dominion Government in the direction of better terms for the Province of Quebec, they need not look to him for any assistance in so selfish a maneuver. Instead of this what did he do? A most craftily worded suggestion in the leading Grit organ to the French members to join with Mr. Blake in overthrowing the Government, and then to state the grievances of their Province, in the assurance that no injustice would be done them by the Liberal party. Alas for party methods and for party men! In the very crisis of a great national question, when it is of the utmost importance that some one should represent and vindicate simple fidelity of principle, we find the man who stands in the eye of the country as most fitted to perform this office allowing himself to be entangled in negotiations of the most compromising kind. Such at least is the aspect the affair bears and must bear to the public mind. Mr. Blake may be able by some subtle line of reasoning, such as a legal mind only can take refuge in, to vindicate to himself the integrity of his conduct in this matter; but to us it is a matter of great regret that there should not have been on his part the most absolute abstention from anything like coquetting with the French members who were threatening to revolt against their own leaders. When shall we have an Opposition that will be perfectly content to remain an Opposition until by strenuous adherence to principle they are borne into power?"

FACT STRANGER THAN FICTION.—It is a fact that ALONSO HOWE, of Trowed, had a feverish attack which afflicted him for thirty-five years. Six bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters cured him, which he considers almost a miracle. It was the natural result of the remedy restoring pure blood and perfect secretion.

POLICE COURT.

TUESDAY, March 11.—Mr. Jas. Stevenson, J. P., presided at the Court this morning.

TOO MUCH EXCITEMENT.

George Brown was charged by Constable Adams with having been drunk and disorderly. He had only finished serving a term in gaol on Monday morning. He said that the noise on Monday afternoon had been too much for him, and he became intoxicated with the excitement. He was remanded until Wednesday.

A "PROFESSOR" IN COURT.

John O'Brien, from Port Hope, was charged with having been drunk. He informed the Magistrate that he was Professor O'Brien, a theatrical performer, circus performer, and one of the first musicians in the country, and that at the present time he was engaged in giving concerts (on the streets) with a violin. He was allowed to go, but the Magistrate told him that if he appeared in the Court again he would have an opportunity of adding to his other accomplishments, that of a book-aw performer.

A Child Burned to Death.

St. John, N.B., March 8.—A fire broke out on Sunday night in the house of an old couple named McNell, living at Cape Travers, P.E.I., and so suddenly and rapidly did the flames make headway that the old couple, husband and wife, had barely time to escape with their lives, leaving a little girl twelve years old to be burned to death. The body was found on Monday morning lying under a table.

A NEW DEPARTURE

Montrealers Supplying the New York Tea Market.

Messrs. Thomas Doherty & Co., tea importers, have recently sold some large parcels of tea in New York, a great portion of which was imported directly to Montreal. The Journal of Commerce speaking on the subject says: "It appears that fully 3,000 packages were sold during the early half of the week, with every probability of as many more going forward before its close. The quality is chiefly of the cheaper descriptions of last season's tea. This is a condition of affairs in the Canadian tea market which is a complete reversal of what has heretofore been experienced. Should this demand continue, the depletion in stocks held in first hands in Canada will give us a bare market before another crop, and probably result in a higher range of prices than has been experienced for the last four or five years."—Montreal Star.

ENGLAND AND THE SOUDAN.

LONDON, March 9th.—Osman Digma is preaching a holy war. Mahomet, he urges, failed at first, but in the end was triumphant. Osman will take no part personally in future battles.

DEMOCRATIZATION OF OSMAN'S FOLLOWERS.

Gen. Gordon recommends an immediate attack on Osman Digma. A messenger arrived at Suakin from the enemy's camp reports that despite Osman's exhortations his followers are demoralized. The situation appears favorable for negotiations. Consul Baker has telegraphed to Sir Evelyn Baring offering to go to Osman's camp and bring him to terms. He believes the tribes will not only conclude a treaty of peace, but will undertake to keep the road to Berber open. Osman Digma has finally refused to surrender to Gen. Graham. He is determined to fight. He has two cannon and one thousand rifles.

TURKEY AND THE SOUDAN.

Earl Granville, replying to the Porte's communication in regard to Turkish intervention in Egypt, says the Porte missed its opportunity, the Egyptian were more opposed to the Turks than to the English, that an exchange of views on the subject would be postponed until the honour of the British army had been vindicated and order restored, and that England recognizes the sovereign rights of the Sultan.

THE BLUE GARRISON.

A telegram from Gen. Gordon announces that he is unable to extricate the garrisons on the Blue Nile and White Nile without troops. The survivors of the Sinkat butchery have arrived at Suakin. It is reported that the rebels tore the body of Tewfik Bey into pieces and devoured his liver in accordance with their superstition.

TURKISH SUPPORT OF THE MARSH.

A Constantinople despatch says the Turkish Minister of War has forbidden, under the severest penalties, the enlistment of Albanians for service against El Mahdi.

Henry Irving's Successful Tour.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 10.—A Washington special says: Henry Irving, the English actor, who closed a week's engagement here on Saturday night, has certainly every reason to feel satisfied with his reception in this city and expressed his feelings gracefully in a speech before the curtain when recalled for the third time at the end of "Lucius II." In his brief remarks he was particularly careful to speak of Miss Terry, who is with him and whose name was greeted with great applause. Mr. Irving made the announcement that he will return to this country early next autumn. He has made up his mind to reap a golden harvest while it is ripe. He will take back to London something like $300,000. Next year he will be his own manager and pocket all the profits. Mr. Irving was anxious to continue as his manager and offered him a considerable advance on this season's figure, but Mr. Irving declined. Never was an actor so enthusiastically received as Irving has been. He attended a supper at the Metropolitan club on Wednesday evening. A breakfast was given by Senator Bayard on Thursday. He gave supper to Mr. Blaine and a party of friends on Thursday evening after the play. He was the guest of Mr. Walter Phelps on Friday morning, attended a supper given to him by representative Dorchester on Friday evening, and on Saturday night he was the President's guest. Miss Terry has received more social attention here than in any other American city.

Railway Shares Sold by Auction.

MONTREAL, March 10.—The sale by auction of shares of stock in the Montreal, Portland, and Boston Railway Company took place at the office of the Company here to-day under a judgment obtained against the corporation by the road, Hon. Bradley Baglow, by Mr. O'Halloran, Q.C., on a note for over $100,000. The stock was purchased by Mr. J. S. Hall, who has acted as one of the lawyers of the company, but for ex-Governor Fairbanks of Vermont, who is largely interested in the road. The shares heretofore have been deemed worthless.

Would-Be Cowboys.

FRANKLIN, Pa., March 10.—A band of would-be cowboys has been broken up here by the spanking process. The boys intended to poison their mothers and go West. It is believed the plot would have been carried out had not a servant girl heard the boys discussing their plans.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

CABLE.

ANOTHER ANARCHIST VICTIM.

VIENNA, March 10.—A policeman has been murdered at Brunn, it is believed by Anarchists.

TENNYSON TO TAKE HIS SEAT.

LONDON, March 10.—Baron Tennyson will take his seat in the House of Lords to-morrow. He will be introduced by the Duke of Argyll and the Earl of Kenmore.

HERBERT SPENCER AND POLITICS.

LONDON, March 10.—Mr. Herbert Spencer, who was asked to stand as a liberal candidate for member of Parliament, declines to abandon his work for a political career.

SOCIALIST MEETING AT GENEVA.

GENEVA, March 10.—A great meeting of Socialists and Socialists was held at Geneva to-day ostensibly to express sympathy with refugees and to raise funds to carry on the movement. Chief Orator Klopfer said Socialism could not be stopped, neither priests nor nobles could kill it, but that it would march on until it encircled the world.

REVOLT IN BURMAH.

RANGOON, March 9.—The Shan, a native hill tribe of North Burma, have revolted and are devastating the lower plains. They have invested the town of Bhamo, from which the English and American missionaries have fled. The missionaries report that the principal villages in the vicinity of Bhamo have been sacked and burned.

REMOVED FRENCH DISASTER.

PARIS, March 10.—It is rumored that serious news has been received regarding the French advance at Bacinh. The Government's silence upon the subject causes great irritation. One of Gen. Millot's columns was attacked on Saturday ten miles from Bacinh.

THE COMTE DE PARIS.

PARIS, March 10.—The Comte has gone for a six weeks' sojourn at Cannes under a private warning that his presence in Paris was fostering royalist intrigues. The opinion prevails in Paris that the recent apparent attempt to assassinate the Comte de Paris by sending him an infernal machine was either a hoax or a well-meant endeavor on the part of an admirer to serve the Comte's cause by making it appear that he was destined to be a martyr.

GRAHAM'S ADVANCE POSTPONED.

CAIRO, March 10.—Gen. Graham's advance has been postponed till Wednesday, owing to the necessity of forming water depots on the route to Tamenleh. Osman Digma has left Sinkat at the head of 4,000 men, to defend Tamenleh.

BATTLE EXPECTED ON FRIDAY.

CAIRO, March 9.—It is expected a fight will take place on Friday, and if Osman Digma defeated the British, will advance to Sinkat. There is some anxiety as to the issue of the next battle, owing to the broken nature of the ground, the plentiful bush rendering a square formation of the troops impracticable.

ENGLAND AND THE STATES.

LONDON, March 10.—The Foreign Office has sent despatches to the British Minister at Washington in regard to the dynamite outrages. It is supposed they are intended as a basis of overtures with the United States. No communication on the subject has been received by Mr. Lowell.

THE SUEZ CANAL.

PARIS, March 10.—At a meeting of French shareholders of the Suez Canal Company to-day it was resolved to urge the British to postpone the consideration of the convention between De Lesseps and English shipowners, and appoint a committee to prepare a new scheme. A resolution was also adopted against the proposal to lease the canal to England.

THE DYNAMITE OUTRAGES.

LONDON, March 10.—The Freeman & Levey writes to the Pall Mall Gazette that the acts of the dynamite are utterly abhorrent to his nature. Seventy picked detectives have been instructed in a system of espionage on dynamite.

COMMERCIAL CRISIS IN HAVANA.

HAVANA, March 10.—The commercial situation is very critical. The low price of sugar, the tightness of money, and general distress are accelerating a crisis that will involve all branches of business. At Sagua, Rodriguez & Co., exporters, have failed, with liabilities of $2,000,000. At Carden, Myers & Co., bankers and commission merchants, has suspended. Mackellar, Leilling & Co., agents,

THE GLOBE IN ECSTASIES.

The Independent Reform Toronto World says:—

"The Globe has been in ecstasies during the past few days over the proceedings of the farmers' council in convention at Winnipeg, and more particularly over the resolution of Mr.
Wemyss advocating the secession of Manitoba from the Confederation. For many years past the present directorate of the Globe would not hesitate to assist in pulling apart the nationality which its former manager and founder, the late Hon. George Brown, strove so long and so earnestly to aid in constructing."

ONE OF THE CONSPIRATORS.

ONE Apjohn, an Algoma deputy returning officer at the recent fraudulent election there for the Provincial legislature, carried out his part of the conspiracy by refusing to take the votes of duly qualified Conservative electors, thus imitating in detail the similar disfranchisement in wholesale practised upon Conservative districts by the Mowat Administration by the refusal of polling places. For this offence he was mulcted $1,000 at the last Toronto assizes.
He or his employer appealed to the full court,
but again the decision has been against him,
and he, or the Province of Ontario perhaps if it can be managed, will have to pay for his rogue. Thus one of the Algoma conspirators has met with his deserts at least partially, and it is not surprising that the others are practising every possible device to cover up their tricks. It is probable, however, that like their friend Apjohn their guilt will be proved and punished.

IRREPARABLE MISCHIEF.

THE ringleader of the Canadian advocates of the settlement of Dakota and other Territories and States of the United States in preference to the Canadian Northwest, in an effort to attribute the results of its own and its friends' tactics to the Dominion Government, says:—

"The mischief done is to a great extent irreparable. The tide of immigration and settlement once turned away from the North-West can not easily be turned back again."

This is very true and the people of Canada well know who is to blame for this mischief.
The settlement of Canadians in Minnesota and Dakota began years ago, when the means of communication were better than in our own North-West, and this had the natural effect inducing friends of these early settlers to seek the same locality even after the position of affairs was changed by the construction of the C.P.R. And who are responsible for the unnecessary delay in opening up our North-West by a great railway but the Reformers who conspired with rival roads aided by thieves, blackmailers and disappointed politicians to thwart the first effort to construct our great national highway, in order that over the ruin of this enterprises they might ride into power. And since then in union with rival roads and foreign landholders they have endeavoured by every available means, not stopping short of the grossest falsehoods, to continue to divert the stream of immigration from our own country to the neighbouring States. They knew that the country would suffer through their impatience course, but they hoped that this very suffering might cause discontent against the present Dominion Administration, and give these mischief-makers a chance of obtaining office, which they could not claim upon their own merits.

A FRENCH LESSON.

MORE than once in the early part of this session of the Ontario Legislature there were instances of Cabinet Ministers taunting the Conservative Opposition with being powerless in that House. Now, however, we have a change to the other extreme; Mr. French having introduced a bill to prevent confession of judgment by a debtor in order to give one creditor unfettered advantage over the others, Mr. Mowat suggested delay as he was about to bring in a bill to the same effect. Hereupon Mr. Meredith pointed out that the credit was due to Mr.
French, as the Premier in answer to a question had said he would not introduce such a measure, which the leader of the Opposition thought should have been introduced years ago. Mr.
French immediately uttered a taunt against Mr.
Meredith for not having introduced it himself, quite forgetting former gibes as to the impotence of the Opposition. And this is not a solitary instance of the Mowat Administration borrowing from the Opposition. Backing down from their threats of civil war they have adopted the policy of Mr. Meredith and his supporters, of referring the Boundary question to the Privy Council; they have adopted the Opposition policy, which they voted down last session, of an extension of the franchise; they have borrowed from Mr. Wood his valuable provisions as to mining lands traversed by railways, and so on with other cases. It is no longer the impotence of the Conservative Opposition of which we hear, but their aid is craved, and in the case of the Parliamentary buildings we have Mr. Mowat and his colleagues plainly stating that they will adopt no policy till the Opposition has announced its own. Not only is there this salutary change, but the Mowat Administration actually borrows the policy of the much abused Dominion Government as in the liquor question for instance, where they have made wholesale appropriations from the McCarthy Act.

It is evident that a greatly diminished majority has a very beneficial effect upon Mr. Mow-at and his colleagues; the conversion of his majority into a minority will be still more beneficial, if not to him, to the Province of Ontario.

HALIBURTON.

From Our Own Correspondent.

GAY AND FESTIVE.—Since my last communication little has occurred here of any interest to the outside world. Our reputation as a gay and festive village has been maintained. There have been several balls, the last having been graced by the presence of some charming ladies from your town, accompanied by the Messrs.
Clement and Tate.

C. E. T. S.—The Church of England Temperance Society also gave an entertainment of a more select character—singing, reading, etc., at which the Vice-President, Mr. Bloomfield, gave an earnest and telling address which was very well received by old and young, and produced substantial results in an increase of membership. Any movement of this kind if well directed deserves our support, for there is a great deal of drunkenness in our community, fotered by the tavern-keepers who openly set the law at defiance and appear to take a pride in the number of drunks that they turn out per week.

MUNICIPAL.—It is reported that the County Council have finally settled the difficulty with Dyarr by all the other Municipalities agreeing to repay to the County Treasury the balance of the illegal grant of $250 each for roads, and paying costs of rent between them; also that Mr.
Mooney the County Treasurer has been summarily dismissed, though no serious charge was brought against him. Mr. Fitzgerald was the last Treasurer this County ever had, but he was too good for the place, and he wisely sought
"fresh fields and pastures new."

TORONTO NOTES.

VITAL STATISTICS.—There were registered at the City hall during the past week 60 births, 13 marriages, and 46 deaths.

SPELLING REFORM.—At the regular meeting of the Canadian Institute on Saturday night, a paper was read by Mr. Wm. Houston on "Old English Spelling and Pronunciation," the substance of which was a plea for spelling reform.

A SLIGHT MISTAKE.—On Saturday morning as Constable Bloodworth was driving the van from Queen street from the western police station to the police court, he was hailed by a lady when opposite St. Patrick's market. He drew up to let her in, and as the constable, who acted as conductor, proceeded to unlock the door she discovered her mistake. She had taken the van for a street car. The crowd saw the mistake too, and the lady was glad to escape into a store to avoid the laugh raised at her expense.

CHARGING AN ARMY.—A lad named Tomlin, 24 years of age, charged the Salvation Army with a milk wagon on Queen street on Sunday morning. One of the "Soldiers" attempted to grasp the handle, but received a blow over the head from a whip. Constable McRae put in an appearance, and after taking the boy's name told him to be on the look-out for a summons. Then the lad burst into tears, and said he would never do so again, but the officer would not relent, and young Tomlin will have to answer for his conduct before the Police Court.

Damage by Floods.

NEW ORLEANS, March 8.—There was a serious break in the levee at Davis' plantation, fifteen miles above here, this afternoon. It is reported the breach is widening rapidly. The water is overflowing the Texas Pacific and Morgan railroads.

MARCH 9.—The crevasse at Davis' plantation is increasing in width, the water going through nearly eight feet deep. Half a dozen plantations will sustain severe loss.

CLIFTON, Arizona, March 8.—The suspension bridge of the Arizona and New Mexico railroad at Clifton, Arizona, has been carried away by floods. Loss, $25,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 8.—Continuous rains are rendering the situation alarming. This storm is worse than the first. The southern country is flooded and the railroads are washed out. It has rained incessantly for the last 26 hours.

HELENA, Arkansas, March 8.—Floods are causing extensive damage in this section. Many farmers have been compelled to flee from their homes. Some people have been lost in the overflowed country and have suffered greatly from cold and hunger. The levee at the old town broke yesterday. The water swept over the country, carrying everything before it. The inhabitants took refuge on the part of the levee that remained unbroken, and all were finally rescued. The lower portion of Helena is now under water.

The Ferris Driving Case.

Mr. T. L. Snook says the case against John Ferris, for immoderate driving on the streets, contrary to the city by-law, now on trial at the Kingston police court, was instituted by Mr.
Hovey, Chief of police, acting in the interest of the public; that neither the Salvation Army nor any one belonging to it has anything to do with the matter. He also says the Salvation Army's right to march is undoubted.

Vanderbilt and Journalism.

An exchange says Nabob Vanderbilt said he considers journalism "the meanest business a man can be in." Any person who has been handled like Mr. Vanderbilt naturally thinks newspapers bad institutions. The Indian who tried to lasso a locomotive never afterward had much of an opinion of railroads.

Worward's Acid Phosphate.

VERY SATISFACTORY IN PROTESTANT.
Dr. P. P. Gilmartin, Detroit, Mich., says: "I have found it very useful in its effects, notably the prostration attendant upon alsobolic."

Britt's Postal Orders.

Mr. Monk, M.P. for Gloucester city, in the Imperial House of Commons on Feb. 18th, asked the Postmaster-General whether the provisions of the Post Office (money orders) Act, 1883, which came into force on the 1st of January, were now in operation; if not, they would be brought into use, and whether any arrangement could be entered into for the interchange of postal orders between this country and the Dominion of Canada.

Mr. Fawcett said:—Regulations for giving effect to the Post Office (Money Orders) Act of 1883 have been approved by the Treasury, and will be published in the course of a few days in the London Gazette. The date fixed for these regulations to come into effect is Monday, the 2nd of June next, being the earliest date on which it is possible that the new orders could be manufactured and issued. In reply to the second question of my hon. friend, I may state that as soon as the regulations have been published a copy will be sent to the Canadian Post Office, and steps will be taken to ascertain whether the Dominion Government is disposed to enter into an arrangement for the exchange of postal orders with this country.

"THE TRIALS OF A PARSON."

The Humorous and Touching Aspects of a Clergyman's Life.

The Rev. J. S. Stone delivered his lecture on "The Trials of a Parson" last night before a large and thoroughly appreciative audience. The chairman was Mr. Sirahan Bathone, Q.C., who briefly introduced the lecturer.

In the introduction the lecturer explained that the word trial was used in two different significations, namely, active and passive, or those things which he tries to do and those things which try him. The difference between the two kinds was illustrated by some examples; as, for instance, Richard Hooker found it a trial of courage to get married, and a trial of fortitude having to rock the cradle and perform other similar tasks. He wished it understood that the lecture was not at all meant to relate any personal trials; it had been written in a satirical manner at first, but had been rewritten so as to cause no ill-feeling. There is a great variety among parsons as to be found in any other class of society. The illustrations were given of examinations, which are about the first trials that beset a parson in his career, followed by great difficulties in the audience. He then passed on to the bishop, the congregation and the queer parishioners. It is impossible to get a sermon to suit everybody in the congregation, some like long sermons, and some short ones, some like scientific some practical, and some would preach the simple Gospel and strive to make it effective, even if some few did object to the style. He quoted an article written by a humorist of Robert Hall, suggesting the innocent power he had over his audience who were seemingly spell-bound when listening to his quiet words. The eccentricities of queer parishioners often prove a source of numerous trials to the parson, but they may turn out to be his heart's desire, and when their hearts are reached they become the warmest and best of friends to the parson. Then as to the first wedding and the first christening, it is an open question which of them is the worse, and the parson must have considerable experience before he can look forward to either of them without flinching. He depicted in the most comical manner the trepidation which a nervous young clergyman feels when undergoing either of these ordeals for the first time and the absurd mistakes he is liable to make. Especially in the case of babies he is at sea, having to handle a commodity to which he is quite unaccustomed, the inconsequence being increased by the music which the infants emit. He then commenced the part of the lecture touching on the trials which the parson has to undergo, referring first to the privations through which some underpaid ministers have to pass. On the subject of politics they have to remain quiet, however much they may wish to reform the state. Probably the most amusing part of a very humorous lecture was the description of the parson getting a wife. He has a great variety to choose from, and there are always plenty of young ladies ready to marry a parson. When he fixes his affections on a particular object the next step is to "pop the question," and that is the trying point. When, eventually, he manages to do so and is accepted he is made the happiest man alive. In conclusion the lecturer eloquently described the efforts of the parson to do his duty, his trials, his other men, and his successes and his failures, but if he is true to his trust he will remain undaunted by difficulties, and only strive to do what is right.

The lecture throughout was most entertaining and was fully appreciated by the hearers, who were kept in constant fits of laughter over the quaint anecdotes and rich veins of humor with which the lecture abounded.

At the conclusion Mr. Bathone tendered the thanks of the meeting to the lecturer, who returned thanks in a few well chosen words.

English and French Dresses.
People in England often wear close-fitting, long-sleeved jackets, bordered with fur. One of the newest is a short velvet, bordered as well as short, and bordered with fur. Fur flounces appear on mantles and on dresses. The rage for furs is nearly as great as when the Duchess of Edinburgh came over from Russia as a bride, and we seemed to think that the fur being associated with fur-wearing, we did not honor by appearing in it. A most useful evening wrap is a red plush cape, reaching to the waist, made with high shoulders, and trimmed with black lace. Many of the richer mantles, however, are sufficiently magnificent to be suitable, for example one of atone plush, with a raised brocade upon it of brown flowers, shaded with the stone, alternating with bands of brown velvet, on which are large pike pascamentaries of the two tones. This is bordered with plush and chenille fringe. Tailor-made dresses have established as great a reputation in Paris as in London, and English women who prefer, as most of them do, those for winter wear may be quite happy that French women of fashion are doing the same. The severity of style which characterizes them has been slightly modified by the silk, satin and broadened bias, and a greater flow to the skirts.

The Lasher Episode.
New York, March 9.—A Berlin special says:—Since the opening of the Reichstag district progress has been made towards the coalition of the Progressists and the Socialists. Baron Standenbergh has taken up energetically the policy of the late leader, Herr Lascher, and is trying to obtain of all sections of the National Liberals. Prince Bismarck is greatly alarmed at this union of factions. He will thereby lose the mastery he has so long exercised by playing one party against another. All sections of the Reichstag are disappointed that Prince Bismarck's contemptuous disregard of the courtesies due the Reichstag. He has not defended to appear in the Assembly for the last thirteen months. His absence has become demonstrative of contempt for German parliamentary institutions. The question will be raised by Baron Standenbergh whether the Reichstag cannot compel the presence of the Chancellor at the opening. Prince Bismarck's organs say that he will appear before the Reichstag as soon as the practical discussion opens on the bill to improve the condition of working-men, and on the proposed extension of the law against Socialists agitators.

A Minister's Privilege.
Judge Terrance has just decided an interesting point affecting the privileges of priests and ministers. A cure was being examined as a witness, and was asked about a conversation which he had had with the plaintiff and defendant, who had come to him before they went to law. The question was objected to on the ground that the cure could not be compelled to repeat what was said to him as the spiritual adviser of the parties. The Judge, however, set a limit to the personal privilege. A priest is entitled to keep his mouth shut as to what he said him when alone with the person concerned, but when a third party is present the conversation is not privileged. The cure was, therefore, ordered to answer the questions put to him.

To Cough or not to cough is settled at once with a 25 cent bottle of "Hub" Cough Cure. At J. D. Tully's.

KATE'S ADVENTURE.

"I am Kate. Of course I can tell my own adventures a great deal better than any one can tell them for me. That stands to nature. I'm not a practical writer, and I don't know how to produce what the fashionable authors call 'grand pen effects,' but I believe I can make you understand how it was, and that is all that is necessary."

Leeman had sprained his ankle—that's my brother—and he could not go to town with the load of russet apples that was already piled into barrels, and stood waiting under the big red shed.

"It's too bad," said he. "These russet apples are worth a deal at this time of year—and we shall miss the market day."

"Can't you ask neighbour Hutton to take them?" said my mother.

"Neighbour Hutton is a deal too sharp a prodder for me," said Leeman. "It's a hard thing to say about a neighbour, but I can't trust his honesty."

"Mr. Hall?" said I.

"Hall would be casting it up in my face for the next six months that I had asked a favour of him," said Leeman. "No, I'd rather lose the apples than lose my independence. But it's too provoking that I must needs have slipped on that piece of orange peel now of all times in the world. I have been saving up these apples all winter with a special eye to this particular market day."

"Leeman," said I, "I'll go."

"Nonsense!" said Leeman.

"But why not?" said I. "Old Pomp is as gentle as a kitten, and I know every inch of the way perfectly."

"But there are the Red Swamp Wood, that desolate stretch of three miles, with never a house on every side of the way, except the deserted cabin where the old negro hangs himself twenty years ago," argued my mother.

"Who cares for the Red Swamp Woods?" said I, valiantly. "I never was afraid of frogs and whip-poor-wills, and I'm not going to begin now. Let me go out and help me harness early in the morning, and—"

"Oh, I wish I was going too! Can't I go, Kate?" cried Lil, my hoyden younger sister, with her blue eyes glittering with delight at the idea of anything unusual.

"Stuff!" cried I, imperiously. "Of course you can't! Hant Pomp a heavy load enough, without your ninety pounds of mischief loaded on? Besides, you must stay at home and take care of mother and Leeman, and finish the blinets curtain for the big west chamber; for Col. Hay may come here at any time now."

Col. Hay was our city boarder—a gentleman who had been recommended by his physicians to try the fresh, pine-scented breezes of the Shawangenta Mountains, and whom our rector recommended to the Ivy Spring Farm.

We were not rich, although mother and Leeman had managed the farm economically and well since father's death, and the weekly addition to our income would be something worth considering.

The idea of a city boarder was very pleasant, too, and Ivy Spring Farm was a very lovely spot, although we seldom allowed ourselves to think of that.

So, after a little, I coaxed my mother and Leeman to consent, and the next morning Lil and I were up before daybreak, harnessing old Pomp, and getting ready for the day's journey.

By the time the red, level light of the rising sun touched old Pomp's gray mane with radiance, I was driving through the Red Swamp, where the maple trees, from which it took its name, were all aglow with crimson blossoms, and the thrushes and robins called to one another with flute-like notes.

"Well, I managed splendidly. I knew where I was going to when I started. I sold the six barrels of russets to the man who kept the Park Hotel for $4 apiece, and that was more than Leeman himself anticipated."

"Be careful you don't get robbed," said the man, as he watched me put the bills into my leather portmanteau.

"Robbed!" said I, with a laugh. "Why, who should rob me?"

"Oh, I don't know," said the landlady. "There's always tramps and burglars around. They're a crop that don't belong to any particular season of the year."

As I turned away—I did not notice it at the time, but it came back afterwards, as things do come back, like a sudden flash across the dark shield of memory—a man who was lounging on the steps looked hard at me.

I coloured a little, and thought to myself, "Well, he will know me the next time he sees me," and then forgot all about it; for I had mother's black bombazine to match, and Lil's spring bonnet to buy, and some dinner china to select, and the doctor's prescription for Leeman to fill out at the drugist's, so it was well on to eleven when I turned old Pomp's head homeward in the suburbs of the town, with a feeling of elation which was quite pardonable, when one considers my experience in the marketing line and my exceptionally good success.

A Misquotation.

The Lindsay Warrior of last week misquoted what we said in regard to the game of curling played by the Lindsay juniors in this town. No doubt the Warrior did it unintentionally, and it will doubtless correct the mistake, as we do not wish the Lindsay boys to believe that we said what it credits us with.

A Millers' Meeting.

The programme and the names of the performers give promise of an exceptionally good concert.

Carltons.

A friendly curling match was played on the rink on Monday afternoon between the Lakesfield and Peterborough Clubs, which resulted in a victory for the home club by seven points. The score was as follows:—

PETERBOROUGH.		LAKESFIELD.
Black No. One.		Black No. One.
P. Strickland.	J. H. Burnham,
J. Clarin.	C. H. Gault,
G. A. Strickland,	C. McGill,
J. Pugh (with skip),	W. G. Ferguson, skip, 20
	Black No. Two.
R. J. Bird.	M. Kincaid,
W. D. Strickland,	W. Croft,
R. Graham,	A. McNeil,
R. A. Strickland, skip,	Adam Hall, skip, 20

Majority for Peterborough, 7 points.
The last two rinks mentioned (No. 2) played as a return match for 100 pounds of flour, to be given to the Protestant Home, and the Lakesfield rink were defeated by 10 points.

THE RACE COURSE.

The Open Trot on Monday—"Harry B" Wins First Place.

A large number of people gathered on the ice on the Little Lake and along the banks of the water to witness the horse race on Monday afternoon. The weather was fine, and everything was favorable for the sport.

The open race was declared off last week on account of insufficient entries, and a named race substituted for it. But there were not enough entries for the named race, and it was in turn declared off, and another free-for-all race arranged.

The judges were Messrs. H. Calcutt, C. Stapleton, and James English, while Mr. Beatty, V. S., acted as patrol judge.

The course was the same as used at the race last week, being a little over a half mile.

The following horses were entered and started in the race:—J. Stuart's "Clove," W. J. Colter's "Billy B," D. N. Stewart's "Alice S," and H. Reid's "Harry B." The horses were given positions in the order in which they are here named.

In the first heat the horses got a good "send off," but "Harry B" soon took the lead and kept it all the way around, "Alice S" just keeping close enough to him to make the race (or procession) interesting. Time, 2:58. "Billy B" came in third.

At the commencement at the second heat "Alice S." got ahead, but when about half way around the course (quarter of a mile), "Harry B" drew up to her, and passed her before the half mile was completed. He came in about a length ahead, with "Alice S." second. Time, 2:58. "Clove" did not run after the first heat.

Before the horses started in the third heat, the judges announced that they would change the driver of "Alice S." and another driver was given the reins. In this heat "Harry B" and "Alice S." kept side to side for a short distance, and then "Alice" fell behind and the procession continued until the finish, "Harry B" winning by about the same distance as in the previous heat. Time, 2:58.

"Harry B" thus won the race in three straight heats, with "Alice S." second and "Billy B" third.

There was considerable betting on the ice on the result, and quite an amount of money must have changed hands when the race was over.

STRAY SHOTS

Notes of the Saved Army and their Meetings and Sayings.

Another large audience assembled at the Opera House on Monday evening at the Saved Army meeting. The number in the hall was estimated at from 1,000 to 1,200, and many, as on the previous evening, went away, unable to get in.

Capt. Willis was present at the meeting. He is a young man of intelligent appearance, and he created a favorable impression. He takes command of the Army here. He had been sick for some time, and little hope was felt regarding his recovery, but he is gaining strength.

Mr. Geo. E. Williams, Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, occupied a seat on the platform and read a portion of Scripture during the evening.

The Rev. J. W. Butcher also took part in the services, both in the experience meeting and the prayer meeting.

An enquiry meeting was held at the conclusion of the regular services. Quite a number remained, and about a dozen persons went forward to the "penitent bench."

As the Opera House will be otherwise engaged this evening, the Army meeting will be held in the hall on the corner of George and Simcoe streets, over the China Hall.

A prayer meeting is held in the Young Men's Christian Association rooms at 12 o'clock each day, at which the officers of the Army are present.

The Army will open an attack on the village of Millbrook this evening. We understand that soldiers will be supplied from Port Hope, and Peterborough.

"Favor of Music."

The Hamilton Evening Times of Thursday, March 6th, has the following under the above heading, in reference to the widely-established abilities of Mr. Chas. W. Ewing, the organist of St. John's Church:—

"Mr. Ewing, the organist of the Church of England in Peterborough, is said to be one of the best of his profession in Ontario. He has succeeded in getting together such an excellent choir, that recently a request was made that the music alone constitute the services of the church."

Arrested for Forgery.

Chief Constable Fawcett, of St. Thomas, arrived here on Monday evening, and departed this morning with Thomas Goodfellow, who was wanted in St. Thomas on a charge of forgery. Goodfellow had been arrested on Saturday by Constable Fudgeon. The facts of the forgery case, as alleged, are as follows:—A companion of Goodfellow's left a watch at a jeweller's for repairs. Goodfellow was in a second-hand store, when he said he had a watch at the jeweller's and arranged a trade with another man. He then wrote out an order on the jeweller for the watch, signing it to the owner of the article. The man with whom he made the trade got the watch, and was afterwards arrested, when he stated that he had received an order for it from the man whom he believed to be the owner. Further investigation led to the issuing of a warrant for the apprehension of Goodfellow, and subsequently to his arrest.

What No. 1, Jim?

There is nothing like having a dash at all business in creation. I have come to the conclusion that the present business is too slow for my speculative propensity, so I have decided to quit and get into some other business that there is some life in. For twenty days I am going to sell Ready-made Clothing, Tweeds, Shirts and Drawers, Blankets and Flannels, Ducks and Denims, at prices never heard of before. This is all O. K., as I must be out of the present store on the 1st of April, as it is rented to another firm for five years. If the people of Peterborough want bargains they can come immediately. Respectfully yours,

JAMES DOLAN.

A Splendid Chance.

It will be seen by an advertisement in another column that Mr. D. W. Dumble offers for sale a number of Building Lots in various parts of the town on ten years credit. No money down, interest only to be paid for first five years, and thereafter yearly instalments with the right to pay at any time as may suit the convenience of the purchaser. This offer enables a poor man to use his money in erecting a building, and so he gets rid of rent, and secures a home for himself. Building will be cheap this year and no doubt many will take advantage of this very liberal offer. Besides lots in town, Mr. Dumble offers a number of lots in Ashburnham, and several park lots on the same terms. Call at his office and see plans, &c.

FACT STRANGER THAN FICTION.—It is a fact that Alonso Howe, of Tweed, had a fever sore that afflicted him for thirty-five years. Six bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters cured him, which he considers almost a miracle. It was the natural result of the remedy restoring pure blood and perfect secretion.

THE Dominion Grange on Saturday met at Ottawa, and, after adopting the report of the Committee on Insurance and electing officers adjourned. A deputation from the Grange waited upon the Government to suggest legislative action upon several matters in the interest of the agriculturists of the Dominion.

THE "GLOBE'S" CORRUPT BID.

Last Mr. Blake has partially relieved himself of the charge of complicity in the Globe's corrupt bid in his behalf for the Quebec vote.
Apparently by the mention of the circumstances in the Senate, he disavowed on Monday that he was concerned with or had knowledge of that article, without however, going further and censuring this unauthorized use of his name for so vile a purpose.

Perhaps Mr. Blake will now go a little further and explain, if the use of his name in this disgraceful appeal was unauthorized by him, why he allowed the corrupt offer to stand open on his behalf and in his name, without repudi-ating it, or disavowing his participation in the intrigue, as long as the "crisis" was still existing, and until the vote was given, which was intended to be thus influenced, if the Quebec Conservatives had been as vocal as he and his organ hoped them to be, instead of being as upright as their Conservative friends knew them to be. Why did he not take, before the decisive moment, his own old advice and "speak now?"
The most that Mr. Blake can now hope to parade the people of Canada, is that he took no direct part in this disgraceful plot, but was quite willing to benefit if possible by the knav-ery of others even if they used his name to con-jure with.

OUR TARIFF POLICY.

At the last general election for the Dominion, Mr. Blake, the Reform leader, and some of his supporters, seemed very much inclined to coquet with the tariff question, professing not to be so very strongly opposed to some protection for home industries and to intend no very great change if they came into power. Now, however, this pretence seems to be altogether abandoned. The debate on the budget was not prolonged by the Opposition, but since then some of the lights of the party have been or-ating on the matter to go into committees of ways and means, and on other occasions, repeating all the old abuse of the National Policy. The Ontario Government and its friends, in spite of their objection to interference by the Dominion and Provincial authorities with each other, have also been fulminating against the tariff policy that has been deliberately adopted by the people of Canada.

It is well that this should be so—that there should be open hostility rather than pretended neutrality. It is evident that the Reform party, if it was wavering, is now as strongly opposed as ever to the National Policy. If they were to regain power, our manufacturers might be certain that they would be exposed once more to the unfair competition of foreign factories; our mechanics and mill-hands might expect to be obliged to seek work and wages in the industrial establishments of other countries from which Canada would be supplied; our farmers might look to lose the improved prices for their smaller products, obtained since our own factories and workshops have been flourishing, and also to lose the benefit of the higher prices for wheat as compared with those ruling in the Chicago and Liverpool markets. And in addition to those more directly interested, the whole country would suffer from the drain of money out of Canada to pay for goods which we can very well make at home, and from the drain of men out of Canada to receive abroad and spend abroad the wages on articles made for Canada, and the wages for which might as well be received and spent in this country.

The people of Canada believe in preferring Canadian manufactures, mechanics and farmers, and they will not be anxious to turn out an administration that agrees with them in this respect, in order to replace them by men who prefer to encourage foreign industries rather than our own.

Canada Exporting Horses.—During the past week seventy-eight horses and twenty-four brood mares were exported from here to the Eastern States. They cost an aggregate of $13,000, and the greater number came from Ontario. There is a lively demand by American buyers on the spot for good stock.

FIRST SESSION OF THE FIFTH LEGIS- LATIVE ASSEMBLY OF ONTARIO.

The Torrens Land Transfer System.—The Teachers' Superannuation Fund—Expenditure in the Disputed Territory.

MEASURES ADVANCED.
On Monday a number of measures, chiefly private bills, were advanced a stage.

A WORLD'S SHOW.
Mr. ROSS (Huron), in reply to Mr. White, said it was not proposed that the Province should be represented at the World's Industrial and Cotton Centennial Exposition at New Orleans next December.

LICENSE DUTY.
Mr. HARDY, in reply to Mr. Preston, said that the Government collected no liquor revenue from municipalities where the Dunkin Act was in force, except in Stormont, where from the circumstances it was unavoidable.

THE TORRENS LAND SYSTEM.

Mr. KEMTINGER moved in favour of the adoption of the "Torrens" system of land transfer and land registration upon an optional or voluntary basis. He described the trouble, delay and expense attendant upon our present system, and the hardships that sometimes occurred through flaws in title. By the Torrens system on the other hand, after the title was once pronounced perfect it was kept so. A certificate of title being obtained, that certificate was the title, and the owner wishing to sell had only to hand over this title to the purchaser.
Leases, etc., were provided for by an endorsement on the certificate. The system had been adopted in all the Australian colonies, New Zealand, the Fiji Islands and British Columbia, where it was found to work well and inexpensively. In Australia the guarantee fund now amounted to over a million. He quoted the operation of eminent English lawyers in favour of the system. The objection that too much power would be given to a trustee could be met by the appointment of two trustees without survivorship. Though fees would be cut down the lawyers would not suffer on account of the increased business. He alluded to the hardship of a mortgagee having to pay the present large fees for searching title. The present registry offices might be utilized for the transfer of the certificates. His proposition was to make the system optional, and he believed that owners would quickly adopt it. He referred to the numerous petitions from County Councils and others in its favour.

Mr. WHITE seconded the motion and said the change would be welcome.
Mr. BADOEBO was in favour of the change, but thought it should be well considered before taking action. He gave specific instances of the hardships arising from the present system.
Mr. MEREDITH thought there might be more difficulty in Ontario than in Australia, where there were fewer transfers. He thought also a central office in Toronto, through which all titles should pass, would not be acceptable.
The present system might be simplified, for instance, instead of dower their right might be given to the wife of a portion of the estate of the deceased, and the personal representatives of deceased might deal with real estate. It was a matter for the Government to consider and frame a measure.

Mr. MOWAT thought the Torrens system had some advantages but the change would be revolutionary, and should not be introduced till the people were alive to its advantages. He agreed that its adoption should be optional, and pointed out that it had given satisfaction where-ever adopted. He had prepared a bill, but thought he could not introduce it this session so he hoped Mr. Kemtinger would withdraw his motion.

The motion was withdrawn.
TEACHERS' SUPERANNUATION FUND.
Mr. McLAUGHLIN moved for a return in detail and with the total amounts of sums paid by teachers to the Teachers' Superannuation Fund, and from it to superannuated teachers. At present, he said, there was a loss to the Province of $40,000 a year. There should be a stop put to the burden, which was assumed no where else. He would protect vested interests, but the door should be shut for the future. He pressed the Minister of Education to consider the matter seriously.

Mr. G. W. ROSS said he had already given the subject some attention. He did not think it advisable to make civil servants of the teachers. If the fund was to be made self-sustaining a far larger sum, at least $16 a year would be required from the teachers. If it were abolished they would have to refund about $100,000, and to continue the payments to present pensioners, but these would quickly diminish. He would obtain information during the recess and would bring in a measure either abolishing the fund or making it self-sustaining. The present system might become a cause for trustees thinking poor salaries sufficient.

Mr. MEREDITH agreed that the fund should be discontinued if possible, and saw no necessity for a system of superannuation. It would be better to pay sufficient salaries and enable teachers to make provisions for a rainy day.
Mr. MOWAT said the system was adopted by analogy to the Dominion Civil Service. Neither civil servants nor teachers could save from their salaries, and they could not be allowed to starve in their old age. He hoped a plan would be formed to relieve the Dominion of this liability.

Mr. HARCOURT would like the return to include also the amounts paid to teachers who had withdrawn. He thought a circular would draw from 90 per cent. of the teachers a recommendation to abolish the fund.

ALGOA, EXPENSES.
Mr. FRASER brought down a return relating to Algoa showing the moneys expended on the disputed Territory.

Seizure of Smuggled Jewellery.
Messrs. W. J. O'Hara, pro-collector of Outcomes, and Mr. Sidmark, landing waiter, made a seizure of $1,500 worth of gold watches in the room of a gentleman at Montreal for which there was no entry or duty paid into the Outcomes treasury. The valuable consignment has been confiscated, but no prosecution it is said will be instituted. It would appear now that standing the vigilance of the Customs officials for a considerable time past, and the many attempts at smuggling that have been detected such fraudulent dealing cannot be suppressed.
It is well known that a jewellery firm at Mon-real in the course of some years made an immense fortune out of the most systematic smuggling, and that all the Government could set out of them ultimately was $12,000 or $15, 000 for their operations for twelve or fifteen months only before they were defeated by Mr.
O'Hara, who has again signalled himself in this seizure.

Enjoy the day. Life is short, don't mope in the morning nor lag at noon. Keep your liver healthy, your digestion good with Zepos, and you can meet work with a smile, and your head never aches, your Appetite is good, your Digestion strong. Ask J. I. Tully.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

THE SECOND SESSION OF THE FIFTH PARLIAMENT OF CANADA.

Mr. Blake at Last Repudiates the Globe's Corrupt Offer—A Military Discussion—
The Credit of Canada Farmers' Bank.

MR. BLAKE AND THE GLOBE.
Mr. PATTERSON (Essex) on Monday introduced a bill to give municipalities interested certain powers in regard to ferries.

MR. BLAKE said that he was informed that a Minister in the Senate had stated that he was in some way concerned with or had knowledge of the Globe's article "Is it a crime?"
He wished to give that statement or insinuation the most unqualified denial.

OUR DEBT.
SIR L. TILLEY in reply to Mr. Charlton said that our net debt on Jan. 1st was $163,370-401.

MR. CHAPMAN, in reply to Mr. Robertson
(Shelburne) said that there had been no delay in the proclamation enforcing the Scott Act in the County of Cumberland, N.S., as he proved by the dates.

INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY.
Mr. BURNES (Sunbury) moved for papers as to a claim made by the Province of Quebec for money due to it for what is known as the eastern extension of the Intercolonial Railway, the amount being a balance of $150,000.

MAJOR GENERAL LUND.
Mr. MULLOCK moved for papers as to the difficulty at Cobourg between Major-General Lund and Col. Williams, M.P., giving a long account of the circumstances.

There followed a long and discursive debate, ranging from pay to grave, and disclosing a great diversity of opinion, the speakers being Messrs. Wright, Haggart, McMaster, Robertson (Hastings), Connel, Guillet, Landry (Montmagny), O'Brien, Williams, Carson, Casey, Chapman, Sir R. Cartwright, Sir John Macdonald, and Messrs. Patterson (Essex), Heaton, Woodworth, McNeill, Oulmet, Vall, and Mulock again.

After this long discussion the motion was carried.

THE CREDIT OF CANADA.
Mr. McDONALD (Cape Breton), in the absence of Mr. Mitchell, moved for correspondence between the Government and Sir John Rose, or between either of them and Messrs. Baring & Gunn in 1878 in relation to the credit of Mr.
Potter, President of the Grand Trunk, in declaring the credit of Canada; also the credit of the Province of Quebec.

FARMERS' BANKS.
Mr. ORTON moved for Committee of the Whole to consider the resolution that it is expedient to bring in a bill to extend banking facilities to the agriculturists of Canada.

Mr. BLAKE objected that the member already had a bill on the subject, for which the House had appointed a day for further consideration, and it was irregular for him to propose the same subject in a different way. He had pointed out this difficulty when the bill was first introduced.

SIR JOHN MACDONALD, after some discussion on the point of order, moved the adjournment of the debate, which was carried.

WARSAW.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Presentation.—On Wednesday, March 6th, at the close of a concert held in Warsaw Presbyterian Church, the congregation presented their minister, the Rev. P. Fleming, with a handsome fur coat, and a beautiful parlor lamp for Mrs. Fleming. The following address was read by Mr. Jas. Greylock:

Address to the Rev. P. Fleming, from the members and adherents of the Presbyterian Church in Warsaw and Dundas:

Reverend and Dear Sir,—We, the members and adherents of the Presbyterian Church in Warsaw and Dundas, and other people in general of this community, desire to give some expression of our appreciation of your services in the past as a faithful minister of the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

During the period for which you have labored amongst us, you have faithfully endeavored, both by your example and from the pulpit, to set before us the path of eternal life.

We attribute a great part of our success as a people and as a congregation to your diligent labors, and we pray that the God of all good may long spare you to remain in our midst, and that the success which has attended your efforts hereafter may continue, and that through your instrumentality many may be gathered into the Lord's fold from this community.

In view of the many years of your acceptance this coat, and parlor lamp for Mrs. P., hoping that you and your family, whom we have learned to love and respect, may be happy and prosperous here, and with us hereafter eternally happy in those bright mansions which our Lord has prepared for those who accept salvation through the atonement of Jesus.

The Rev. P. Fleming thanked them for their kindness to himself and Mrs. Fleming, and said he would take an early opportunity of expressing their gratitude for these valuable gifts.

CONCERT.

The concert, which this year took the place of the annual tea meeting of the Warsaw Presbyterian Church, was very successful in every respect. An excellent programme was well carried out, to the great enjoyment of all present, and the substantial sum of $26 was made to the fund for the repairs of the church. Mr. David Rose was in the chair. We have already described the presentation to the Rev. P. Fleming.

AUTOMATIC DAM.

It has long been a question as to how a dam for rivers, so as to secure slack water for navigation, can be constructed. A dam was built across the Ohio river, below Pittsburg, with that object, called the Davis Island dam. Other dams similar to that one have been constructed by the government. The Davis Island dam was of French invention.

Since the dam referred to has been constructed, Mr. John Du Bois, of Du Bois, Pa., has been building dams on an entirely different plan. Comparing his invention with the Davis Island construction Mr. Du Bois says:

"While this is put up and let down by mechanical power, mine is put up and let down by the water itself. All the labor that is required to put it up or down is the closing of one set of wicket gates and the opening of another, which will not take a man over five minutes. A dam 150 feet in length was put down and up seven and one half feet under nine feet of water in presence of Col. Merrill, Col. Craighill and Capt. Pratt, and many other distinguished gentlemen in less than ten minutes. The dam is perfectly automatic. It will commence going down when the water gets up to the high set for it, and continues to do so as long as the water continues to rise until it is clear down. It will continue rising as soon as the water falls below the height set for it, and continues to fall until it is up. When properly built it will remain firm on mud, sand or gravel foundation, provided care is taken to prevent it from undermining by the reaction of the water below the dam. The automatic arrangement and operation of the dam prevents any possibility of water running over it at any great elevation, and consequently there is but little danger of reaction below the dam. Another advantage is gained by this device. When the streams are too low to navigate on natural water, only the difference between natural and navigable water has to be looked. Locks of large dimensions can be operated very rapidly, as only the water under the lock gates or the dam constituting the gate is required to be drawn out through the wicket gates, allowing the water in the lock to pass over the dam as it is going down. Water let in a lock in this manner causes less commotion than letting it through wicket gates under a high head. A lock may have any number of dams across it, so that a single craft can be passed without loss of water, or a whole tow can be passed, saving much time and loss of water.

All the dams can be let down and form a chute. The rapidity with which a dam can be put up or down depends on the size of the wicket gates used. Whenever the natural water is sufficiently high for navigation the dam will be down, leaving the river entirely unobstructed for the passage of craft, and migrating fish thence to the rivers during the spawning food to deposit their eggs for the next annual crop of fish. Shad are the most numerous and profitable, but the dams on the Susquehanna have entirely prevented their ascent. Much thought and money has been expended to provide a way to pass them over, but it is a failure as yet. When a number of dams are erected for slackwatering a stream they can be put down so they will create an artificial flood for descent of navigation. They can be used in that way to break up and carry away the ice when forming."

Mr. Du Bois wants the government to furnish him means to build such a dam in the Allegheny river, the government to furnish him the money as the work progresses. The French government has offered to send an engineer to inspect a dam of the kind whenever Mr. Du Bois shall put one in that shall work satisfactorily in a large river. If it answers the purpose, the French government will pay for it liberally.—Northwestern Lumbarman.

The Dynamite Policy.

PARIS, March 10.—An advanced Irish Nationalist here declares that the Nationalists are annoyed, but in no wise discouraged, at the failure of the dynamite attempts. They are determined to persevere, and he predicts a long series of explosions in England in the immediate future. Mechanism has been invented which renders explosion certain and obviates the use of clock-work. He expresses great vexation that the Irish-American waylaid on Saturday morning in Paris did not prove to be the informer McDermott. At a recent meeting in Paris held by the Nationalists, four men were selected to accomplish the murder of McDermott. It was decided to seek McDermott in other capitals of Europe if not found in Paris. "Tyman, No. 1," is expected in Paris early in the summer, and will assume the entire direction of operations.

Turned into the Streets.

FOND-DU-LAC, Wis., March 10.—A destitute woman stopped at the City hotel a few days ago, and on Saturday gave birth to a child. The landlord ordered her out of the house. After wandering about the streets several hours she took shelter of her. The infant was found dead in her arms, and the woman will probably die. Threats of lynching the landlord are made.

The sunshine was warm, and still on the high road, and I was rather glad when at last we came to the cool shadow of the Red Swamp, where the birds were all silent in the noon-heats, the sweetest of odors came floating up from the tangled recesses of fern, and on either side of the solitary, railed-in road.

All at once old Pomp gave a sideways start—his ancient idea of shying—and then I saw a man, pale, dusky and tired-looking sitting on a fallen log; I was like mother—who would never let the shabbiest or meanest-looking vagabond go past our house without a draught of milk or a piece of fresh baked pie, or a slice of her famous home-made bread-cake—and without stopping to think, I drew in old Pomp's rein.

"Are you going toward Lennox Cross Road?" said I. "Yes!" Then jump in! I'm going in that direction, too, and I'll give you a lift." He thanked me with a silent, drooping sort of way, and seated himself on the board at the back of the waggon, toward which I pointed with the handle of my whip.

"You took no ill?" said I. "I am not ill," said he, with a smothered cough. "Only tired with my long walk. I didn't know it was so far to Lennox."

"I suppose you are going for work?" said I. "Deacon Briley has a good many hands just now in his tobacco factory."

"No," said he; "I am not going to work." I asked no more questions. I did not like the idea of a man shrouding himself in mystery in that sort of way; and as I glanced around once more a sudden revelation came across me like a blast of light. It was the same man who had eyed me so keenly on the steps of the Park Hotel.

Then I remembered my mother's words of caution, Leeman's reiterated exhortations, the landlord's friendly words of warning. And, in spite of all, I had deliberately thrust my silly head into the jaws of danger. There was only one thing remaining for me to do—to get out of the scrape as well as I could.

I cast about in my mind how to do this, and presently, with beating heart, I dropped a little paper parcel of blue ribbon into the road.

"Oh," I cried, checking up Pomp, "I've dropped my parcel. Would—you mind getting out after it?"

"Not in the least," said the stranger; and he climbed laboriously out of the waggon.

He had scarcely set his foot on the ground before I laid the whip on old Pomp with a will, and rattled away over the long, straight road at a pace that seemed positively marvellous to me and Pomp both.

So we left our passenger behind, in the middle of the Red Swamp. I could see him standing there, blank and astounded, the sole figure in the long perspective, as I ventured to look back, but I only whipped Pomp the harder; and never let him baste his pace until we were well out of the Red Swamp.

"I've out-generated him," said I to myself; "and I've saved Leeman's twenty-four dollars. I'm sorry about the blue ribbon; but it was only a yard and a quarter after all, and I can trim Li's hat with something else."

They were delighted at my prowess when I related my adventure at home. Leeman declared I was a capital little market-woman; mother shuddered at the idea of the desperate tramp along with me in the tangled wilderness of the Red Swamp; Li declared that I was a heroine.

"Wasn't it a good idea for Kate to drop the blue ribbon, and send him after it?" said she. "Kate was a goose ever to let him get into the waggon," said Leeman knitting his brow.

"Kate mustn't go by herself such a long distance again," said mother. I drank my cup of tea and rested myself, and went out afterwards to see the new brood of darling little yellow chicks which Old Speckle had brought off the nest during my absence.

It was on my knees in the hen-house, feeding them with soiled meal from the palm of my hand, when I heard mother calling me from the house.

"Kate! Kate! come up at once! Col. Hay has arrived."

"Col. Hay?"

I started up looking with blank dismay at my oilcloth dress and the meal stains that were on my hands.

However, there was nothing for it but to obey the summons; so I went up to the house. A sort of blur seemed to come before my eyes as I entered the sitting room, and heard mother saying:

"Col. Hay, this is my eldest daughter, Kate. And then the blur cleared away, and I knew the man I had twice seen that day—that pale, tired traveller whom I had so recklessly abandoned in the middle of the Red Swamp."

"I beg your pardon, Col. Hay," I cried out impulsively. "I thought you were a thief!"

The burst of laughter that followed from every inmate of the room effectually scattered all embarrassment.

That was my adventure. And Col. Hay has long since forgiven me that unkind desertion of him. In fact—this is quite true and confidential, mind—we are to be married soon, and I am going with him to Florida, to try the effect of a southern climate on his health. That is all, isn't it enough?

Daily Evening Review

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 12, 1894.

Curling.

Two rinks of the Peterborough Club played a match on Tuesday night for the oysters. They were skipped by Mr. W. G. Ferguson and Mr. Adam Hall. The latter's rink won by 20 points to 10.

Parlor Social.

A Parlor Social will be held at the residence of J. J. Lundy, Esq., Ashburnham, on Tuesday evening, March 13th, under the auspices of the Ladies' Society of St. Andrew's Church. An excellent programme has been provided. Refreshments will be served during the evening.

Runaway.

A horse attached to a cutter, which was being driven into town on the Warsaw road on Tuesday evening, ran away. The cutter was upset, throwing the occupants out, and the horse came into town alone. It found its way to an hotel yard, where it was found by those it had so unconsciously left behind.

The Probabilities.

The weather probabilities for this district for the following twenty-four hours, counting from one o'clock this morning, as reported from the Toronto Observatory, are as follows:—Strong winds or gales from the south-west and west, fair to cloudy continued mild weather, with local rains, slightly lower temperature to-night.

A Frightened Team.

A spirited team belonging to Mr. J. J. Irwin, agent of the Dominion Organ Company, ran away from the door of his store on Tuesday night. The course they took was along George to Charlotte street, north on Aylmer street and down Simcoe street to the river. They were fortunately stopped near the gas house, just as they were approaching the river. No damage was done.

A Backward Spring.

Mr. Henry G. Vennor wrote to the Orillia Packet, under the date of March 5th, as follows:—
"Sir,—One of the worst weeks of March, in Western and North-Western sections, will be that commencing on the 18th. Furious gales and snow storms will rage in the direction of Chicago and St. Louis, and over a large portion of Ontario, with continued cold weather. This will be the last bad storm period of winter. The spring will undoubtedly be cold, wet and protracted."

The Gardiner Family.

The Gardiner family, consisting of the father and his seven sons, gave a musical entertainment in Bradburn's Opera House on Tuesday evening. The Gardiner family have a very good brass band, and their vocal abilities are not inferior. The bass and alto singers were good, and the others obtained their parts creditably. This family originally belonged to the township of Cavan, where they resided until nine years ago. They paid a visit to their old friends this winter, and the church funds of several churches in that vicinity have been augmented by their entertainment.

The Lakeside Dam.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Charles Wynn, of this town, has secured the contract for the construction of the proposed new dam at Lakeside, his tender having been accepted. This work is therefore in good hands and we may be sure that it will be pushed forward to a satisfactory completion. His having also the contract for the Young's Point Dam will no doubt facilitate his operations. With these two new dams at these important points the difficulties in the way of navigation, that have caused so much annoyance in the past, will be removed. The steps taken by the Dominion Government in assuming these works, has led to this satisfactory result, which shows the regard of the Macdonald Administration for the public requirement. It is also another evidence of the importance attached at Ottawa to the navigation of the Trent Valley route, of which the navigable stretch directly affected by these dams forms an important part. Mr. Wynn is already making his arrangements for the required materials, so as to be ready to commence as early as possible.

Sam & Co., Burton-on-Trent, India Pale Ale now on draught, at Chamberlain's Restaurant—direct importation.

STEADY SHOTS.

Notes of the Saved Army and their Meetings and Sayings.

The Saved Army meeting on Tuesday evening was held in the Orange Hall, and it is, we believe, quite within the line of facts to say that that hall never had as many people in it before. The seats were, of course, all filled, and those standing were crowded closely together, forming a sort of pavement.

The interest in the meetings appears to be increasing instead of falling off. Although there were so many persons crowded into the small hall the order maintained was good.

The Rev. John Shaw gave an address that was practical, pointed, stirring and persuasive. Mr. H. Rosier gave a brief address, as did also Mr. Holland, and Mr. Geo. E. Williams and others took part in the meeting besides the officers and soldiers of the Army.

A lady who said she had attended meetings of the army in other places addressed the parents present in a pathetic manner. Her exhortation was impressive.

Several more persons professed penitence by going forward to the "penitent bench."

This evening's meeting will be held in the Opera House at 7.30 o'clock.

"Her West" Cream Ale.

A Splendid Chance.

It will be seen by an advertisement in another column that Mr. D. W. Dumble offers for sale a number of Building Lots in various parts of the town on ten years credit. No money down, interest only to be paid for first five years, and thereafter yearly in instalments with the right to pay at any time as may suit the convenience of the purchaser. This offer enables a poor man to use his money in erecting a building, and so he gets rid of rent, and secures a home for himself. Building will be cheap this year and no doubt many will take advantage of this very liberal offer. Besides lots in town, Mr. Dumble offers a number of lots in Ashburnham, and several park lots on the same terms. Call at his office and see plans, &c.

Personal.

The following is from the Lindsay Post's notice of a concert in that town:—

"The attraction of the evening was undoubtedly Mr. Chas. Kelly, of Collingwood. His songs 'King and Miller,' and 'snore' 'Sailing,' and in the second part, 'Sunlight of Your Home,' were warmly applauded, and the audience would not be satisfied until Mr. Kelly had again responded with the humorous song 'The Brewer's Daughter.' Mr. Kelly's name will be as a tower of strength on any Lindsay programme of the future."

Mr. Kelly will sing at the concert in the Opera House on the evening of March 17th. The programme for the concert will be out tomorrow.

The Postage La Poste Française contains the following paragraph relating to a gentleman long resident in Peterborough, and who has many friends here:—

"Mr. W. P. Shaw, who has occupied the position of accountant in the Ontario Bank here for some time past, has assumed the management in place of Mr. E. Porter, pending further arrangements."

Mr. F. Standish, of Montreal, the General Manager for Canada, of the British Empire Insurance Company, arrived in town to-day and is registered at the "Oriental."

Mr. Standish has just returned from England with large sums of money which his Company purpose investing in Canada. In addition to the half million already invested in Canadian securities.

CARNIVAL AT LAKESIDE.

The Last Masquerade on Ice—List of Prize Winners.

On Tuesday evening a fancy dress skating carnival was held on the Lakeside rink, which was announced as, and most probably was, the last of the season. The attendance, considering the weather and other attractions there that night, was very fair. There were quite a number present from Peterborough, and the "City Band" furnished good music for the occasion.

The Judges were Miss M. A. Stapleton and Miss B. Menzies, of Peterborough, and Miss Graham, of Lakeside, and the prizes were awarded as follows:—

BEST DRESSED LADY—Miss Sarah Griffin, "Canada," a silver cup.

BEST DRESSED GIRL—Miss Lillie Cox, "Flower Girl," music roll.

BEST DRESSED GENTLEMAN (fancy dress)—A. W. Elliott, "Athlete," an album.

BEST DRESSED GENT (comic costume)—Mr. W. A. Logan, "Rory O'More."

Mr. E. J. Hartley did not give an exhibition of fancy skating, as announced, as the posts supporting the roof made it dangerous for him to attempt difficult movements. The ice was in splendid condition and the sport of skating was heartily enjoyed.

POLICE COURT.

INTERFERING WITH THE SHERIFF.

TUESDAY, March 11.—At an afternoon session of the Court, Michael Crough was charged with having interfered with the Sheriff while he was discharging his duty. He was fined $10 and $7.10 costs.

DUNK AND DISORDERLY.

WEDNESDAY, March 12.—George Brown appeared on remand on a charge of having been drunk and disorderly. He was sent to goal for one month, and the magistrate warned him that if he appeared in this court again he would be sent to the Central Prison for six months.

The Summer is Come.

The birds are with us once more. Nature garbed in the brightest green brings joy to those who hate the cold and dreariness of winter. But summer brings with her many other things besides green fields and singing birds. Corn sprout and grow just as if mother earth had a ready in nurturing them, and no person wants them. Go, then, to Ormrod and Walsh, the nearest drug store and buy a bottle of the great and only sure cure—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. A few days will relieve you of them. N. C. MONARCHICAL journals in Paris are indignant at the action of the French Ministry of the Interior in instituting an enquiry as to whether any propaganda exists in favor of the Comte de Paris, which is believed to indicate a desire for the expulsion on the part of the Government.

CHANCERY DIVISION.

In the matter of certain damages already done or hereafter to be done to certain portions of Lot Twenty-eight in the Eighth Concession of the Township of Smith, in the County of Peterborough, Lot Thirty in the Tenth Concession of the said Township of Smith, and Lots Twenty-Nine and Thirty in the Ninth Concession of the said Township of Smith, by reason of the raising of a certain Dam at Lakeside, in the said County of Peterborough, to the extent of forty-three inches above the point settled by the decree and proceedings of the Court of Chancery in a certain suit wherein Laura Imbelli Georgina Hague and James Patrick Templeton Hague, infants, under the age of twenty-one years, by Angus Crawford, their next friend, were Plaintiffs, and James M. Irwin, Alexander Smith, Gustave Boyd, Roland G. Strickland, Charles A. Boulton, Alfred Passmore Poussette, Robert A. Strickland and John Rodgers, were Defendants, and in the matter of the Act of the Parliament of Canada, passed in the Thirtieth year of Her Majesty's said Majesty, intituled "An Act respecting the Public Works of Canada," being the first Victoria, Chapter 13, and of the Act of the Parliament of Canada, passed in the thirty-seventh year of Her Majesty's said Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend an Act respecting the Public Works of Canada," being the thirty-seventh, Chapter 13, and of the Act of the Parliament of Canada, passed in the forty-second year of Her Majesty's said Majesty, intituled "An Act respecting the office of Receiver-General and Minister of Public Works," being the third Victoria, Chapter 1.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN pursuant to the order of His Lordship the Chancellor, dated the Nineteenth day of February, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty-four, that it appears by the notice of the Minister of Railways and Canals, filed in the Chancery Division of this Court, that the said Minister of Railways and Canals deems it essential that a certain dam now erected at Lakeside and commonly known as the "Lakeside dam," in the County of Peterborough, should for the purpose of a certain Public Work of the Dominion of Canada, known as the Trent Valley Canal or Trent Valley Navigation Improvements, be raised to the height of the crest above the point settled and determined by the decree and proceedings of the Court of Chancery in a certain suit wherein Laura Imbelli Georgina Hague and James Patrick Templeton Hague, infants, under the age of twenty-one years, by Angus Crawford, their next friend, were Plaintiffs, and James M. Irwin, Alexander Smith, Gustave Boyd, Roland G. Strickland, Charles A. Boulton, Alfred Passmore Poussette, Robert A. Strickland and John Rodgers, were Defendants, whereupon it is contemplated that certain damages have already been done or may hereafter be done to certain portions of Lot Number Twenty-eight, in the Eighth Concession of the Township of Smith, in the County of Peterborough, Lot Thirty, in the Tenth Concession of the said Township of Smith, and Lots Twenty-Nine and Thirty, in the Ninth Concession of the said Township of Smith, and that the said Minister of Railways and Canals deems it advisable to proceed under the provisions of the Act herein before mentioned in respect to the compensation money for such damages so done or hereafter to be done to the said lands and has paid into the Court of this matter the sum of Two Thousand Dollars, which in the opinion of the said Minister of Railways and Canals is sufficient compensation money for such damages to the said lands, and has also paid in the sum of Sixty Dollars, being six months interest on said compensation money.

All persons therefore claiming to be entitled to the said lands or any part thereof or to the compensation for such damages, or any part thereof or representing or being the husband of any parties so entitled or claiming to hold or represent or being the husband of or claiming upon the said lands or interests therein or upon the said compensation money are hereby required to file their claims with the Clerk of Records and Writs at Osgoode Hall, in the City of Toronto, on or before the EIGHTEENTH DAY OF MARCH, ONE THOUSAND AND EIGHT HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-FOUR, to the said compensation money or any portion thereof, otherwise any such claims will be forever barred, and an order will be made for the distribution, payment or investment of said compensation money without further notice.

And notice is further given that on the twenty-fifth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, application will be made to the Court of this Court, on behalf of the Minister of Railways and Canals for such order in regard to said claims to such compensation money, which shall have been filed before the day last before appointed, and as to said lands or otherwise, as shall seem just and expedient.

PUBLIC ACCOUNTS COMMITTEE.

The strong protest made by the Opposition members in the Provincial Legislature against the prevention of a thorough examination of the public accounts by the adoption of morning sessions of the House, seems to have had its effect. Though the Cabinet Ministers opposed the proposal to hold early sittings of the Public Accounts Committee, it was summoned to meet this morning at 8 o'clock, a.m. The Opposition will evidently be hard worked through Mr. Mowat's desire to hasten the prorogation.

COUNCIL MEETING.

The regular monthly meeting of the Lakefield village council was held in the council room, Lakefield, on Monday evening last, the 10th of March.

Members present: Mr. R. C. Strickland, Reeve, in the chair, and Messrs. Cox, McWilliams, Moore and Urquhart, councillors.

The minutes of former meeting were read and confirmed.

Moved by Councillor McWilliams, seconded by Councillor Moore.—That the petition of John Clarin, Esq., and others be received, and that a by-law be prepared by the next meeting to have the butcher by-law repealed at the end of the year.—Carried.

Moved by Councillor McWilliams, seconded by Councillor Moore.—That so soon as Messrs. Gemmell and McKee deposit with the Treasurer of Lakefield a sufficient sum to pay the expenses of a by-law to grant them a bonus of $300, a by-law be prepared under the direction of the village solicitors for that purpose, having the necessary conditions and guarantees.—Carried.

Moved by Councillor Urquhart, seconded by Councillor McWilliams.—That the following accounts be paid, and that the Reeve's order for the several amounts be issued, viz:—

Isaac Watson, wages .....$5 40

Thomas Hendren, rent, &c., .....$1 50

Total .....$69 90

—Carried.

Moved by Councillor Urquhart, seconded by Councillor Moore.—That whereas the interests of this village, and also the interests of parties who have invested in steamboat property navigating the waters north of this place, is much injured by there not being a local overseer of these waters, so as to see that navigation is not improperly interfered with, and that said waters are kept at an even height, so as to prevent as much as possible malaria and other evil results from sudden rising and falling of the waters during the summer months, this Council do respectfully request the Minister of Railways and Canals to appoint a local overseer, and at the same time respectfully submit the name of John Dinwiddie, of Lakefield, for this position, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the said Minister of Railways and Canals.—Carried.

Moved by Councillor Cox, seconded by Councillor McWilliams.—That a by-law to appoint a Clerk and Treasurer be now read a first time.—Carried.

Moved by Councillor Moore, seconded by Councillor McWilliams.—That a by-law to appoint a Clerk and Treasurer be now read a second time in Committee of the Whole.—Carried.

Moved by Councillor Urquhart, seconded by Councillor Cox.—That a by-law to appoint a Clerk and Treasurer be now read a third time and passed, endorsed, sealed and signed by the Reeve and Clerk.—Carried.

Moved by Councillor Moore, seconded by Councillor Urquhart.—That whereas complaints have been made by W. C. Sanders and others that their property on William street has been and is being injured by the Railway Company having two stacks on said street, and that the Railway Company is thereby instructed to write them ordering the removal of one of them at once.—Carried.

Moved by Councillor Urquhart, seconded by Councillor Cox.—That the Council do now adjourn to meet on Monday evening, the 24th inst., at 8 o'clock.—Carried.

BONUS.

The bonus question has been considerably discussed during the last couple of weeks, and it appears so far as Lakefield is concerned at least, that it will be necessary to change the law considerably or no bonus can be wrung from the people of Lakefield. It has been ascertained that fully three-fourths of the freeholders of this place are opposed to any bonus, and the Village Council do their duty in refusing to incur any expense in the matter of a by-law without some prospect of such a by-law carrying.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING.

There was no meeting of the Lakefield Public School Board on Tuesday evening last, March 11th. There was no quorum. Messrs. Aronson, Dench and Sanders were present, but the number was not sufficient for the transaction of business.

Mr. Mowat met to be told.

The feeling of Mr. Mowat concerning the Algoma outrage is well illustrated by the following story which we copy from the Toronto Globe:—

"The story goes that at one of the London clubs a rather antiquated specimen of a General was notorious for cheating at cards, and that in the most barefaced fashion. The pretty little peculiarity was well known, but all the regular members of the club thought it 'bad form' to tell the poor old man of his shortcomings. One day however, a civil servant, a stranger to the club, observed, 'Why, General, you are cheating!' 'Yes, sir,' said the General, who stammered dreadfully; 'Yes, sir, I know very well I'm cheating, but I d-d-d don't like to be told so.' It was very well for the Globe to enforce the fact that Mr. Mowat cheated in Algoma and that he does not like to be told of it; but we submit that it was unkind.—Hamilton Spectator.

LONDON, March 12.—The British forces reached Zariba on Tuesday night. Abyssinian scouts reported that Osman Digma was in position and had a large force. About one o'clock to-day the British started for the rebel camp. They are advancing in squares. The rebels are without entrenchments. Five thousand of the enemy have been sighted. A battle is imminent.

THE DYNAMITE EXPLOSIONS.

LONDON, March 12.—Inspector Moser has returned to London from France. He failed to find evidence that the Fenians in Paris made dynamite or were implicated in the London explosions. He believes nine men on board the steamer Danube brought the dynamite to London. These men the police are tracking.

CONTAGIOUS DISEASES BILL.

LONDON, March 12.—Baron Carlingford, in answer to a deputation which sought to learn the attitude of the Government toward the amendment recently adopted by the Lords to the Animal Contagious Diseases Bill, 1875, said the Government hoped to resist the passage of the bill by the Commons. He said however, that the Government would prohibit the importation of foreign cattle when the necessary should arise, even in the case of foot-and-mouth disease, but he was anxious such a measure should be resorted to only when positively necessary.

ANOTHER DYNAMITE OUTRAGE.

LONDON, March 12.—An explosion to-night in a hotel at Fulham, a suburb of London, is believed to be another Fenian dynamite outrage. A box containing four packages, apparently cartridges, was found on the premises. One man was blown to pieces.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

THE SECOND SESSION OF THE FIFTH PARLIAMENT OF CANADA.

Benefit Societies Insurance—Another Attack on the National Policy—Foreign Factories Advocated—A Kindergarten Lesson.

MR. McLELLAN on Tuesday moved the House into Committee of the Whole to consider an amendment to the Seamen's Act, making it necessary for foreign-going ships to have masters and mates holding certificates the same as coasting vessels.

The resolution having been reported, a bill was introduced and read a first time.

REPORTS ON SHIPWRECKS.
Mr. McLELLAN moved the House into Committee of the Whole to amend the Act as to enquiries into shipwrecks, by providing that the Court of Enquiry should send a report to the Minister of Marine, not to be made public till revised by him.

The resolution having been reported, a bill was introduced and read a first time.

BENEFIT SOCIETIES INSURANCE.

Sir L. TILLEY moved the House into Committee of the Whole on the amendment of the Insurance Act with respect to companies transacting the business of life insurance under the title of "Co-operative Life Insurance Companies," "Mutual Benefit Associations," and the like. It was proposed to allow these societies to carry on business on putting up a certain smaller deposit and coming under the inspection of the insurance department, the figures of the business to be published in the report of the Superintendent of Insurance. American societies would not be allowed to do business in Canada at all, but this would be no hardship to them, because if they wanted to do business in Canada they could have Canadian branches incorporated under this Act.

The resolution was reported, and a bill based on it introduced and read a first time.

COAL BY WEIGHT.
Mr. COWTAN moved the House into Committee of the Whole to provide that the sale and delivery of coal should be by weight.

The resolution having been reported, a bill was introduced and read a first time.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

Mr. COWTAN moved the House into Committee of the Whole to re-arrange the penalties under the Weights and Measures Act.

The resolution being reported a bill was introduced and read a first time.

ENGINEERS' LICENSES.

Mr. McLELLAN moved the House into Committee of the Whole to amend the Steamboat Inspection Act by reducing the fees payable on renewals of engineers' licenses.

Sir R. CARTWRIGHT called attention to the danger of the practice of over-crowding of excursion steamers.

Mr. McLELLAN (Middlesex) agreed with Sir Richard, referring to the catastrophe on the Thames on the Queen's Birthday in 1881.

Mr. McLELLAN said the inspection fixed the number of passengers, and the law was now more strictly enforced.

The resolution was reported, and a bill was introduced and read a first time.

FOREIGN FACTORIES ADVOCATED.

Sir R. CARTWRIGHT on the motion to concur in the report of the Ways and Means Committee made a renewed attack upon the National Policy. He especially opposed the increase of the duty on steel. From what Mr. Tupper had said he gathered that the increased number of hands employed would be 160, while many trades would be burdened.

Mr. TUPPER said that his figure was 300 not 160, and censured Sir Richard for endeavoring to set class against class. Our tariff policy had not only developed our industries, but had cheapened manufactured articles, which was the same as the experience of France, Germany, and the United States.

Sir L. TILLEY regretted to see the persistence in the Opposition to the development of Canadian industries. The Opposition had said it would be better to maintain all those employed in the sugar refineries than to maintain the duties, and yet the result of their policy was that sugar was cheapened. He instanced a manufacturer near his border who had been closed up by the reduction in price of a competitor in the United States, who had then immediately raised his price.

Mr. CHARLTON attacked the National Policy and the manufacturers as a pauper class living upon the public. He spoke of the employment of 600 men in an industry as of small importance.

Mr. WHITS (Hastings) showed that agricultural implements were both cheaper and better now than before the National Policy, and that the same was true of many other manufactured articles.

Mr. WIGLE, apparently despairing of convincing the doctrinaire opponents of protection by argument, produced specimens of Canadian manufactures which while cheaper were of better material than the goods we used to import. He pointed out that the policy of the Opposition would ruin the manufacturer and starve the working man. They could agree on no point—some saying, for instance, that the manufacturers were making fortunes, and others stating that they were being ruined. He showed the fallacy that duties were added to the price by instancing leaf tobacco, on which in the United States there was a duty of 30 cents a pound, and yet it could be bought at 5 cents a pound. He gave many examples of the benefit of our tariff.

Mr. McLELLAN condemned the National Policy, and argued that if we could make goods more cheaply now we did not need protection.

Mr. HENSON supported our tariff policy, and Mr. Armstrong and Mr. Watson condemned it.

Mr. TEMPLE instanced his own recent election where there was a change of 1,000 votes, as a proof of satisfaction with our tariff, as that was the main issue in the contest.

Mr. CAMERON (Inverness) spoke in favour of our tariff, and Mr. Kirk again put one, and several were carried.

EARTHQUAKE.

Mr. BLAKE, in the resolution as to the duties on earthenware, moved an amendment to refer the item back to the Committee to reduce the duty on cheap earthenware.

The amendment was negatived by 30 to 17, and concurrence was voted in the remaining resolutions.

Sir L. TILLEY moved that the new duties should come into effect on March 13th. On Mr. Blake saying that some had been collected since Jan. 1st, he said they would be refunded.

THE DAILY EVENING REVIEW is delivered to subscribers at ten cents a week.

PORT HOPE.

THE ICE.—This year the accumulation of ice in Lake Ontario is unusually large. At the harbor the ice is piled fully 25 feet above the level of the lake. In some places the bay to the east is filled with icebergs as far as the Harbor Master's office. Among them are to be found many grotesque and curious shapes. In one place there is a formation like a miniature iceberg, with the difference that instead of fire, water and spray is thrown up through the crater or opening in the top to a considerable height. During the continuation of the recent cold weather, the lake became frozen as far as the eye could reach, and when the wind changed from north to south-east it started to move in to the shore at about the rate of 500 feet an hour, and when coming in contact with the pier or shore would break up in small pieces, the largest of which would be about a foot square, accompanied with a crackling noise that could be heard a considerable distance. As fast as the ice broke it would pile up on an acute angle pointing outward until the weight would gradually sink the mass, and then the broken pieces could be seen under the clear ice, working in an opposite or outward direction from the incoming field of ice. The ice pictures on our lakes are indeed wonderful, and well worthy a visit.—Gazette.

TORONTO RIFLE ASSOCIATION.—The annual meeting of the Toronto Rifle Association was held at the drill-shed on Monday evening. There was a good attendance.

SALE OF THOROUGHBRED CATTLE.—The sale of thoroughbred cattle on Tuesday was largely attended. Buyers were present from all parts, and the bidding was very spirited. Seventy head of Jerseys and Ayrshires were sold, realizing a little over nine thousand dollars. Messrs. Grant & Walsh intend carrying the sale on for the next three days, when 200 horses will be sold, most of them workers.

A LIBERAL DONATION.—The president of the Irish Protestant Benevolent Society acknowledges the receipt of $100 from Prof. Goldwin Smith, being the second donation of like sum from that gentleman, accompanied with the following remark:—"The winter is so severe, and there appears to be so much suffering, especially from want of fuel, that I will ask your association of another contribution to your charitable fund."

SMASH-UP ON THE NORTH SHORE R.R.—A serious accident occurred Tuesday on the North Shore Railway at Champlain station, through the carelessness of an operator. The train which left Montreal, having received orders to proceed to the next station, collided with two engines which was driving a snow plough, wrecking the whole on the track. The passengers escaped with a slight shaking, nobody being hurt. The track will not be cleared for some time. The passengers each way had to walk past the wreck, and trains had to return after exchanging passengers.

SHOWED UP TRAILER.—The weather, which was mild and had moderate snow, considerably threatened again to be stormy, and at noon it again commenced to snow. The North Shore train, which left Montreal Tuesday night, has not yet arrived here. That which left Quebec Tuesday night is blocked somewhere near Beaulieu where it was found impossible to pass through. The morning and evening trains for Montreal were both cancelled.

ON Thursday evening, at the regular meeting of the Peterborough Lodge No. 111, I.O.O.F., Mr. J. R. Smith, who is about to leave Peterborough, was made the recipient of a handsome gift and an address by his brethren. Mr. Smith is foreman of the dressing room at the Auburn Woollen Mills, and is about to depart for Muskegon, Michigan. He has been a member of the Order for some time, and for three terms (a year and a half) filled the office of Recording Secretary in this Lodge. The members of Otisabee Lodge and Mount Hebron Encampment had been invited to attend the meeting, and there was a large number present. The gift was a beautiful Oddfellow's regalia, of black velvet and lined with blue, with gold fringe and flower-embroidery. The address, which showed the feelings entertained towards Mr. Smith by his brethren, was as follows:—

J. R. Smith, Esq.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHERS.—We, the officers and members of Mount Hebron Encampment, No. 54, of Peterborough Lodge, No. 111, I.O.O.F., learning with regret that your contemplated removal from Peterborough at an early day will sever the fraternal tie that has so long held you with us in such pleasant relationship, feel that we cannot allow you to depart without some token of the esteem and friendship in which you are held by us, and of our appreciation of the faithful and very exemplary manner in which you have discharged the duties incumbent on you in virtue of your membership in our noble Order, and of the valuable services rendered by you in your recent official capacity of Recording Secretary.

As a permanent reminder of our grateful remembrance and of our personal respect and fraternal regard, we ask your acceptance of this collar, and beg to add that we feel it could not rest on the shoulders of an Oddfellow more worthy to bear it, or one who would be more mindful of the obligations its meaning imposes.

We trust that you may long be spared to wear it and adorn the principles of our beloved Order, and that wherever your lot may be cast, or wherever you may pitch your tent, that both yourself and family may enjoy the blessings of this life, and that when your earthly journey has been completed you may have a happy entrance into the Grand Lodge above.

Yours in Friendship, Love and Truth,
ROBT. J. LEE,
Past Grand.

Mr. SMITH, who was totally unaware that such an event was to take place, made a suitable reply. He thanked the members for the good wishes expressed and for the handsome gift. He had always taken a deep interest in the Order, and he would continue to do so, and would wear the regalia with pleasure.

CARS AT LABOR.—About ten o'clock on Tuesday night three flat cars on the Credit Valley railway were struck by a locomotive at Parkdale while the yardmen were shunting. As they were without brakes it was impossible to stop them, and they dashed down the grade and across King street crossing. The Central Prison switch was open at the time and the cars started for the prison, striking the massive gates and shattering them into kindling wood. They finally brought up about thirty yards inside the prison walls.

ENJOY THE DAY. Life is short, don't mope in the morning nor lag at noon. Keep your liver healthy, your digestion good with Zappa, and you can meet work with a smile, and your head never aches, your appetite is good, your digestion strong. Ask J. D. Tully.

ENGLAND AND THE SOUDAN.

Fears for Khartoum.—At Close Quarters.—The Mahdi to invade Upper Egypt—Two Hundred Thousand Men at his Back.

LONDON, March 12.—There is much anxiety regarding the situation at Khartoum.

THE MAHDI DENOUNCED.

Sheikh Senoussi has sent a letter to the Khedive branding El Mahdi as a bad Moslem, an impostor and assassin.

AN ATTACK TO BE MADE.

The British have taken a position one mile from the rebel camp. The attack will be made at daybreak with seven Gatling guns. The cavalry will probably fight dismounted. Hordes of rebels are hidden in trenches and pits. The British scouts are frequently fired upon.

OSMAN DIGMA'S STRATEGY.

A spy reports that Osman Digma, with seven thousand men, intends to take a position in a narrow defile, allow the British to pass, and attack them in the rear.

EL MAHDI'S INTENTIONS.

The Egyptian correspondents of the Paris newspapers state that the conviction of competent persons from Khartoum is that the Mahdi intends to invade Upper Egypt in October or November, when the rainy season will enable him to enter the desert without fear. They also speak of Egyptian sympathy with the Mahdi. A letter in the Debats says that his portraits are displayed in the streets of Cairo, and that the natives on passing them exclaim "God give the victory!" The English need not think of barring the way to this invasion of 200,000 or 300,000 men by fortifying certain points, for the invaders will not take the regular track, but will descend by the desert, enfilading the Bedouins on their way. No idea can be formed of the irritation and hatred against selfish England; who, since taking possession of Egypt, has brought on it nothing but catastrophe. The Sudan population, which supplies servants, porters, and labourers to Cairo, exults over the Mahdi's triumph, and his emissaries are beginning to arrive in the capital.

The Egypt correspondent, writing in a similar strain, says that the persons who have fled from Khartoum are unanimous in declaring that the Mahdi intends marching on Cairo after the rainy season in the beginning of November, and that the chiefs of the tribes in the Sudan have arranged to follow him. People well acquainted with the Sudan think such an invasion possible, and that the Mahdi could muster from 200,000 to 300,000 men. The only thing practicable for England is to crush the Mahdi with a large army in his own country.

GENERAL GRAHAM VICTORIOUS.

A Hard-Fought Battle—Four Thousand Rebels Killed—Osman Digma Wounded.

LONDON, March 13.—A despatch from Graham, dated "Osman Digma's Camp, 11.40 a.m.," says:—"The camp of the enemy has been taken after hard fighting. Over 70 of the British were killed and 100 wounded."

THE ATTACK.

At sunrise a Gardner gun and a nine-pounder were turned against the rebels, who were within 1,300 yards of the British and afforded an excellent target. The Arabs were soon ordered to retire to their main position. Stewart's cavalry arrived at half-past six and took a position on the British left so as to turn the enemy's right. The engagement soon became general. The infantry and artillery completely routed the enemy from their pits and trenches. As the British advanced men sprang up, sometimes within 200 yards of them, armed with spears and banishing huge shields. These would charge upon the British, but the British would charge upon the rebels, and the rebels would be repulsed. The British stormed the works, where the rebels were in force. The blacks held out their shields and spears against bayonets and bayonets until the trenches were like one vast grave.

DETAILS OF THE FIGHTING.

The British forces advanced in two brigades, which were broken into the form of squares. A series of encounters followed. Soon after leaving Zariba a great body of the rebels charged on the leading square, spearing many of the British. The sailors inside the square immediately closed up, and the rebels were repulsed with great slaughter. The advance was again resumed, when immense hordes rushed upon the British from both sides.

A MOMENTARY REPULSE.

The Second Brigade met with an obstinate resistance and was at one time repulsed. The Gardner and Gardner guns fell into the hands of the rebels, and were only recovered after a severe fight, when the British gained possession of the rebel camp. The hussars made a forward movement and cut off the rebels' retreat to Sinkat. It is hoped this will save the families of the massacred garrison.

LOSS OF THE REBELS.

A number of rebels still hover around the camp and fire when the cattle are being watered. The native guides bolted when the square was broken. Further fighting is improbable. The battle raged two and a half hours. The rebels lost in estimated at four thousand killed and six thousand wounded.

One Way of Taking off a Hat to a Lady.

Lady Melbourne passing Lord Milton one very cold day in her carriage, as he stood conversing with Partington, an eminent solicitor, she bowed to him. Unwilling to take off his own hat in the severe state of the atmosphere, he instantly made free with that of Partington, who, having his back toward Lady Melbourne, was not a little surprised at finding himself thus made the involuntary instrument of Dame's good-bye. Having, however, performed this act of civility by proxy, he coolly replaced Partington's hat on the head of its owner, with many apologies for the freedom.—Wrenn's Memoirs.

PARIS, March 13.—The French occupied Bacin yesterday. The Chinese fled in the direction of Thainguen. The French had seventy wounded. Gen. The Chinese loss is heavy. A Krupp battery and much ammunition were found in the citadel.

VIENNA, March 13.—A strange man committed suicide in this city to-day. The police believe it was his intention to kill the Emperor and other members of the Imperial family.

THE LASKER RESOLUTION.

BERLIN, March 13.—Bismarck made a speech in the Reichstag to-day justifying the course he had pursued in refusing to transmit the Lasker resolution to the Reichstag. He said he had recognized the good intentions of the American Congress, but was unable to harness himself to the car of the Opposition. The relations of Germany with America have always been good, and the Government has constantly tried to cultivate them. Ever since he had been Minister the relations of the two countries had been satisfactory. After the war with Austria, and again after the Franco-Prussian war, America gave numerous proofs of sympathy, not only with the prosperity of the Empire but also with the person of the Chancellor. He continued:—"Nothing has occurred to disturb these good relations. From the outset I regarded the resolutions touching Herr Lasker as an expression of the good feeling of the American Congress toward Germany."

AVAILANCES IN COLORADO.

Unparalleled Snow Falls—Seventeen Persons Known to have Perished.

DENVER, March 11.—Last night snow-laden descended on the station at Woodstock, on the South Park railroad, carrying away every building in the town, including the railway station. Seventeen persons are known to have been caught in the avalanche, including Mrs. Doyle, widow, who kept the station, and her six children, and another woman, name unknown. Two women were rescued last night alive, but seriously injured. The body of one section hand was recovered this morning. The snow fall in the mountain district of Colorado the present winter is without parallel in the history of the State. Mining camps west and south have been snowed out since November. The snow is eight feet deep on the level over the whole country, and in ravines and gulches fifty to one hundred feet. The only means of communication is on snow shoes. Few men are heroic enough to face the bitter storm.

A Conservative Triumph Predicted.

Lord Salisbury, in addressing a meeting at Chelsea on Tuesday evening in support of the Conservative candidates for members of Parliament, predicted a complete and early Conservative victory. The Conservative programme, he said, was to appeal to the people on public business, especially on measures like the Franchise Bill, which sacrificed England and Scotland for Ireland. He urged a dissolution of Parliament before any change was made in the franchise system, and declared the Government's policy had aggravated and perpetuated the depression in industry and trade, and caused loss wages to the working classes. The Radical attacks upon property and the destruction of the work of the means of livelihood. The Egyptian disasters were due to the indecision arising from divided Cabinet councils. He was opposed to the surrender of Khartoum, which he declared would be surrendering to barbarism what civilization had won. A resolution was adopted declaring that in view of the disasters arising from the Government's policy, an immediate dissolution of Parliament was desirable.

HOPE CENTRALIZATION.

In the new regulations which Mr. G. W. Ross has asked the Provincial Legislature to ratify, we have another instance of the systematic attempts at centralization, at which the Mowat Administration is constantly aiming. Inconsistent and hesitating in other things, Mr. Mowat and his colleagues seem to have one idea upon which they are steady. It is that municipal councils, boards of Education, and other local authorities—the representatives chosen directly or indirectly by the people to conduct their affairs and manage the finances which they contribute, are either so foolish or so wrong headed that they cannot be trusted to perform any act without constant dictation from these autocrats.

We are not here considering whether these regulations are good or bad, whether they are expedient or inexpedient under the circumstances. The particular point to which we more especially refer, is the attempt to dictate to the school board and so to its constituents, to the managers of the town of Peterborough for instance, the amounts which they are to pay to teachers in the Collegiate Institutes. Mr. Mowat and Mr. Ross say in fact to the members of our Board of Education, to the electors who elect some of them, and to our Town Council representing the people who appoint others of them, that they are not fit to be entrusted with the power to manage our educational affairs, or with the right to make such bargains as may seem expedient to them for the services required. They say to the ratepayers of Peterborough and other towns: "You must find the money, and must let us tell you how to spend it." Mr. Mowat can be very liberal with other people's money, as for instance when he took the property left by Mr. Mercer and spent it for the benefit of political favorites and women of ill-fame, instead of handing it over to Mr. Mercer's son.

Where are the encroachments upon local rights and local funds to? If Mr. Mowat is allowed to fix the salaries we are to pay teachers in our Collegiate Institutes, what logical objection can there be to his following this precedent in the case of High Schools? What is to prevent him from going a step further and dictating the salaries we are to pay our Common School teachers? If he is quietly allowed to usurp our right of making our own financial bargains with teachers, will he not probably proceed to demand the power to veto our choice of them, and possibly, as the next step, to choose them for us.

Of course it will be protested that no such scheme is hatching, and that it will be time enough to object when the attempt is made. But the first step, and that a most objectionable one, is already being taken. We remember the proverb, "Ce n'est que le premier pas qui coûte," and our experience of Mr. Mowat shows us how readily he will take the successive steps, if once he gets a foothold. His favorite policy is to centralize all power in himself, to belittle our municipal and local municipal institutions, and to divert the people of their old rights of self government. Any new movement in this direction is therefore to be suspected and opposed.

It must be remembered also that we have had some foreboding of this policy of seizing upon the educational patronage, and assuming control of the schools throughout the Province. One of the Reform journals, more incoherent than the rest, advocated some time ago the appointment of teachers in all our schools by the Mowat Administration on the ground of the untried benefit of educating our youths in sound political principles. Some of its contemporaries of the same party applauded this idea, and we did not observe, with rather extensive reading, any protest by a single Reform journal against this proposed usurpation. If it is not carried out by Mr. Mowat and his colleagues, it will be from want of power, not from want of will, and therefore it is necessary to protest against this first step.

THE DAILY EVENING REVIEW is delivered to subscribers at ten cents a week.

FIRST SESSION OF THE FIFTH LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF ONTARIO.

Postponing Payment till after the Session—
Fleeing Mr. Mercer—Fixing the Salaries we Must Pay—Second Free Grants—Contracts by Legislative Act.

Mr. CROFTON on Wednesday asked why the receipts from the Ontario Gazette had dwindled from $9,198 in 1882, to $1,208 in 1883.

Mr. A. M. ROSS said that something was due from the printers of the Gazette, but something was due to them on the printing contract, so no settlement had been made nor would be made till after the session.

Mr. FRENCH moved to prevent the fraudulent obtaining of speedy judgments to the prejudice of other creditors.

Mr. MEREDITH said he thought something should be done, as the present system was very bad. He thought the Provincial Legislature had authority.

Mr. GIBSON (Hamilton) also gave instances showing the necessity for a change.

Mr. MOWAT, after further discussion said he doubted if the Province had jurisdiction, but he would consider the matter.

THE MERCEZ ESTATE.

Mr. HAMMILL moved for papers as to the value of the Mercer real and personal property, and of payments made to Mr. A. Mercer, Jr. He said that young Mercer had been hardly treated, and though $25,000 had been placed to his credit the interest had not been paid regularly, so that with his large family he was in debt.

Mr. MOWAT owned that the payments had been interrupted because Mr. Mercer had disputed the right of the Provincial Government to deal with the estate. Now the question of jurisdiction was raised as to the personal property, and until the Privy Council decided they might have to stop the payments again. They were however making them in the meantime.

Mr. CROFTON thought that Mr. Mercer who was undoubtedly the son and had at least an equitable right to the property had been treated very shabbily. It was not the custom to sequester property for the benefit of the crown. They had by their irregular payments forced Mr. Mercer to pawn a valuable watch, and then Mr. Mowat having received it held it as a pledge, a small business for the Premier of Ontario.

Mr. FRANKER threatened to attack the character of Mr. Mercer.

Mr. MEREDITH saw no reason why they should have made an exception in this case, and forfeited the equitable property contrary to the custom. They should have submitted the whole case and not part only to the Privy Council.

Mr. MOWAT denied that there had been shabby treatment. Mr. Mercer's creditors were claiming his annuity.

THE MOWAT CASE.

Mr. O'CONNOR moved the second reading of his bill to take from Mutual Fire Insurance Companies the right to sue for their premiums in any Division Court where they had an agency, instead of in the defendant's locality. It was an exceptional power, and might cause great hardships to defendants sued in distant courts.

Mr. YOUNG urged that the mutual companies did great service, and it would be inconvenient for them to sue all over the country.

Mr. MOWAT said the mover had made out a strong case, but it was difficult to say what was the best course. The bill should be withdrawn and they might think over it till next session.

Mr. O'CONNOR, after some further discussion, withdrew the bill.

BUILDING SOCIETIES.

Mr. GIBSON (Hamilton) moved the second reading of his bill to limit the amount to be borrowed by building societies. The clause was initiated from the Dominion Act.

The bill was read a second time and referred to a special committee.

CHECKING GLANDERS.

Mr. DRYDEN moved the second reading of his bill to prevent the spread of glanders.

After considerable discussion the bill was read a second time and referred to a select committee.

COLLEGIATE INSTITUTES.

Mr. G. W. ROSS moved that the order-in-Council passed March 1st, authorizing the adoption of the following new regulations respecting Collegiate Institutes be ratified:—

1. The following conditions are required from each Collegiate Institute now existing for its continuance, and for the establishment and continuance of any new Collegiate Institute, namely:—

(1) Suitable school buildings, outbuildings, grounds, and appliances for physical training.

(2) Library containing standard books of reference bearing on the subjects of the programme.

(3) Laboratory, with all necessary chemicals and apparatus for teaching the subject of elementary science.

(4) Four masters at least, each of whom shall be specially qualified to give instruction in one of the following departments:—Classics, mathematics, natural science, and modern languages, including English; the teaching staff of the institute being such as to provide the means of thorough instruction in all the departments mentioned.

(5) The excellence of the school, as required by the foregoing, must always be maintained to justify the special grant in each year.

If no new Collegiate Institute shall be established unless all of the above conditions are complied with; and unless the yearly salaries of the four specially qualified masters required by condition (4) amount in the aggregate to the sum of $4,500 at least.

wards centralization. The institutes should at least be allowed time to comply with the regulations.

Mr. ROSS denied that there was centralization. He was willing to extend the time to Jan. 1, 1885.

Mr. MEREDITH objected to interfering with the rights of the ratepayers by fixing the amounts of the salaries.

Mr. MULHOLLAND mentioned places in which these regulations would degrade the institutes to high schools.

Mr. FRANKER thought that Peterborough might be affected.

Mr. GIBSON (Hamilton) praised the work done for the Province by the collegiate institutes. He thought the regulations might sweep many of them out of existence, but it would do no harm if they were reduced to High Schools.

Mr. FERRIS thought the High and Common schools were also doing Provincial work, and this fixing of the salaries was objectionable, for it might be extended to them.

The debate was adjourned.

SECOND FREE GRANTS.

Mr. PARDEE moved the House into Committee of the whole to consider his bill to enable a free grant patentee who had disposed of his land to obtain another location. It gave a grown-up son in possession, but not infant children, he could locate elsewhere.

Mr. MEREDITH thought that three years was enough for settlement duties instead of five. The Dominion was more liberal.

Mr. PARDEE declared that such a thing was impracticable.

The bill was reported.

RAILWAYS AND MINES.

Mr. PARDEE moved the House into Committee on his bill respecting Railways and Mines.

Mr. WOOD showed that there was still too much power left to railways to appropriate mines, and Mr. Meredith supporting his argument, Mr. Pardee agreed to the necessary modification.

LEGISLATING A CONTRACT.

Mr. HARRY moved the second reading of a bill to prevent water and gas companies from discriminating in their rates. It appeared from his explanations that the city of Toronto had raised the water rate for the public institutions, and the Government took this means of coercing them.

Mr. CLARKE complained of this injustice to his constituency. The consumption at the public institutions was enormous and they had to pay accordingly.

Mr. PARDEE also objected to the city being thus coerced by a Government which paid no taxes.

Mr. MEREDITH said it was a most mischievous precedent for the Government to use the power of the Legislature to compel a company to do a thing that was unwilling to enter into it. It was very mischievous thus to interfere with freedom of contract. They had compensation as to gas in London, but the bill would stop that.

Mr. PARDEE said these public institutions were a great benefit to a locality, and other cities would be glad of them. They would not let Toronto coerce the Province.

Mr. HARRY said there was no coercion but only an attempt to cut off their water. The city had threatened to cut off their water.

The bill was read a second time.

AGRICULTURAL COMMITTEE.

OTTAWA, March 12.—The select committee on Agricultural Industries met this morning and examined Mr. Blue, secretary of the Ontario Bureau of Industries, in relation to the working of his department. Mr. Blue stated that the Bureau had been in existence for nearly three years and had worked very satisfactorily. It was devoted to collecting statistics of the acreage and yield of the various crops, numbers of live stock, prices of produce, municipal assessments, &c. Returns were also received from a large number of correspondents throughout the country of the progress of the crops during the growing season, with any special features of the season, atmospheric influences, epidemics, or insect ravages which might occur. These reports were summarized and published in returns from line to time during the season. He believed the collection of crop statistics was of great benefit to the farming and business community, furnishing, as it did, reliable information at the earliest possible date of the crop production of the season, and enabling the producer to estimate the probable effect on the market of the existing conditions. He approved of the organization of a Dominion Bureau for certain branches of enquiry, but pointed out the advantages possessed by provincial organizations of the kind in being able to utilize the municipal system for enquiries of a local character.

FLOODS IN THE STATES.

TROY, March 12.—The river is rising fast. The ice moved several feet this evening. The trusses where the bridge is being repaired were carried away.

NEW ORLEANS, March 12.—The railroad authorities hope to close the levee at New Orleans in a day or two. Freight trains on the Texas Pacific and Morgan's railroad are discontinued. Another break is reported in St. Charles parish, five miles below Hannville, thirty feet wide.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—The dam at Fresno, Cal., has broken away and the whole town is inundated. It will be a week before trains run east from Los Angeles, and two weeks before repairs to the damage done by the flood to the railroad will be completed.

Daily Evening Review

SATURDAY, MARCH 15, 1884.

The Orange County Lodge of Middlesex, has recently passed a resolution strongly condemning the course last year of those Protestant representatives, especially those from Ontario who voted to deny the order of its rights.

The leading Reform journal is now joining Sir Richard Cartwright in his attack upon the people of Canada for a deterioration of the general tone of their moral. Of course these critics judge others by themselves and their associates.

MR. BLAKE AND THE "GLOBE"

In reference to the article in which the leading Reform journal used Mr. Blake's name in a corrupt bid for the French Conservative vote, the Globe says:—"We are responsible for our own utterances, and no one else is." That point being settled perhaps the Globe will also explain why it used Mr. Blake's name without his authorization to give weight to its disingenuous offer. Of course only Mr. Blake can explain why he allowed the corrupt bid to stand open in his name without disavowing it immediately—why, in fact, he was an accessory to this political crime after the event, if not before it.

HYPOCRISY REBUKED.

MR. BLAKE brought down upon himself a very well-deserved rebuke by one of his sneering interruptions of the debate. His effrontery in suggesting that a bill of indemnity might be passed to relieve contractors contributing to election funds from the penalties called from Mr. Mackenzie Bowell the prompt rejoinder that Mr. Blake's party has had to whitewash a scandalized Speaker and other Reform members who were enjoying contracts. As a lawyer, Mr. Blake could not defend the Speaker who had taken large sums from the country under the pretence of doing work which he did not and could not do, but as a politician, Mr. Blake was quite willing to replace a man so corrupt in the chair to preside over the deliberations of the House of Commons. Well might Mr. Bowell call upon Mr. Blake to clear himself before he assumed such lofty airs of pretended purity.

Resolution to be a Ward of Toronto

The question of annexation was finally settled on Tuesday by a vote of the people. For annexation, 55; against, 17; a majority of 60. After the result was announced to the assembled crowd a public meeting was held in the town hall. Reeve McConnell, in a stirring speech, advised the people to acquire as much fresh land property as possible before the price goes up. Another speaker felt great pleasure at the result of the voting. He took special interest in Toronto and all her suburbs, because his forefathers had helped to build a magnificent city out of trees. Several other speakers addressed the audience, and the meeting broke up with roving cheers for St. Ann's ward.

Telegraphic News From Egypt.

The rapidly with which intelligence is conveyed from the seat of war in the Soudan to New York and London is explained by the New York Herald. A cable has for some years been laid in the Red sea from Aden to Suez and Alexandria, connecting by way of Malta with the European telegraphic system. On January 20th the British telegraph ship Chiltern plied up the main cable and proceeded to lay a branch line to Suakin. Two days later the wire was in working order. Three weeks ago by a similar process telegraphic communication was opened from Tripoli, where a corps of engineers is stationed to bring back news from the advancing army. The telegraph line down the Nile to Khartoum, which is still in working order, transmits all the news from General Gordon and that quarter of the Soudan.—Fort Hope Guide.

Floods at Montreal.

MONTREAL, March 13.—The railways are in their normal condition again, and are keeping good time. The weather to-day was springlike, the warm rays of the sun having a strong effect in clearing off the immense quantity of snow that fills the streets. There are grave fears of terrible floods in this quarter if the atmosphere keeps as warm as to-day for any time, as the river is rapidly rising.

LIQUOR ON EXCURSIONS.

Mr. McLAUGHLIN moved an amendment to prevent liquor being sold on a boat carrying an excursion.

Mr. BALFOUR supported the amendment. Mr. FRASER said "excursion" was a wide word, but in a long trip liquor might be sold.

Mr. CROFTON said there was much annoyance from the sale of liquor on board excursions, and it should not be allowed except on voyages of some days.

Mr. BLIZARD thought the clause would do no good, as excursionists would take liquor with them in their pockets, and the officers would have less control than if they could close the bars when necessary.

Mr. CLARKE supported the prohibition. Mr. McLAUGHLIN withdrew his amendment in favor of one by Mr. Hardy, providing for the regulation of the sale on excursion boats by the commissioners, which was carried.

SCOTT ACT COUNTERS.

Mr. HARDY moved a new clause to empower the Government to appoint officers when the Scott Act was in force the same as under the Crooks Act.

OVER ISSUE OF LICENSES.

Mr. McREEDITH regretted that nothing had been done to limit the license to the legal number.

Mr. HARDY said this was a matter for the Department.

Mr. PARDEE brought in his resolutions as to the assumption of railways by the Dominion. After some preliminary expressions of his hostility to the Government of Canada he argued that this step was against both the spirit and the letter of the B. N. A. Act, which gave railway control to all the Provinces and only in exceptional cases to the Dominion, when they connected different provinces, or where for the general advantage of Canada or two of its Provinces. This was probably because it was thought that railways of this class would be of rare occurrence compared with the Provincial kind. He thought that the fact of a railway crossing a Dominion line would not fairly justify this description, and that such a wholesale assumption, without giving special reasons, was wrong. He instanced the London, Grey and Bruce as a road that should not be assumed. He believed that any court would declare the Dominion Legislation invalid. Eight roads were named, the Intercolonial, Grand Trunk, North Shore, Northern, Hamilton and North-Western, Great Western, Credit Valley, Ontario and Quebec, Canada Southern and Canada Pacific. Six of these were already Dominion roads, but the other two were assumed to complete the scheme. He argued that the legislation affected all Canada, but was really aimed at Ontario. The municipalities would not be so ready to grant aid to rail-roads in future. They had constructed 2,000 miles of railway with aid from the Province of $6,000,000, and from the municipalities of $3,000,000. All this had been raised lawfully and constitutionally. He argued that Ontario had therefore a claim to be recompensed these amounts by the Dominion, and it was the duty of the Province to press for it. He scoffed at the fact that the Dominion Act specially declared that the Provincial legislation should remain in force. He said the Conservative press pleaded in excuse for the Dominion that the Province had allowed amalgamation, but he argued that the Provincial charters gave the House a right to allow amalgamation if it thought proper. He then asked the Grit agitators in Algoma on the back, and broadly hinted at imitating them in any attempt to weaken the Government of Canada. He then moved his resolutions, which after reciting the B. N. A. Act provisions as to railways, and the resolution of the House in 1882, that no Provincial railway should be assumed without consent of the Province, or good reasons shown, stated that the Dominion assumed all main lines, and also branch lines connecting with or crossing them; that this was transferring all roads from Provincial to Dominion jurisdiction; that large sums ($14,000,000) had been granted by the Province and municipalities; that these grants were made on the faith that the roads should remain under Provincial control, so that there was a just claim to have them refunded by the Dominion; that the roads assumed were local and provincial and that the assumption of them as being for the general advantage of Canada was inconsistent with fact and with the B. N. A. Act; and that the House deemed it its duty to firmly protest against the encroachment of the Liberal Government on the rights of the Province and to assert the right to exercise jurisdiction and control over local railways.

Mr. McREEDITH rebuked the spirit in which Mr. Pardee had approached the subject. He and his friends added the agitators in Manitoba to press extraordinary claims upon the Dominion, and their leading organ had encouraged Quebec to do the same. Such conduct was unpatriotic and had an evil tendency to their common country. He fully believed in maintaining the rights of Ontario, but it should be done in a peaceable and constitutional manner. He quite agreed that the Dominion should not exercise their power under the B. N. A. Act without sufficient reason and from mere caprice, but he could not agree that they should never exercise it. The first instance of such action was by the Reform Government of Mr. Mackenzie, which assumed the Canada Southern, wholly within the Province. Why did not the Provincial Government, a member of which was a collector of the road, then protest if they were sincere in their present arguments? Mr. Pardee spoke of the 2,000 miles of railway built since confederation, but this included a great extent of road under Dominion charter. Mr. Pardee had taken the London Grey and Bruce as an example of a road that should not be assumed, when it was a branch of the Great Western, a Dominion line.

Mr. GIBSON (Huron), Mr. PARDEE and Mr. FRASER, denied this. Mr. McREEDITH turned to the official report submitted by Mr. Fraser over his signature in which the London, Grey and Bruce was given as a branch of the Great Western, among many others. They were owned and worked by the Great Western. Mr. Blake had said on this question in the House of Commons last year, "I quite agree with the hon. gentleman (Mr. McCarthy) that a branch line should be subject to the same jurisdiction as the main line." That was the opinion of the Reform leader. Mr. Blake actually moved an amendment striking out the general provision affecting independent railways, but leaving in the branch lines. Mr. Pardee said railway enterprise would be checked, but what single projected line had been given up since the step was taken. The Government had allowed the Canada Southern, with its Provincial subsidy, to be assumed, while one of them was its solicitor. The simple truth was that then their friends were in power at Ottawa, but now they were a Conservative government they attacked it on purpose to create irritation against political opponents. He showed that the proposal that the Provincial and municipal houses should be refunded, meant that municipalities which did not grant aid and were not benefited should be burdened with a share of the debt of those municipalities which voted the aid and were getting the benefit, for the railways were still there. They were wiser than to strengthen the hands of the Province that were soliciting for aid from the Federal Treasury. Their main object seemed to be to stir up strife. He held that branches of the Dominion lines should be under control of the Dominion, for a decided responsibility would be a dangerous absurdity. He did not believe, however, that this should be effected by a general provision, but by a name in each case, and that railways not yet in existence should be thus dealt with. Thus far he went with gentlemen opposite, but he did not wish to be in understanding to stir up irritation, not using language calculated to endanger the peace, solidity and strength of the Dominion of Canada. There was no reason why they should not come with the leader of the Dominion Government and ask the Dominion Parliament to repeal the objectionable portions of their act. This would be a manly, dignified course. They should maintain the rights of their Province, but at the same time they should not forget that they were members of this great confederation. He did not doubt the patriotism of the gentlemen opposite, but in the heat of party strife, and in their anxiety to displace the Dominion Government, they were led to act so as to injure and endanger the confederation. He hoped they would deal with the matter in a broad and liberal spirit. He moved an amendment recognizing the right of the Federal Government to assume branches of Dominion lines but not independent roads or roads not chartered or in existence; that notice should be given to the Provincial Government so as to allow it to be heard in opposition; that the Dominion Act, except as to branch lines, should be repealed as contrary to the extent of the B. N. A. Act; and that communication should be had with the Federal Government to obtain this repeal, and to define the practice to be adopted hereafter.

Mr. HARDY made a very inflammatory reply, abusing the Dominion, assuming it of existing $50,000,000 of property of Ontario, and praising the handful of Reform agitators and second-rate politicians. He thought it quite right, however, that Mr. Mackenzie should assume the said Canada Southern. In defence of the facts and of the official reports he argued that the branches of the Trunk lines were not common because they wanted separate boards &c. The Conservatives now objected to amalgamation, but they had voted for it. He moved an amendment to the amendment to add to Mr. Pardee's resolutions that a railway with a Provincial charter should not be allowed to be assumed without the consent of the Province, or its being shown that such consent was refused on insufficient grounds. The debate was continued by Mr. Morris, Mr. Zemaister, Mr. Crofton, and Mr. Pardee on the Opposition side, and by Mr. Ferris, Mr. Young and Mr. G. W. Ross for the Government.

Mr. Pardee's resolutions as amended by Mr. Pardee, were carried by 47 to 32.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

THE SECOND SESSION OF THE FIFTH PARLIAMENT OF CANADA.

A Rapid Change of Views at the Second of Votes—The Opposition Succeeded in Delaying a Discussion of the Liquor Question—Great Increase of Land Sales.

AN OPPOSITION VICTORY.

Mr. CASBARIAN on Thursday moved that the House should go into Committee on his bill as to electing members of the House. The bill had been introduced in Committee, but he made the motion that the votes of members might be placed on record.

The motion was negatived by 97 to 50. Finding their adverse majority so great, the Opposition now showed their sincerity in wishing the votes recorded by objecting to Mr. Fortin's vote, as he was not in the House.

The Speaker, after some discussion, decided that Mr. Fortin having heard the question through in the gallery was entitled to vote.

The next objection was that Mr. Fortin by changing his seat had lost the right to vote. The SPEAKER ruled that on this ground Mr. Fortin had forfeited his vote, and his name must be struck off.

By this glorious Opposition victory the majority was diminished to 98 to 59 against the motion.

THE MORTGAGE ACT.

Sir J. MACDONALD moved that Mr. Hodge's motion to repeal the Mortgage Act be considered immediately after routine on Monday.

Mr. BLAIR claimed that there was an understanding that it should be considered that day, and moved an amendment to that effect, after referring to the fact that the Orange Bill stood for Monday and that the time for reports on private bills would soon expire.

Sir J. MACDONALD denied that there was such an arrangement. It was desired to proceed before Easter, and he wished the House to have full time for this important discussion. Mr. CASBARIAN (Victoria) said he would vote for the motion if the time for reporting on the Orange Bill was extended.

The amendment was lost by 123 to 70.

ANOTHER VERY SMALL VICTORY.

Mr. MACKENZIE objected to a vote being taken on Sir John's motion, as it required notice.

The SPEAKER ruled that notice was required. By this technicality the Opposition were successful in blocking a full discussion of the Liquor License question.

SUPPLY.

The House then went into Committee of Supply and passed several items.

LAND SALES.

Mr. MILLER, of the Department of the Interior, called attention to the fact that two of the clerks over the number under the previous Administration.

Sir JOHN MACDONALD said there was much more work. For instance, there had been ten times as much land sold in the last three years as during the whole time the late Ministry was in power.

American Views of Bismarck's Speech.

Speaking in relation to Bismarck's speech in the Reichstag on Friday, Cardin said: "A great big statesman makes a great big mistake. When such a man makes a mistake it is apt to be a big one."

Mr. Senator Eaton said: "The speech shows that Bismarck, individually, has no antipathy against the American people."

Kasson thought Bismarck considered the matter one of a purely internal German nature. "In this country we do not quarrel over an apology delivered at the grave of an enemy."

Congressman Hill said: "The incident has been placed in such shape by our foreign office that there is nothing left at this moment to be done, and it is doubtful if anything should be said."

Congressman Odell thought the complete speech a complete hedge of Bismarck.

Lamb said: "The speech is an admission on the part of Bismarck that he at least acted hastily and in bad temper."

Rice said: "Bismarck has expressed his views in a manly and dignified manner, and now we have a right to do the same."

W. R. Box thought the remarks of Bismarck manifested a good spirit.

Deuster expressed himself as highly pleased with the speech.

S. B. Cox said the utterances of Bismarck were unbecomingly.

Hewitt, of New York, characterized the speech as a good natured attempt by Bismarck to relieve himself from the unfavorable comment accorded by his action.

Value of Small things.

Some years ago a firm in England patented a candle. Now, a candle seems to be pretty much a thing to patent, but it made a fortune for its owners, and when one reflects on the large number of candles annually consumed they will better realize that a very small royalty on every pound of them will aggregate a large revenue.

Similar instances might be given from cases at home, where inventors have originated some simple article in daily use, patented it, and then have received large rewards. "Doubtless not the day of small things," says the proverb, and we may say in addition, devoid of ideas as useless as the candle, to advance the arts and sciences in ever so small a degree, merely because it seems simple.

A very great misconception prevails in the minds of many people as to the value of patents. They are regarded as stepping stones to fame. This is usually a delusion. An invention is first and principally an investment—just as an artist's picture. The glory and renown attaching to either picture or invention is the after part—the desert to the artist's fame and the artist's fame.

The natural result of the mistake alluded to is to lead persons to undervalue the value of their ideas. It is not at all uncommon to hear individuals exclaim: "What, get a patent on that thing?" in alluding to some little affair that can be carried in the pocket. That very despised, "little thing" is just as likely to be the means of getting dollars into the pocket of its patentee as the little candle patent was the foundation of one of the largest candle manufactures in England.—Scientific American.

Lord Lyndhurst's Poetry.

One morning I went into his room with some message or request, and was witness to a little scene that I shall never forget. He was in his easy chair, with a grave and almost a solemn expression on his face, so intent on his employment that my presence was unnoticed. Before him, the church Prayerbook lay open by both his small hands, and his young daughter, of 17 or 18 years of age, hearing him repeat the prayer, and now and then accompanying and correcting him. The old man, the Judge and statesman, and the little child so occupied, made a picture that could not be seen without bringing tears to the eye. He had no one to hear him but his own soul, but his little girl.—Sir J. Martin's Life of Lord Lyndhurst.

Enjoy the day. Life is short, don't mope in the morning, mope in the evening, mope in the middle of the day. You may meet with a smile, and your head may ache, your appetite is good, your digestion strong. Ask J. D. Tully.

DISTRICT INTELLIGENCE

HALIFAXTON.

COURT COUNCIL.—A special session of the Halifax County Council was held last week. Mr. Mooney was retired from the position of county clerk and treasurer, and Mr. J. H. Delamere appointed clerk and Mr. Brown treasurer. Some other business was transacted.—Post.

PORT HOPE.

A CALL EXTENDED.—At a meeting of the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church on Monday evening last, a motion to call Rev. Mr. Mitchell to the pastorate of this church was carried by a large majority, and a resolution to make the call unanimous was subsequently adopted.

The rev. gentleman was educated in Toronto, Edinburgh and Leipzig, and is a scholar of very high attainments. He has had but one regular charge,—that of Mitchell, Ont., which he held for about fourteen years. Resigning for reasons entirely of a private and personal nature, he went to the North-west, where he succeeded in establishing two or three congregations; but having no particular fondness for the climate of that country, he decided to resign. He preached in the church here on the last two Sabbaths, and during his week's stay made many friends among the congregation.—Times.

STIRLING.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—What might easily have been a fatal shooting accident happened at the place of Mr. Isaac Bailey, on the Rawdon side of the town line, three miles west of Stirling, on Monday morning, resulting from that dangerous and silly practice some people have of carrying loaded pistols, despite the law to the contrary. Mr. Bailey's son George, aged about twenty years, was turning a grindstone, having a of those weapons in his side pocket, when J. a handle struck the pistol, causing it to discharge, the ball passing upwards through the young man's cloth, and entering the left jaw, being spent just below the eye, where it lodged between the outer and inner skin. Fortunately it resulted only in a flesh wound, but might just as easily have entered his brain and caused instant death. It was indeed a lucky escape. Moral: Don't carry a loaded pistol in your pocket.

BOBAYGEON.

DROWNED.—Mr. Wm. Tresson has met with a serious loss by the drowning of a valuable horse. He was driving from his shanty in Harvey to Bobaygeon, and whilst on the Ball Lake Narrows, near the mouth of Squaw River, the horse broke through the ice.

Mr. Tresson was alone, and had a narrow escape from being drowned himself in his efforts to try and save the horse.

MARRIAGE.—On Wednesday Mr. Gardner Boyd, a gentleman connected with the early days of this neighbourhood, was married at Berlin, Ont., to Emma Allen, second daughter of Dr. Bowley. The bridemaids were Miss Blanche Manning, of Toronto, Miss Anne Bowley, cousin of the bride, Miss Grace Bowley, the bride's sister, and Miss Maud Baird, of Toronto. The best men were Mr. G. Herbert Bowley and Mr. Langton, of Toronto. The bride was richly and becomingly attired. After the ceremony the happy couple and guests repaired to the residence of the bride's father, where a repast awaited them. The wedding was numerous and beautiful. The happy couple left New York by Cunard steamer to Europe, on Saturday, making a wedding tour of a few months in France and Italy.—Independent.

LINDSAY.

OBITUARY.—There is general and profound sympathy for Mr. J. W. Wallace, our worthy mayor, in the irreparable loss sustained by the death of his wife on Saturday night. Mrs. Wallace was a member of the Judd family of Millbrook, and was beloved and esteemed by all who knew her. Her early death will be mourned by a wide circle. The remains were taken to Toronto for interment in the family plot in Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

EXERCISES.—The election for the deputy reeve of Fenelon resulted in the return of Mr. Smithson by a majority of 119. The vote was—Smithson, 277; Knight, 158. A special meeting of the county council will be held soon to elect a warden.

OBITUARY.—Another old pioneer of Ope has been called away, at the venerable age of 89 years, in the person of Mr. John Gillman. The deceased came to this country from County Clare, Ireland, thirty-six years ago, and settled in Ope twenty-eight years ago. He was a good neighbor and was highly respected. He never had a day's sickness up to within two days of his death, and was in full possession of all his faculties. He had four sons and two daughters, but only two sons survive him, one Mr. Patrick Gillman, living in Ope, the other living in Kansas. Mrs. Gillman died many years ago.—Post.

Dakota Penitentiary.

FARGO, Dak., March 13.—A largely attended meeting of Penitentiary was held yesterday. Capt. Hazen presiding. It is learned that a report was made that three cases of arms were stored at an accessible point, and should there be need of them in Manitoba they would reach there with a number of men. At present it was decided to await the report of the delegates sent to Manitoba. It was reported that a number of letters had been exchanged between Dakota and there was great activity and interest in the organization in the large cities further east, and that moral and material aid would not be lacking when there was a call for them over the line.

Selfishate Suicide on the Track.

LONDON (Ont.), March 13.—As No. 6 (east bound) express on the Grand Trunk Railway, Great Western division, neared Appin this forenoon, a man was observed walking on the track. As the train approached he stepped to one side and stood still. Just as it reached him with a hand he leaped fairly in front of the engine, which struck him with tremendous force, hurling the unfortunate suicide off the track into the ditch. The train was stopped and the man picked up. He was found to have been killed by the shock. His body was brought to Lenoir station and so far has not been identified. He was apparently a young man and fairly well dressed.
